FIRE ENDS KILLING.

Negro Jones Burns in His Home.

Barricaded Himself After He Had Shot Another Black, and Is Besieged.

Two White Men Wounded and the Hunted Man's Father Killed.

Gov. Vardaman and Troops Leave Scooba—Hoodlums in the Trouble.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SELMA (Ala.) Dec. 27.—At Nicholasville, Alexander Jones, a negro, after shooting another negro, barricaded himself in his house.

Leo Pope and Seeke Pope, white men, attempted to arrest Jones, and were shot, but not killed.

Then a body of white men besieged the house.

Jones's father tried to carry ammunition to him, and was shot dead.

Finally a negro, for a reward of $5, set fire to the house and Jones was burned to death.

BLOOD AT A CARNIVAL.
NEGRO SHOOTS THREE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

MARLIN (Tex.) Dec. 27.—While about 2000 people were assembled on the public square last night to enjoy the carnival attractions, three pistol shots were fired in rapid succession, attended by deadly results.

A negro girl about 12 years old, was shot through the head and instantly killed.

A negro, Hunt Broddis, received fatal wounds [illegible]

A negro about 30 years of age, fled through the crowd, pistol in hand, shooting behind him as he ran, with the police in pursuit.

Walter Taylor, a policeman, was slightly wounded in the arm.

The negro has not been captured, but is said to be wounded.

KEMPER COUNTY RIOTS.
HOODLUMS AT THE BOTTOM.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 27.—That white men protected innocent negroes and that every effort is making by the whites to punish those "hoodlums" of their own race who were responsible for the Christmas riots in Kemper county, Miss., was the information in detailed accounts arriving early today from the little towns which were the scene of the bloodshed.

"A conference has been held," these dispatches say, "between the civil and military authorities, at which evidence was produced that will establish the identity of five white men of good families of the county who took part in the lynchings."

Dist.-Atty. Currie has made a public statement in which he says:

"I found upon investigation that the trouble was caused by a lot of hoodlums and outlaws who openly violated all laws of God and man and decency. The four men killed Christmas Day were not connected with the affair in any manner, and I am informed that the houses burned were occupied by negroes who were not even in sympathy with any of those who were connected with the outrages. These men will be captured, if it is in the power of the State of Mississippi to do so."

DEATH LIST TWELVE.

The dispatches say that the total death list is probably twelve. The mob element among the whites has mostly fled toward the Alabama State line, while negroes in terror have gathered at Scooba and Wahalak to place themselves under the protection of troops or of citizens.

The killing of a negro named Calvin Nicholson is reported as "one of the most brutal which has occurred since the days of reconstruction." Nicholson was a negro of the best class. While a posse was searching for a negro named Simpson, who had killed a deputy, they entered Nicholson's house and several persons began shooting at him.

Deputy Sheriff Alexander and two others rushed to the negro, shielding him with their bodies. They protected him until overpowered, after which he was shot and his house burned.

Dist.-Atty. Currie says he has fixed the blame for this murder on three men, and will arrest them, if they still are in the State.

TROOPS LEAVE SCOOBA.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MERIDAN (Miss.) Dec. 27.—All the troops stationed at Scooba, the scene of the recent race troubles, returned this afternoon, in charge of Gov. Vardaman, who went there last night to take personal command. Returning military officials and others say that apprehension of further trouble is passed. There were no outbreaks today.

THROWN INTO STREET.
WOMAN ABUSED BY SOLDIER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

EL RENO (Okla.) Dec. 27.—Race feeling is at white heat and threats of lynching are heard on every side, as a result of an assault committed on Mrs. T. S. Clifford, wife of a prominent physician, this afternoon, by a colored soldier of the Twenty-fifth Infantry.

Mrs. Clifford and her sister, Mrs. S. H. Clarke, were attempting to pass the soldier, when he viciously grabbed Mrs. Clifford around the waist and threw her into the street, exclaiming that the sidewalks belonged him.

Mrs. Clarke screamed for assistance, and the assailant fled, escaping before help arrived.

News of the attack spread rapidly, and the entire police department, reinforced by several hundred men and boys, searched the town and surrounding country, but this evening the chase was given up, as the negro was in uniform, and must return to the post or soon become a deserter.

Word was sent to Fort Reno, and all absentees noted. Both Mrs. Clifford and her sister are positive they can identify the man, and will go to Fort Reno tomorrow and attempt to pick him out from the soldiers who were not at the post when the assault occurred.

SHOT FOUR NEGROES.
TWO WHITE MEN ASSAILED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MARIANA (Fla.) Dec. 27.—In a shooting affray at Delwood, a small town in the interior, Christmas night, two white men and four negroes were wounded, two of the latter seriously.

Early in the night, four negroes, brothers named Bell, entered the store of J. W. Nichols, and, being intoxicated, were ejected by Nichols. Later, Nichols, accompanied by a man named Dykes, started home. They were fired on by the negroes, and both slightly wounded.

They returned the fire, wounding all four of the negroes, two probably fatally.

PRESIDENT AT PINE KNOT.

Party Drives Over from North Garden in the Afternoon Without Meeting With Adventure.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHARLOTTESVILLE (Va.) Dec. 27.—The President and party arrived at Pine Knot at 5 o'clock this afternoon. The drive there from North Garden, which they reached on the train at 3:15 o'clock, was without special incident.

HIS MESSENGER HELD UP.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—The President and his entire family, with the exception of [illegible] together with several friends, left Washington at 11:25 o'clock this forenoon for Pine Knob, Mrs. Roosevelt's country home, for a holiday outing. They will return Monday night.

The party included Admiral P. I. Rixey, Surgeon-General of the navy; Mr. Latta, assistant secretary of the President, and Miss Langdon, a friend of Miss Ethel Roosevelt.

Upon reaching the train one of the President's sons found he had forgotten to bring his gun. A messenger was dispatched to get the firearm. He got to the White House, and was going at a speed prohibited, when the Metropolitan police overhauled him and threatened him with arrest, but he did not desist. Explaining his mission, he was allowed to proceed to the station.

The President, learning what had occurred, called an officer and explained that the matter would be settled when he returned to Washington.

PASSES BARKIS IN WILLINGNESS.

BRYAN SAYS HE OUGHT TO ACCEPT THIRD CHANCE.

According to Him It Is Duty of Every Citizen to Take Presidential Nomination and Then in Interview He Discusses Preliminaries and Intricacies of Campaign.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

TOPEKA (Kan.) Dec. 22.—In an interview here today William J. Bryan practically admitted that he would be a candidate for the Presidential nomination before the next Democratic national convention.

"While I have not yet announced that I would be a candidate," said Bryan, "I have not stated that I would not be a candidate and do not intend to. Such a high honor as the Presidential nomination is something that no American citizen should decline."

Bryan declared that he had never stated that the President had stolen the thunder of the Democrats, although, he said, the President was now advocating many things favored by that party.

Bryan declared there was no foundation for the story that had been printed to the effect that he would, if nominated, favor the selection of Senator William Stone of Missouri as chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

"I have never told any one anything about the organization of the National Committee," he said. "I do not even know that I will be interested in it further than that I do not want to see men on the committee who are not good, clean men, who want a government for the people and not for the trusts. I do not care to see men on the committee like Roger Sullivan of Illinois."

In speaking of the railroad legislation enacted by Congress at its last session, he stated that he did not believe the legislation was what it should be, but he thinks that the President took what he could get. He said the giving of railroad passes was one of the most corrupting influences exercised in this country.

Bryan spoke before the Kansas State Teachers' Association here tonight.

UNREST IN ISLAND.

Bands of Negroes Pillaging, Burning and Blackmailing in Santa Clara.

Rural Guards Helpless and the United States Troops Take Exercise.

Disorder in Other Provinces. Natives Wonder at Gov. Magoon.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HAVANA (Cuba) Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The report that Gov. Magoon has made representations to Washington to the effect that there is no hope for permanent peace on the island unless the troops remain is causing a great stir here among the Liberals.

Gov. Magoon denies the report emphatically; says his words have been misconstrued, and explains the movement of 300 regulars to Santa Clara to be for exercise and the moral effect on the region of crowded workers on the sugar estates.

The truth is that this region is full of former members of the Liberal army who will not work. There is no direct trouble between the Moderates and Liberals, but the province is in a state of general social unrest.

BURNING AND PILLAGING.

Bands of negroes are pillaging, burning cane, blackmailing planters, and the Liberal leaders are trying to turn the conditions into a demand of the people for the appointment of a new Liberal Gov[illegible]

The disturbers are [illegible] from the Rural Guards [illegible] to put down.

The incident illustrates the widespread reign of disorder. It is not acute, but is reported from other provinces as well.

Gov. Magoon is apparently right in not attributing it to politics, and is suspected of thinking it due to "general cussedness." The Governor is a continual source of wonder to the Cubans.

ALL SAME THEATRICALS.

The Liberals, in the "orchestra chairs," applaud one moment and hiss the next; the Moderates in the galleries do not think much of the "show," and the Conservatives, or property owners, who stand up and pay for it all, wonder whether the play is to be comedy or tragedy. It seems to partake of the three.

Farce and comedy are chasing themselves upon the Cuban political stage. The play amuses and entertains, but grows stale, or rather, the audience grows impatient for the last act, in which it looks for sterner stuff.

LINKED RIVERS FURNISH POWER.

ENGINEERS EXPECT TO GENERATE MIGHTY FORCE.

By Gravity Canals Between Platte and Loup They Propose to Create Electric Current Equal to Strength of Two Hundred Thousand Horses for Use in Middle West.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

OMAHA (Neb.) Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Minor contracts have been let insuring the undertaking by the General Electric and Power Company of New York of a system of canals, harnessing the Platte and Loup rivers, furnishing, it is estimated, sufficient fall to enable the equalization of 200,000 horse power of electricity which it is planned to furnish power for electric light, power and interurban railway projects.

Surveyors have been working in the field, restaking the route and it is announced that work on the project will be taken up in the early spring. The length of the canals will be twenty-eight miles and it is estimated the approximate cost will be $4,000,000.

PAY FOR HOLIDAYS.

Chairman Shonts Makes an Announcement of Interest to Skilled Labor in the Canal Zone.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Chairman Shonts of the Isthmian Canal Commission today announced that the commission had decided to pay the employés on the isthmus whose compensation is fixed on an hourly basis for January 1, February 22, May 30, July 4, Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day and December 25.

The compensation for these employés will be on the basis of an eight-hour day.

They will accept pay for the holidays [illegible] canal zone, who number about 5000.

If such employés be required to work on these holidays, they will be paid time and a half in addition.

PERSIAN DEFIES GOVERNMENT.

TEHERAN, Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Saaded Dowleh, late Persian Minister to Belgium, and brother of the Persian Minister to Washington, a member of the Medgellis, representing Resht and the same man who two evenings ago threw down the gauntlet to the President of the Assembly, said today:

"We have ample means of compelling the government to accede to our demands."

NEW TANGLES IN THE STREETER SCANDALS.

J. Hamilton Lewis and Others Are Mixed in Malodorous Case—Colonel Says He Was Tricked by Inventor's Friends—Others Get Involved.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A scandal enveloping the release of 17-year-old Margaret Burkle in the Juvenile Court—temporarily silenced through Judge Carpenter's failure to push contempt charges against Attorney C. Stuart Beattie, for having engineered the mysterious transaction—broke out anew today.

New names were dragged into the case—names that caused profound surprise. The "big politician in the City Hall," frequently referred to in the development of the complication, was disclosed as Col. James Hamilton Lewis, corporation counsel.

A judge, whose name has never hitherto been heard in connection with the case, also came in for unpleasant mention.

Another department head in the City Hall found himself embarrassed through the importunities of a saloonkeeper to accept a "retainer" to "square the Burkle case." The recipient of this offer, astounded at the suggestion of a fee, inasmuch as he is not a lawyer, spurned the proffer.

His visitor was named as Joseph Mayers, conducting the saloon under the notorious Cecil Hotel in Van Buren street, a counterpart of the Rensu, where Margaret Burkle was rescued from the grasp of A. L. Streeter, millionaire inventor, "rounder" and alleged bigamist.

At the time of the now famous midnight raid, both hotels were under the same management.

In the case of Col. Lewis, the unauthorized use of his name places him in an exceedingly unpleasant light, whereas he contends that his interest was due solely to an effort to trade "immunity" to Streeter in exchange for his services as a State's witness against the indicted hotel-keepers.

A woman, who posed as Streeter's Cleveland "wife," figures in the strange complications, as one of the aids by which the indicted millionaire hoped to secure practical immunity which would have resulted from the release of the Burkle girl.

The plan, as given by those involved in the matter, was that Streeter, who now is a fugitive in Canada, was to return to aid in prosecuting the "hotel" owners was to provide for the education of the girl he is accused of luring to Chicago, and of harboring in a dive; and also was to return to his "wife" and begin life anew.

It was asserted that the plan was abandoned when the scandal over the girl's abduction from the Juvenile court, after being paroled by Judge Carpenter, became public, because those who had agreed to it were convinced that they were being deceived.

Col. Lewis declared that he suspected he was being tricked, and discovered that there was no intention of bringing Streeter back to Chicago, but that it was a bold effort to free the man from the indictment charges.

Col. Lewis said today:

"The matter was sent to me by people whom I knew as reliable. A woman appeared who said she was Streeter's wife, and I understood that they had a boy. I was told that she was a good woman, and she told me if we allowed Streeter to return he would reform, also that he would furnish evidence necessary to prosecute the hotel man. I saw State's Attorney Healy, and he promised he would do anything that would assist the wife and child and make a good man of Streeter. I also advised young Muehrke, who claimed to be a relative of the girl, and arranged to retain Attorney Robert Redfield in Streeter's behalf.

"I afterward learned that these people interested in Streeter were not to keep faith, and that he was not to return to Chicago at all. I then was told that the woman who posed as one of his wives was not his wife."

RICKETT'S BIG SALARY.

New Superintendent of Greene-Cananea Copper Company Gets Over $50,000 a Year.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Dr. L. D. Ricketts, who has just been elected superintendent of the Greene Cananea Company, left Boston this afternoon for the West and will meet en route Thomas F. Cole, John D. Ryan and other large stockholders of Greene Cananea.

Dr. Rickett officially has resigned as superintendent of the Old Dominion, but will retain his place as consulting engineer, also acting in the capacity of advisor with other concerns with which he recently was connected. He stated that the Cole-Ryan interests had to offer him over $50,000 annual salary to go to Cananea.

POPE RECEIVES OLD DEFENDERS.

REGRETS HE CANNOT AID THEM UNDER PRESENT CONDITIONS.

Speaking to Survivors of Disbanded Pontifical Army Merry Del Val Says He Is Now Fighting Without Guns, Men or Money, But Trusts for Victory to Divine Providence.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ROME, Dec. 27.—The Pope today received the 517 survivors of the disbanded pontifical army for the exchange of Christmas greetings. The holy father thanked the men for their past services to the church and regretted that conditions do not permit him to aid the defenders of the papacy as he would like.

Subsequently the survivors were received by Cardinal Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state, who said to them:

"You fought with gun and cannon: today I am fighting one of the most important battles of the church without guns and without men and even without money. But I do not despair of victory. I trust in divine mercy and the loyalty of the French Catholics."

CZAR'S THRONE TO BE SHAKEN.

GERSCHUNIN SAYS SECRET PLOT [illegible]

Noted Russian Revolutionary Has Arrived in Boston—Majority of the Autocrat's Army in the Conspiracy—Denies Having Organized a Terrorist Society.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gregori Androjorvich Gerschunin, the noted Russian revolutionist and escaped Siberian exile and head of the revolutionary military operations, says that while the time is not ripe to unfold plans in detail, a secret plot has been completed to overthrow the Czar which will startle the world.

He says the majority of the Russian army is in the revolutionary plot, but the soldiers dare not openly assist until the time arrives to do so.

Gerschunin says he is bending all energies to prevent his people fighting as individuals, and that it is extremely difficult to restrain them. He denies that he organized a terrorist society in Chicago, on the way to San Francisco.

LOCKOUT AT LODZ.

Socialists Are Threatening to Organize Street Fights and Compel the Feeding of Unemployed.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LODZ, Dec. 27.—In view of the lockout which, according to announcement will begin in all the principal factories here December 29, Socialists of Lodz are threatening to organize street fights and to compel citizens to feed and lodge the unemployed.

Many wealthy families already have left the city.

Boston and Maine Defies Republican Platform But would Welcome Law to Prevent Practice.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CONCORD (N. H.) Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Politicians are aghast today at the action of President Tuttle, of the Boston and Maine Railroad system, in defying the Republican party platform of last election by sending out 400 and odd annual passes over the Boston and Maine lines within the States, to Legislators, etc., and while giving the passes, he says he would not object to an anti-pass law.

ARICA IS HOMELESS.

Temblor Leaves no Building in Town Undamaged and Fire Is Narrowly Averted.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

VALPARAISO, Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In the city of Arica, shaken at 1:30 o'clock yesterday morning by a violent earthquake, lasting fifty-five seconds, no house was left undamaged.

The jail fell down, and the town hall and nearly all public and private buildings were rendered unhabitable.

Fire started in a grocery store, but was extinguished with considerable difficulty, because of lack of water.

Many persons were wounded or bruised, but no deaths are reported.

FINED VALIANT BISHOP.

NANCY (France) Dec. 27.—The Correctional Court here today fined Bishop Tetrinas $10 for striking a gendarme during his expulsion from the episcopal residence.

PRESSURE TOO HARD.

"Third Degree" a Cause of Crime.

Prof. James of Harvard Supports the Views of Prof. Munsterberg.

Says Ivens Was Probably in Semi-Hypnotic State in Police Hands.

Case of Two Brothers Who "Confessed" in Vermont Recalled.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON (Mass.) Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Contrary to published reports, Prof. Munsterberg of Harvard did not assert that Richard Ivens, the Chicagan hanged for murder, had been deliberately hypnotized or thrown into a hypnotic trance by the police officers or Coroner.

His statement in his published article was his belief that it was a case of dissociated personality and auto-suggestion, this coming from the hypnotic effect possibly, though not absolutely proven, of a flash of light across his optic nerves and the constant pressure of the police in their searching "third degree" examination.

That any deliberate attempt to hypnotize Ivens into confessing in elaborate manner to the murder is not charged, or even suggested, in Prof. Munsterberg's article, which does show, by analysis and comparison with other cases, how the "confession" may have been brought about from the lips of a man logically innocent, as reasoned out from all evidence at hand.

CONFESSION UNTRUE.

[illegible] ties, and especially [illegible] borderland cases, for [illegible] years, and have hypnotized a very large number of patients. On this basis, I feel sure that the so-called confessions of Ivens are untrue, and that he had nothing to do with the crime.

"It is an interesting and yet a rather clear case of dissociation and auto-suggestion. It would probably need careful treatment to build up his dissociated mind, and thus awaken in him a clear memory of his real experiences."

PROF. JAMES AGREES.

Prof. William James of Harvard, supports Prof. Munsterberg in the latter's views, saying:

"I incline to your view strongly. It is supported by all collateral facts. He was probably in a semi-hypnotic state from police treatment.

"In any case it is a foul scandal that he was not submitted to hypnotic examination by experts. It could hardly have failed to develop important results, and probably would have saved his life.

"I think him a victim of popular ignorance of morbid psychology."

TWO BROTHERS "CONFESSED."

The Springfield Republican in a lengthy article, today, cites among similar cases, one in Vermont, years ago, in Bennington county, where a man suddenly disappeared and two brothers with whom he was last seen were arrested and, amidst much popular clamor, induced to confess to his murder, going into full details of the shocking crime.

Through a chain of most remarkable bare chances the alleged "murdered man" was found alive in New Jersey, and brought back just in time to save his brothers from execution. He had gone away of his own free will.

ROYAL ENGAGEMENT.

Prince August Wilhelm Is to Wed Princess Victoria, Sister of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BERLIN, Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Prince August Wilhelm of Prussia, fourth son of the Kaiser, was engaged today at Glucksburg to Princess Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein, Sonderberg and Glucksburg, sister of the Duchess of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, daughter of the eldest sister of the Empress. Both Prince and Princess are in their twentieth year.

BIG GALE OFF HOLYHEAD.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LONDON, Dec. 27.—A terrific gale is raging tonight off Holyhead, and several vessels are reported in distress.

The Japanese liner Awa Maru, from Antwerp for Middlesborough, ran on the rocks off Red Car.

The lifeboats reached her after great difficulty, and, according to the latest reports, all of her crew of 120 men and the two passengers on board were landed safely.

ESPEE MOVES ITS FREIGHT.

Firemen's Strike Collapses in Miserable Fiasco.

Trains on Time Take All But Perishable Goods.

Even New Orleans Is Free From Trouble.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 27.—Except for live stock and perishable goods the Southern Pacific Railroad local officials announced that the company today moved all its freight trains on the Louisiana division without difficulty. No attempt was made to handle the two excepted classes. The officials also said that the strike is no longer regarded as a serious inconvenience.

The Southern Pacific officials declare that the firemen's strike is virtually broken. All trains are arriving practically on time and freight is being accepted as usual.

RECEIVES ALL FREIGHT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) Dec. 27.—Local Southern Pacific officials claim that the Brotherhood of Firemen's strike on this division of this system is broken; that all freight and passenger trains are moving along with full crews; that they have more firemen than they have engineers. A striking fireman was arrested here today for entering an engineer's cab at the Southern Pacific station. The order issued Monday not to receive freight at this point has been rescinded.

NEW ORLEANS AFFIRMS VICTORY

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 27.—According to General Superintendent E. B. Cushing, conditions on Southern Pacific lines in this territory are fast becoming normal. Today twenty-seven out of thirty scheduled trains were running nearly on time, the yards at Algiers have full forces of men and all engines are working. The only difficulty being experienced is at Lake Charles and Morgan City, where several new men will arrive this afternoon to take the places of the strikers. The Southern Pacific is now receiving all classes of freight except perishable goods, and will soon raise the embargo on that.

UNIONISTS ASSAULT WORKER.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 27.—George Goldreax, a Southern Pacific locomotive fireman, walked into Opelousas, La., today, after having been taken from his engine by masked men, twenty-two miles outside of town, and after having tramped the largest part of the night to reach town.

Four masked and armed men boarded the engine during a stop, and, despite the fact that Goldreax hid himself, they found and dragged him from the engine. No violence was offered to him and he was released as soon as his train was too far away to be overtaken.

Except for this incident, General Superintendent E. B. Cushing said that the firemen's strike had caused no serious trouble on this [illegible] of the Southern Pacific's Atlantic division. Two guards are carried on every engine, and all passenger and all local trains have moved nearly on time.

DODGES HIS DEFEAT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PEORIA (Ill.) Dec. 27.—J. J. Hanahan, grand master of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, was shown the Associated Press dispatch from El Paso relating to the officials of the Southern Pacific, who had declared that the strike had been broken. He said:

"There is not one iota of truth in that statement, and besides our basis of operation is at Houston. I must wait further developments before making any further statement on this point."

PENSIONS FOR SANTA FE MEN.

ROAD ADOPTS LIBERAL PLAN OF AIDING EMPLOYEES.

Continuous Service for Fifteen Years With Company Is the Only Requisite for Bonus, Graded to Favor People on Small Salaries Rather Than High-class Men.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The hearts of more than 30,000 employés of the entire Santa Fé system will be gladdened on New Year's Day by the inauguration of a pension system. Official announcement was made today that the road would on January 1, join the ranks of railroads which have adopted a paternal policy with respect to employés.

The system which will be put in vogue is in several respects more liberal than any system now in force. Main points in which the Santa Fé plan is more liberal than others are:

Minimum pension of $30; fixing of age at which compulsory retirement is provided for at 75 instead of 65 years; no bar is placed to age at which the railroad company will hire an employé originally; continuous service of fifteen years with the company is all that is required to entitle an employé to a pension; pension rate is so graded that small salaried employés get the best of the bargain and high salaried men cannot secure more than $75 per month.

WITHHOLD STRIKE VOTE.

RESULT IS EXPECTED TODAY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

EL PASO (Tex.) Dec. 27.—The result of the referendum vote of the conductors of the Mexican Central and its branches in Mexico on the proposition to strike on January 1, unless their demand for an increase of wages be granted, has not been announced. The conductors running into El Paso or Juarez will not discuss the matter. The result may be announced tomorrow.

LABOR BRIEFS.

Tonopah Restaurants Close.

TONOPAH (Nev.) Dec. 27.—The restaurants of this city are still closed as a result of a strike of cooks and waiters. The men demand a change in hours, which the proprietors declare is impossible to grant. Some inconvenience, but no hardship, has resulted from the strike as many boarding-houses and private dining rooms are running.

States Can Ignore Labor Law.

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Washington says, as was anticipated, the decision by Secretary Strauss of the Department of Commerce and Labor that States acting for themselves are not bound by the contract-labor law, has aroused more or less of a storm of protest from labor bodies and from some other people. In almost every case, however, there is a distinct misunderstanding of the existing law as well as to the scope of the decision of the solicitor of the department, which was approved by the Secretary.

Raise Pay on "Big Four."

CLEVELAND, Dec. 27.—Beginning January 1, the pay of all firemen on the "Big Four" system will be increased at an average raise of 7.77 per cent.

IGNORE RECORD IN RE-ELECTION.

DIRECTORS GIVE PRESIDENCY TO ACCUSED MAN.

Burnham Is Chosen President of Mutual Reserve Life Insurance Company in Spite of Fact That He Is Waiting Sentence Under Charges of Larceny from Concern.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—After a discussion lasting over two hours, the directors of the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance Company elected Frederick Burnhan, President, and George D. Aldredge, Vice-President of the company. Nine of the twelve directors were present and the vote on the election of Burnham and Eldredge is said to have been very close. None of the directors would discuss the meeting. George R. Harper, son of the former president of the company, was not re-elected treasurer.

FREDERICK A. BURNHAM, elected president of the Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Burnham and Eldredge are both under indictment and Burnham is awaiting sentence in connection with the administration of the company's affairs.

INDICTS INSURANCE MEN.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—It was reported tonight that the grand jury today voted indictments against two men as a result of the insurance inquiry. It was rumored that forgery in the third degree would be charged. Those in a position to confirm these reports refuse to discuss them.

DROWNED IN AIR HOLE.

Three Men Meet Death While Attempting to Ford the Missouri River.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NORFOLK (Neb.) Dec. 27.—Three men were drowned in the Missouri River north of here on the State line today. Herbert Cushman, aged 60; Ed Slate, aged 28, and Daniel Slate, aged 22, are their names. They were driving across the river and dropped into an air hole. Their team was lost.

Oil Companies Make Curt Return to Ouster Suits Instituted in State of Ohio.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

LIMA (O.) Dec. 27.—In one brief typewritten page, the three oil companies against which Atty.-Gen. Ellis filed ouster suits here recently made answer today, acknowledging that the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey owns all but five shares of the capital stock of the Buckeye Pipe Line Company, the Solar Refining Company and the Ohio Oil Company. Wherefore each company asks that the action be dismissed as to them.

TO INVESTIGATE RIOTS.

BROWNSVILLE (Tex.) Dec. 27.—M. D. Purdy, assistant United States attorney, accompanied by Maj. Augustus P. Blocksom of the Inspector-General's department, and W. W. Merchell, confidential law clerk to Secretary Taft, arrived here last night to investigate the rioting of negro soldiers here last August. Only four witnesses were examined today, and it will probably require several weeks to complete the inquiry. The examination is conducted privately.

TURKEY IS CONSUMPTIVE.

Discovery Is Made When Bird Is Dressed for Dinner, Coroner Ascertains Disease.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—Dr. Whalen of the Chicago Health Department, has ordered an investigation following the discovery that a turkey intended to grace a Christmas dinner was in the last stages of consumption.

J. Inwood had purchased a live turkey on Christmas Eve from Charles Klohr, a butcher. The gobbler was fat and apparently in good health, but when killed peculiar white spots were found on the heart and liver. Inwood held a conference with the butcher, who refused to take the dead turkey back. Then the matter was taken up with the Health Department.

Drs. Whalen and Biehn of the city laboratory held an autopsy over the diseased organs and reported the fowl was in the last stages of consumption. Efforts are now being made to discover the farm from which the turkey came, as it is believed that others may be similarly affected.

JAPAN PLANS LARGE ARMY.

TO SPEND $23,500,000 MORE THAN LAST YEAR.

One Hundred Million Dollars to Be Appropriated for New Ships and Restoration of Present Fleet—Popular Clamor Is for Togo to Command, But Opposition Has Arisen.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

VICTORIA (B. C.) Dec. 26.—According to advices brought here by the steamer Tosa Maru, the military section of the Japanese government intends to increase the army until the standing forces number nineteen divisions, six more than before the war with Russia.

The programme calls for increases in naval equipments by an expenditure of $23,500,000 over last year.

It has also been agreed that $100,000,000 be appropriated in installments as a special expenditure for new ships and restoration of the present fleet and armaments to an efficient state.

An appropriation of $400,000 to defray the expenses of dispatching a squadron including the cruisers Tsukuba and Chitose to the United States next summer, has been asked.

It is undecided yet whether Admiral Togo will be in command of the squadron. There is some opposition in naval quarters to that course, but popular clamor may prevail, in which case the naval hero will be the feature of a Japanese demonstration in American waters.

PREDICTS FINANCIAL CRASH.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

VICTORIA, Dec. 26.—In a recent interview, Baron Shebusawa, a prominent Japanese economist, predicts a financial panic in Japan as a result of the reaction of the war, which has just begun to be felt. He said bankers were responsible for stimulating a mania for promotion of new undertakings, which had now reached fever heat, and had no outlet, and would be bound to succumb when support is withdrawn. He suggested that, in order to prevent forthcoming panic or reduce it to a minimum, the currency be contracted, so far as possible, and treasury bills to the amount of $25,000,000 be issued. While this is considered burdening, it is the only course to avert disaster and crashes when reaction comes.

JAPANESE SUIT PENDING.

TO TEST EXCLUSION LAWS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—The Japanese viscount, Aoki was among the Secretary of State's callers, and it is assumed that the matter of legal proceedings is to be instituted in California in connection with the status of Japanese children in the public schools of San Francisco, under the existing treaty, although no formal statement could be obtained.

The Department of Justice has had before it, from time to time, the papers bearing on the suit, which will be filed in the Supreme Court of California. The case will go before the court on an agreed statement of facts, and it is expected that the court will give a speedy decision.

The delay in filing the case has been due to the fact that the Attorney General has not yet completed the government's contention.

DEVLIN IN WASHINGTON.

REFUSES TO STATE MISSION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—United States Dist.-Atty. Robert T. Devlin, of San Francisco, who was called to Washington by Atty.-Gen. Bonaparte for a conference regarding the exclusion of Japanese pupils from the public schools of San Francisco, arrived tonight, and will be at the Department of Justice tomorrow. Devlin refused to discuss his mission, declaring that the matter is in the hands of the Attorney General.

"Two weeks ago I had a conference with the San Francisco Board of Education at the request of Atty.-Gen. Moody," he said, "when a statement of facts was agreed upon and forwarded to the Attorney General. A few days later, I was called to Washington, and I do not know officially that I am here to discuss the Japanese question."

PERMANENT PEACE CONGRESS.

Plan Is to Give Hague Tribunal Advisory Power With Nations and Right to Arbitrate.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—At a meeting of the Board of Trade and Transportation, held today, resolutions were adopted asking President Roosevelt to instruct the United States delegates to The Hague conference in 1907 to urge favorable consideration of the following:

A plan by which The Hague conference may become a permanent congress of the nations, with advisory powers; a general arbitration authority for the acceptance of all nations; a plan for the restriction of armaments, and, if possible, for their reduction by concurrent international action.

GRAND DUKE'S NAVAL GRAB.

Efforts With Influential Backing to Compel Inquiry Into the Scandals Affecting Warships.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 27.—With the trials of Admiral Rojestvensky and Nebogatoff out of the way, an effort is being made with influential backing to compel the authorities to make inquiry into the naval scandals of the Grand Ducal régime, to which the defeat of the Russians at the battle of the Sea of Japan are largely attributed.

The Journal de St. Petersburg, which is ministerially supported, in a leading article today demands an investigation of the charges of corruption brought against officials and of dishonesty in providing warships with defective armor, guns and projectiles, which the defense vainly endeavored to introduce at the courts-martial of the two admirals.

CHINA WILL APPEAL.

To Ask Europe and America for $1,250,000 for Relief for Her Famine Sufferers.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

VICTORIA (B. C.) Dec. 27.—Advices were received today by the steamship Tosa Maru that China has decided to appeal to Europe and America for $1,250,000 for relief of famine sufferers in Central China, where 10,000,000 Chinese are faced with starvation this winter.

People maddened by hunger are reported to be pillaging yamens of officials. A foreigner, who has reached Shanghai from the famine-stricken district, says men and women, naked, except a few rags around their loins, are seen by the roadsides starving with naked children at their breasts. Refugees were met who had tramped from Huan. The famine threatens to equal the appalling one of thirty years ago.

GROWTH OF "OPEN SHOP."

The annual report of the Chicago Employers' Association, made public today shows a marked increase in the business done by the organization in procuring positions for all classes of "open shop" labor during the year ending November 1. The average business done by the employment bureau of the association shows an increase in four classes of labor of 92 per cent. Damage suits to the amount of $20,000 were successfully defended by the association, one being the case of a foreman of a large establishment who was made defendant by the International Association of Machinists for the killing of a picket, the other being the case of a prominent employer sued by a union for malicious prosecution.

HIS FATHER'S REVOLVER.

With the same revolver which his father used to end his life, thirteen years ago, when domestic troubles overburdened him, Emil Breitenfeld, a grocer, of North Point avenue, this afternoon fired three shots at his wife, all of which took effect, leaving her in serious condition. He then turned the weapon upon himself, inflicting a slight scalp wound. Breitenfeld's attempt at murder and suicide followed, it is said, long-continued family dissensions.

COULD CONDEMN LABORITES.

Assistant State Attorney Miller today made the assertion in an argument during the Shea conspiracy hearing that, on evidence contained in the records of the federation, he could send every member of the Chicago Federation of Labor to the penitentiary on a conspiracy charge. He also announced that a recent Supreme Court decision in the Franklin Union No. 4 case will be used by the State in securing the conviction of the defendants in the Shea prosecution.

WHAT BRYAN COST.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MILWAUKEE (Wis.) Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When the election expenses of the Democratic County Committee were filed here today, it was discovered that the visit of William J. Bryan to Milwaukee for one hour, last September, cost the committee exactly $200. Bryan took the wrong train at Chicago, and was carried to Milwaukee in a special train.

HURON RIVER PLATINUM.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NORWALK (O.) Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Milan, the birthplace of Thomas A. Edison, the electrical wizard, is greatly excited over the finding of large quantities of platinum in the Huron River at that point. Specimens of mineral products taken from the river bed were recently shown to Edison, who said the discovery would make the finders millionaires.

HUGE CAKE FOR POOR.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MILWAUKEE (Wis.) Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] William Meyer today presented to the Associated Charities a huge cake, which will be cut and distributed among the city's poor. The cake is ten feet long and of the same width. It is called "stollen" by the Germans, and is filled with innumerable raisins and almonds.

COTTON MEN CLAIM SOUTH IS "CHEATED."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW ORLEANS (La.) Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Cotton men of Louisiana and Mississippi are up in arms over the action of the New York Cotton Exchange in "rigging the market" so as to arbitrarily depress the prices of cotton, and in other ways depriving the South of its just rewards.

It is estimated by cotton factors here that the New York exchange has already "cheated the South" out of $100,000,000.

This is done by a committee of seventeen arbitrarily fixing the difference between grades of cotton.

The market price of the grade is given no consideration whatever.

The December contracts, which ought to be spot cotton on December 20, were 137 points below middling spot prices in the New York market.

A big meeting of cotton men has been called by Atwood Villett to take a hand in this discrimination against southern cotton interests.

An appeal will be made to the New York exchange to right the wrong. If that fails, an appeal will be made to Congress to pass stringent laws regulating this manipulation.

SYMPATHY FOR SUFFRAGISTS.

Letter from Philadelphia Women to Officers and Members of the English Social Union.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 27.—The National Women's Suffrage Association, sent a letter to the officers and members of the Women's Political and Social Union of England, expressing cordial sympathy in the efforts of the English suffragists to secure a hearing from Parliament on the question of woman suffragists and admiration of their earnestness and self-sacrifice.

The pastor, Rev. W. H. W. Bees, will preach his final sermon on "The biggest fool in Seattle." An intimation has been given that the minister has in mind real estate speculators. The congregation, fifty-three years old, is the oldest in the city.

UNION IGNORES STATE PRODUCT.

PAYS FREIGHT FOR MATERIALS CLOSE AT HAND.

Mineralogist Aubrey Wants to Know Why Government Orders Stone and Other Things for Use in California from Foreign Countries When Better Is Ready at Home.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 27.—State Mineralogist W. L. Aubrey wrote to Gov. Pardee a few days ago complaining of the practice of the United States government in sending to foreign countries and to other States for building material to be used in the construction of Federal buildings in California. He states the authorities have made it a practice to purchase stone and such like materials in other States when the articles could just as well have been bought here. He asked the Governor to interest himself in the matter.

The Governor has done so to the extent of writing to the California Representatives in Congress asking them to take the subject up and to use every effort to see that California products are used when government buildings are erected in this State.

PROTECTION LEVEES BREAK. DYNAMITERS ARE SUSPECTED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

MARYSVILLE, Dec. 27.—Yuba Protection District was partly flooded today on account of two breaks in the southern levee along Simmerly Slough and great difficulty was experienced in saving stock on Rubel place. Two explosions occurred in the vicinity of the breaks at 5 o'clock this morning, and the property owners in the district believe that dynamite was used to destroy the levee. The district was formed a few months ago, and levees are new, but the one that went out was solid, and considered the strongest of any around the district.

He is accompanied by Maj. B. W. Atkinson, who was his adjutant in the crater fight. Col. Duncan is en route to join his regiment, now at Helena, Mont.

OPERATORS DON'T WEAKEN.

Closed Door Meeting at Goldfield at Which Wage Scale and Terms Are Discussed.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GOLDFIELD (Nev.) Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A committee composed of members of the I.W.W. waited in the office of the secretary of the local miners' union for several hours tonight momentarily expecting to receive a communication stating the terms on which the mine operators would settle the wage dispute. While this committee waited twenty mine operators were gathered in an office on the same street discussing as to the drawing of a new wage scale and terms of settlement.

For six hours the operators talked over the points of difference and finally adjourned without coming to any understanding. It was 11 o'clock when the operators' meeting broke up and a few minutes later the miners left disappointed.

The operators and Executive Committee of the union held their meetings behind closed doors and there was much speculation over the outcome of both assemblies. Last night a self-delegated committee took in charge a miner who openly criticized the I.W.W., and after taking him into the miners' union hall and lecturing him on the policy of the I.W.W. and the purpose of its organization, marched him to the edge of town.

The name of the deported miner will not be divulged, but it is said the identity of the persons who walked him out of town is known and it is probable that prosecution will be instituted.

The situation remains practically the same as yesterday, but a settlement appears probable within the next few days.

Today the local miners' union received the following message from Denver:

"Federation will support Goldfield Miners' Union in their demands for better conditions.

"Acting president with W.F.M."

This will have no immediate effect on the situation.

IMPERIAL CONFERENCE.

Meeting of Representatives of Various Interests Affected by the Colorado River Break.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

IMPERIAL, Dec. 27.—At an all-day conference, today, between W. J. Doran of the California Development Company, R. H. Ingram, Superintendent of the Southern Pacific Company, and the directors of the six mutual water companies, the latter agreed to send five hundred horses and drivers at their own expense, to work on the break in the Colorado River.

The matter of contributing a half million dollars to aid in the closure could not be closed up without being ratified by the stock-holders at the annual metings early in January. The water companies appointed a committee of five to confer with the California Development Company and Southern Pacific, with a view to the water users acquiring the irrigation system now owned by the California Development Company, which now seems in a fair way to be accomplished on a basis of long term bonds, the purchase to follow the repair in the break of the river.

STOCK YARDS FLOURISH.

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—Figures on the business transacted at the Union Stock Yards for 1906 show the valuation of live stock handled to be the largest on record. The receipts for the year were slightly over 16,000,000 head, valued at $314,300,000, an increase of $20,000,000 over 1905. General prices fluctuated within a narrower range than in previous years. Beef cattle average 25 cents a hundred higher, hogs $1 higher, sheep 20 cents higher and lambs 5 cents higher.

FOURTEEN DIE IN PANIC.

MANILA, Dec. 27.—A. Villaneuxa, Governor of the province of Oriental Negros, has reported that fourteen natives were killed and thirteen wounded in a panic at a midnight massacre Christmas at Tanjaya. A woman was taken with an epileptic fit and cried out for help. This caused a stampede, which resulted in the fatalities mentioned above.

LONDON BUYS INTO COALINGA.

TWO MILLION DOLLAR VALUE PLACE FOR SALE.

Papers by Which British Company Is to Assume Control of Entire Easterly Side of Fields of That District Are to Be Signed by Next Monday.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

COALINGA, Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Oil lands in the Coalinga fields valued at $2,000,000 are in process of transfer to a London company organized for the purpose, and known as the Coalinga Oil Field (Limited) Company. The final papers under which the London company will assume control of the entire easterly side of Coalinga fields are to be signed by next Monday.

The Farm Sales Agency has secured options on fifteen properties on west side of the Coalinga fields, representing a total valuation of $4,000,000. The agency has been given these options for one year for the purpose of sale.

With this purchase by the London company the principle of the combination is now firmly established in the California fields. The Standard and Associated Oil companies are dominant in the Kern district, and the Union Oil Company has control of the Santa Maria fields, as well as other southern territory.

Great secrecy has been maintained in the preliminary proceedings in the Coalinga transfer, which have been in progress for a year. The properties which will pass into the ownership of the English company include the following: Oyama, Pittsburgh, Coalinga, W. Moreland Coalinga, McGerry, Starr, Mission, Forty, Thirty-four, Arline, Avon and Kaweah companies, the holdings of S. Ward, all of sections 34, 14 and half of section 26 in township 19 south, range 15 east, and lands of O. Heath.

In this area are many wells in operation. The estimated value of the lands is said by expert oil men to be upward of $1000 an acre, and in some parts of the territory they are worth much higher figures.

S. W. Morsehead, who, as manager of the Farm Sales Company, has secured options on the west side properties, says he has 90 per cent. of the fields on that side of the district now in his control, whose present daily production is 6000 barrels.

RED RENEGADE BAND PURSUED.

OUTLAW YAQUIS NUMBER ONE HUNDRED.

Work Train Arrives on Scene of Slaughter in Time to Save American Foreman and Wife from Fate of Murdered Mexicans — Trouble Confined to One District.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

EL PASO (Tex.) Dec. 27.—The details of the Yaqui Indian outbreak at Lencho Station on the Cananea, Yaqui River and Pacific Railroad, a branch of the Southern Pacific in Sonora, on Sunday night, in which eight Mexicans were killed and all the tent houses burned, have been received here.

No Americans were killed, though it is certain that but for the timely arrival of a work train with a large crew of laborers Foreman Thompson and his wife would have been killed.

Reports from the same vicinity tell of murders and outrages perpetrated by the Yaquis on Thursday and Friday and Friday night. The victims were all Mexicans, who were taken by surprise on their lonely ranches.

Details of the outbreak are extremely meager, but show that the situation is serious. For several weeks past restlessness has been observed among the Indians, but an outbreak was hardly anticipated. No unusual preparation had been made for Yaqui attacks. Those killed were shot down before any effort at defense could be made.

The band of outlaw Indians is said to number about 100. Rumors of their depredations were rife on Saturday when many ranchers fled to the towns for safety and reported a number of murders in the district southwest of Guaymas. It was not believed, however, that the Yaquis would dare to attack a railroad station.

Lencho is one of the smallest stations on the Cananea, Yaqui River and Pacific Railroad. About twenty-five men under foreman Thompson are employed there, engaged in welboring. No sentries had been posted, and the first intimation of the attack was a volley of rifle shots fired into the tent houses.

Immediately afterward the houses were set on fire and by the light of the flames the Yaquis shot at the frightened Mexicans, who were trying to escape. The reports received here say that in addition to the eight men killed at the station, a number of Mexicans were wounded.

At a time when the residents of the camp, including Thompson and his wife, seemed doomed, the whistle of a work train was heard, and a few minutes later the train pulled into the station. The crew of the train immediately went to the assistance of the people at the station and the Indians took flight.

Mexican troops are now in pursuit of the band, and it is believed that the Indians soon will be captured.

Soldiers are being rushed to the troubled district in large numbers, as the government is determined to make short work of the latest outbreak. It is believed that the outbreak will not prove general, and that the trouble has all been caused by one renegade band.

HAWAII
OF OUR OWN UNITED STATES
The place to go on your vacation. Splendid hotels, modern appointments. Mark Twain said of Hawaii:
"No land in all the world has any deep, strong charm for me but that one; no other land could so longingly and beseechingly haunt me sleeping and waking through more than half a lifetime, as that one has done. Other things have come, but it abides; other things change, but it remains the same. For me, its balmy airs are always blowing; its summer seas flashing in the sun; the pulsing of its surf beat is in my ear; I can see its garlanded crags, its leaping cascades, its plumy palms drowsing by the shore; its remote summits floating like islands above the cloud rack. I can feel the spirit of its woodland solitude; I can hear the plash of its brooks; in my nostrils still lives the breath of flowers that perished twenty years ago."

LIVE STOCK DETENTION.

"Thirty-six-Hour Law" Violated, Is Charge.

Nine Additional Cases Involve Seven Roads.

Surety Company Bonds Must Be Secured.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Secretary Wilson of the Department of Agriculture today transmitted to the Department of Justice nine additional cases of alleged violation of what is popularly known as the "thirty-six-hour law," which provides that railroad companies shall not detain live stock on cars for a longer period than twenty-eight hours without food and water, except with the consent of the owner of the stock, and then not longer than thirty-six hours.

The cases were one each against the Great Northern, the Oregon Short Line, the Southern Pacific, the Union Pacific, the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern and the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, and three against the Santa Fé.

SURETY COMPANY SECURITY.

SHAW RENDERS DECISION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Secretary Shaw has issued a circular in which he decides that hereafter no surety company shall be accepted under the provision of the act of Congress approved August 13, 1899, as sole surety on any stipulation or bond in which the United States is interested for any amount greater than 10 per cent. of its paid up capital and surplus, unless such company shall be secured as to any excess by reinsurance.

Two or more companies may be accepted on any bond, the penalty of which does not exceed 10 per cent. of their aggregate paid up capital.

GOING AFTER VLADIVOSTOK.

WEATHER BUREAU MAY ANNEX IT TO MAP.

Incomplete Chain of Stations, and Long Intervening Distances, Too Great to Permit of Accurate Observations—Plans Started to Fill in Gaps.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After months of study of the daily weather reports from group of points in Siberia, the Weather Bureau has decided that it needs more of them in order to secure satisfactory results and reliable guidance toward more accurate forecasts of the weather. Accordingly, it is proposed, if possible, to secure more data from the eastern hemisphere.

About a month ago reports began to come from Toms, Ekaterinberg and Irkusk in interior Siberia. With these at hand, forecast offices have been studying from day to day, trying to correct observations and conditions. It develops, according to officials of the bureau, that the immense distance between the most easterly of these points and the most westerly points on this continent is too great.

It is necessary to fill in that gap before work will be in a satisfactory condition. It is proposed, accordingly, to investigate and learn whether Vladivostok and Petropaviovsk, heretofore known only on war maps, may be annexed to the international weather map. Even if this is accomplished, there will still be very long interval of the Kamschatka and Aleutians and the North Pacific to be covered.

It is proposed as soon as possible to secure the authorization for a weather station, equipped with wireless apparatus, located on some of the outlying islands of the Aleutian chain from which reports may be transmitted to Nome, Alaska.

Arrangements are being made for securing more reports from Nome, and then, with this chain complete, it is thought results will be possible which will greatly extend the usefulness and accuracy of the weather service.

WASHINGTON BRIEFS.

More Aid for China.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Additional subscription for the China famine sufferers, amounting to $1000, have been received by the American National Red Cross, making $6000 to date. The Chinese Minister today thanked Secretary Root for the evidences of good will and friendship given by the American government and people toward the sufferers.

Agree on Congo Matter.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Baron Moncheur, the Belgian Minister, today called on Secretary Root. It was learned that the conference related to the Congo, and that the United States and Belgium are in accord on the matter.

RAISE INSURANCE TAXES.

PARIS, Dec. 26.—The Financial Committee of the Senate has raised the rate of taxation on both French and foreign insurance companies from f.6 to f.10 per million of assured capital. It is expected that this increase will add $200,000 a year to the national revenue.

SAVANTS HOLD GREAT MEETING.

ROCKEFELLER'S FORTUNE IS ATTACKED AND DEFENDED.

One Speaker Denounces This Wealth as Gained by Vicious Means and Another Member Points Out Good Done by Financier Which Is Forgotten by Critics.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—The concentration of wealth in the hands of comparatively few was vigorously denounced and earnestly defended at the opening sessions today of the fifty-seventh annual meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, attended by 1500 delegates. Henry Lauries Call of Washington, D. C., attacked the right of John D. Rockefeller to his fortune, on the ground that, as he asserted, it was not the result of natural causes, but had been created through corporate activity, which the speaker termed "vicious."

During a subsequent discussion of "The Evolution of Property," Louis G. McPherson, assistant to the late Samuel Spencer as president of the Southern Railway, replied to Call. He declared that Rockefeller had had his financial struggles and had done much good, which was generally lost sight of in the criticism which came with success.

He told of Rockefeller's early attempt to obtain $25,000 with which to construct a pipe line for oil. One man who refused aid met the financier when the pipe line had been laid. To him Rockefeller said: "I built that pipe line to make oil cheaper, and I succeeded. I cut the cost more than half. And yet they find fault."

McPherson told then, less seriously, of a dinner party several years ago at the Rockefeller home when Mrs. Rockefeller explained the absence of oysters by saying: "We like them, but are too poor to have them."

This was to illustrate McPherson's point that a man might be worth $100,000,000 and still be short of ready cash if he kept his factories in operation.

Wealth and railroads were but two of the many subjects discussed by the speakers.

The first general session was called to order at 10 o'clock today by the retiring president, Dr. C. M. Woodward of Washington University of St. Louis. He will introduce the president of the year, Dr. W. H. Welch of John Hopkins University, who will respond to an address of welcome from President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia.

One of the most interesting of the general functions is to be the presentation to the American Museum of Natural History of the busts of ten scientists, by Morris K. Jessup, on Saturday afternoon. J. P. Morgan will preside.

Among the distinguished men expected to attend the meeting are Simon Newcomb of Washington, President Pritchett of the Carnegie foundation, Whitelaw Reid, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Dr. Simon Flexner of Rockefeller Institute, Bishop Greer, Dr. Robert Woodward of Carnegie Institute, Dr. C. H. Wardell Stiles of the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, Dr. L. O. Howard of the United States Entomological Department and Dr. George Bruce of the State Normal School, Greeley, Colo.

CAN PREVENT FLOODS BY FOREST RESERVE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Gifford Pinchot, chief of the Forestry Service, today approved a rough draft of a report to the Secretary of Agriculture, relating to the 4,000,000 acres of land in Indian Territory, whose withdrawal for forest-reserve purposes brought out criticism of the Secretary of the Interior by a Senate committee.

The report will be a defense of the withdrawal of the lands, which are located in the Choctaw and Cherokee Nations, and will show, first, that the proposed forestry reserve was asked for, primarily, by the Indians themselves; second, that the maintenance of a forest on the proposed area will furnish a much-needed continuous supply of timber and wood for local use, and also prevent disastrous floods along a thousand miles of the Red River in Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana, where immense sums are now expended for levees; third, that the reserve would not take up all the residue of land after allotments to the Indians.

The report will still further insist that the action of the Secretary of the Interior in temporarily suspending allotments was not only within his right, but that he would have been remiss had he done otherwise.

RETRIBUTION COMES SOON.

Tragic Justice Visited Upon Boy Burglar.

Fearfully Shot by Rifle He Had Stolen.

Prominent New York Woman Victim of Error.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 27.—Terrible justice was visited upon two boy burglars early today. One of them lies dying, with his abdomen half shot away by a rifle which he stole with other plunder last night. The other lad is in a prison cell, where he has sobbingly confessed to his crime.

The dying boy is August Schwartz, 13 years old, and the doctor who is attending him at his home at No. 8 Octavia street, says the patient has no chance for recovery. His accomplice is August Pallassou, only one year older.

Pallassou's father owns a milk ranch at Hamilton and Bouden streets and it was while driving an early morning milk route that the two children, scarcely out of short trousers, became cracksmen. Last night the store of the Imperial Arms Company at Van Ness avenue and Market street was burglarized. The door had been pried open by a piece of gas pipe. The booty consisted of four heavy 30.30 Winchester rifles, ten boxes of cartridges and a case of razors—all that the youthful thieves could carry.

With visions of "Buffalo Bill" and "Nick Carter" adventures in their minds, the two boys climbed into the milk wagon and drove homeward with their plunder. When they reached the outlying districts Pallassou suggested that they try one of the rifles. Accordingly they filled the magazine with shells but in their eagerness for a shot they forgot to lower the hammer as they threw back the lever.

August Schwartz climbed out of the wagon and dropped the rifle to the ground to use it as a support while he dismounted. Suddenly there was a sharp report and Schwartz fell forward in the mud.

Pallassou pulled up the snorting animals and hurried back to the wounded boy. He summoned help and Schwartz was carried to his home, a short distance away. Pallassou hastened away to hide the stolen weapons. Meanwhile Manager Kaplan of the Imperial Arms Company had reported to the police the looting of his store. Detectives were assigned to the case but just before they left the report came in that the boy had been wounded on the San Bruno road. Speedily calling two deputies, they started for Schwartz's home.

The officers have been able to establish that the two boys have been committing a series of crimes, and the detectives believe that they are guilty of many recent burglaries.

GUILTY LOVE, THEN MURDER.

SAN JOSE MAN SHOOTS WOMAN AND SELF.

Writes Rambling Letter to Explain Crime—Enters Woman's Room After Her Husband Leaves, Shoots Her Down and Commits Suicide. Hints That Victim "Ruined" Life.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. LOUIS (Mo.) Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Albert E. Davidson, whose people live in San José, Cal., shot Mrs. Freida Weigel three times in a boarding-house conducted by her and her husband, today, inflicting serious wounds, and then shot and instantly killed himself. He was employed by the Southern Illinois Construction Company and was 32 years old. The woman is 28 and the wife of Frederick W. Weigel, a chef.

"I, A. E. Davidson, the writer of this letter, cannot express the thoughts in words that I should use in writing this letter, but I don't think I am duly justified in putting in effect every thought that should express my mind concerning the woman, who, I hope, the writer is fairly acquainted with. While this act that I am contemplating is certainly foolish, I cannot deny that under the circumstances I shall certainly put it in effect. I am quite willing to accept the punishment that shall await me in the future world.

"I ask any one that this may concern, to investigate the character of this woman as well as mine. I am sorry my passionate mind suggested the move which I will make.

"If the threats that are in my mind are carried out, all I can ask from heaven or earth is the same as the thief on the cross, 'Remember me in Paradise.' That is all and more than I should ask.

"If this is published in a paper, please send a copy to Miss Daisy Davidson, No. 129 South Ninth street, San José, Cal.

"Desperatefully,

"A. E. DAVIDSON."

"A criminal who does not deserve to be buried. Mrs. Weigle shall ruin my life but once."

Davidson, who was known to the other roomers as "Slim," had been living at the Weigle boarding-house for two weeks. The shooting occurred in Mrs. Weigle's room, half an hour after her husband went to work.

When the police arrived, Mrs. Weigle was unconscious. Davidson's dead body lay on the floor, a revolver by his side. Roomers in the house say Davidson went to Mrs. Weigle's room and begged her to leave her husband and marry him. When she refused, he drew a revolver and began firing before she had time to escape. She is at the City Hospital, hovering between life and death.

It was learned from an accident insurance policy that his mother, Mrs. Sarah E. Davidson, resides in San José.

STATE'S WITNESS FOUND.

LONG SEARCH REWARDED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TOLEDO (O.) Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] William Donaldson, a witness for whom the State has been searching for months, in order to extradite Ira Bryant, a wealthy man of Hudson, Mich., to answer to a charge of arson in connection with three firebug cases in Williams county, was found today.

ARREST WRONG WOMAN.

SHE HAS A BAD "DOUBLE."

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—One of the most remarkable and distressing cases of mistaken identity ever brought before the courts in this city reached its climax today when the victim, Mrs. Alexander Trautman, the wife of a prominent physician was on her alibi discharged, after a hearing in Police Court on a charge of larceny from a man's person.

A moment after Mrs. Trautman had been given her liberty, her accuser, P. J. Hogan, a clerk, was placed under arrest on a charge of assault preferred by Mrs. Trautman. In support of her charge that Hogan treated her roughly when he caused her arrest, she bared her arm and showed the magistrate black and blue marks where she said Hogan had seized her.

As a result of a search by the police the missing "double" of Mrs. Trautman was taken into custody today.

CONSUL FOUND DEAD.

MURDER OR SUICIDE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LIVERPOOL, Dec. 27.—The Russian Consul here, Col. Degelmann, was found dead in bed this morning, having been killed by a pistol shot. Whether he was murdered or committed suicide has not been determined. It is believed he took his own life, but the reason for his action has not transpired.

CRIME BRIEFS.

Goes via Razor Route.

OAKLAND, Dec. 27.—William Harrington, a retired merchant, committed suicide at an early hour this morning at his home in Fruitvale, by cutting his throat with a razor. No reason for his act is known.

He Would Change Plea.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 27.—Mental incapacity in both father and son was made the basis of the attempt of Louis Dabner to secure a withdrawal of his former plea of guilty, made in connection with the gas-pipe murders before Judge Cook today.

City Marshal Murdered.

LAMAR (Colo.) Dec. 27.—City Marshal Horace Frisby was shot and killed here last night by two strangers, who subsequently escaped. There were no witnesses to the killing, but Sheriff George Thomas heard the shots and arrived at the scene in time to see the two men making their escape.

Murdered by His Brother.

LANSING (Mich.) Dec. 27.—Elbert Conklin, a stone mason, was shot and killed last night in his home here by his brother, Melvin. They had quarreled over property matters. Mrs. Elbert Conklin ran from the house in terror, and Melvin fired one shot at her, slightly wounding the woman in the arm. Melvin is under arrest and appears to be insane, or feigning insanity.

Aged Doctor Threatened.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Announcement was made today that Dr. Markar G. Dadierrian, a well-known Armenian physician and manufacturer, is being guarded by the police as the result of a "black hand" plot. The physician, it is said, has recently received two letters threatening him with death if he failed to pay $10,000 to the writers. Dr. Dadierrian is 70 years old and wealthy.

Fatal Feud Shooting.

LEXINGTON (Ky.) Dec. 26.—Hiram Mullins and his son were shot and fatally wounded in a feud battle fought at their home with a gang headed by Charles and "Bud" Little and John Brewer. It had been a feud of long standing between the two families. Today the men met and the Littles fired on the Mullins. The latter made a running fight to their home, but were shot down.

Embezzler Is Sentenced.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 27.—William C. Anderson, former assistant paying teller of the First National Bank of this city, pleaded guilty in the criminal court today to embezzling $9000 of the bank's funds, and was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary. Anderson had been employed in the bank for eighteen years, when he disappeared on December 1 last. He was arrested at Austin, Tex., last week, and since then most of the stolen money has been recovered.

Wants Sweetheart Arrested.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 27.—Freda Gilman, a wealthy San Franciscan, today asked the police to arrest Joseph Glick, a former sweetheart, whom she charges with feloniously embezzling $3000 in cash and a quantity of jewelry. The fair plaintiff says that she gave Glick the money and jewels to deposit in a safety-deposit box, after the San Francisco fire. Meanwhile she left the city, and on her return found that her deposit box at the bank was empty, and that Glick had left the city.

THAT BRITISH BLIZZARD.

LONDON, Dec. 27.—The blizzard which commenced Christmas night continues throughout Great Britain. The country districts in many of the northern parts of the country are snowbound, trains are blockaded, roads are impassable and rural villages temporarily cut off from communication.

"HEIR" OF PULLMAN.

Title Which the Mother of a Half-Starved New York Boy Gives Him When Rescued.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Acting on an anonymous letter, agents of the Children's Society today found a 5-year-old boy, named Edward Pullman, half-starved and wrapped in rags, on the top floor of a tenement house on West Twenty-eighth street.

The child's mother, who called herself Lillian Pullman, was taken to the Children's Court, where she declared that the boy was heir to a trust fund of $50,000.

She said she had been married to George H. Pullman, who, she declared, was a son of the palace-car manager, and that they had lived in Baltimore before coming to New York. Before the birth of the boy, Pullman, she said, arranged a trust fund for him, of $50,000, which he was to have on reaching 21 years. Later, she obtained a divorce from Pullman.

The mother was released, but the boy was held for further investigation. Those said to be familiar with the woman's history tonight stated that, as Lillian Mason, daughter of Samuel A. Mason, a physician of this city, she was about ten years ago a stenographer for the National Red Cross Society, and accompanied Miss Clara Barton to Armenia and to Cuba.

George H. Pullman, a nephew of the palace-car manufacturer, was secretary of the society at that time, and Lillian Mason alleged that he married her in 1896. Subsequently, however, he successfully opposed this claim in the courts. Meantime, the woman was dismissed from the Red Cross service, and was sent back to this country from Cuba by Gen. Fitzhugh Lee.

The self-confessed murderer made no resistance, and made no statement.

The mob offered no violence, and no shots were fired during the entire affair.

Before the mob reached the jail Leberg heard them coming. He arose from his cot, dressed himself coolly, and awaited the coming of the avengers of Lavenmyer's death.

The leader of the mob made no effort to disguise himself, and it is declared that the ringleaders are known to the jail officials.

Former Archduke Leopold of Austria to Leave His Wife, Once an Actress, Because of "Nature."

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

VIENNA, Dec. 27.—The local newspapers are discussing a report that Archduke Leopold of Austria, who abandoned his title and became Herr Woefling in order to marry an actress, intends to secure a divorce on account of his wife's eccentricities.

For some time, Leopold's wife has been a vegetarian. She finally joined a colony of "nature people," who live in caves, subsist on uncooked vegetables, go practically without clothes and abstain from all civilized customs.

After leaving Austria, Leopold and his wife, who was a Miss Adamovics, resided in Switzerland, where the former Austrian Archduke became a citizen of that republic and served in the Swiss army. The couple have now agreed to a separation.

The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and sixty odd other corporations and individuals allied with it as defendants in the government's suit to break up the alleged oil monopoly, yesterday filed in St. Louis a motion in the United States Circuit Court attacking the jurisdiction of that court to bring in non-resident defendants and petitioning the court to vacate the order of service issued by Judge Sanborn November 15.

HIS CIGAR DOESN'T TASTE RIGHT

And Yet It Is the Same He Was Smoking With So Much Relish After Dinner, Last Night, Out of the Very Same Box, Too.

It Isn't the Segar—It's the Stomach.

Every smoker has experienced this peculiar condition of the stomach and liver, the result usually of imperfect digestion of food. And the blame is usually put on the cigar and not where it belongs.

Such men are usually high livers, hard workers mentally, living under high pressure and high draught, and it doesn't take a great deal to disorder the stomach or render the liver torpid.

They should make it a practice to use some tried and reliable remedy like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, that will aid Nature and not force it and will take care of the sudden attacks of acute indigestion.

The use of these tablets is not to be confounded with the patent medicine habit. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not a patent medicine, but are composed of the very elements which nature provides the healthy stomach to do the work of digestion—pepsin, diatase, golden seal, etc. There is no secret in their preparation—they are absolutely pure, and therefore all the world uses them.

No matter how disordered the stomach may be, it will right itself if given the chance. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest food where the stomach can't, give the abused stomach and intestines a rest, and offer renewed strength to the worn-out glands and muscles.

Brain workers can rely on Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, no matter how tense the strain. All druggists carry them in the fifty-cent packages, or if you prefer, a free trial package can be had by sending your name and address today. F. A. Stuart Company, 71 Stuart Building, Marshall, Mich.

JEFF DENIES GIVING WORD.

Is Ready to Battle, but Wants More Coin.

Skinner Leaves for 'Frisco to See Delaney.

Champion Prefers to Fight in Los Angeles.

Jim Jeffries says he has given no definite promise to Matchmaker Skinner to fight for a purse of $30,000 before the Rhyolite Athletic Club. He admits, however, that he is willing to fight again and is ready to accept inducements.

Despairing of securing Jeffries's signature to an agreement at this time, Skinner left last night for San Francisco to talk the matter over with Billy Delaney. Skinner went to Burbank to see Jeff yesterday, and the big alfalfa farmer would give him no satisfaction, but agreed to let Skinner talk it over with Delaney.

Skinner then induced Jeffries to wire Delaney and make an appointment with him for tomorrow at 11 o'clock at San Francisco. Skinner alleged before leaving that Jeffries had given Delaney power to deal with him (Skinner,) but Jeffries, over the telephone, denied this, but admitted that he had authorized the interview.

Jeffries denies having sent a telegram to Skinner at Rhyolite agreeing to accept the purse of $30,000 for a battle with Squires, and it is alleged by other persons that Billy Delaney signed the message for him. He also denies having given Skinner definite answers in the interview at the Van Nuys Monday afternoon, but admits that he was in a receptive mood and demanded that Skinner first do business with Squires.

Skinner claims to have received a cable from Squires that he is willing to come to America provided transportation for himself and manager is forwarded.

Jeff denied last night that he offered to fight for $30,000, but said he was willing to enter the ring for a purse of $50,000. Skinner reiterated before leaving that $30,000 was as high as he would go. Jeffries does not say that ultimately he will not accept $30,000 if there is no better offer, but says that he believes he can get more.

So far as the Rhyolite proposition is concerned, Jeffries says there has been nothing definite accomplished.

Jeffries wants at least four months in which to get into condition. He is soft, comparatively, and would have to harden up considerably.

FIGHT PICTURES AT TONOPAH.

ARRANGEMENTS SAID TO BE MADE BY MANAGER RILEY.

Miss Butz, Who Assisted Picture Men at Los Angeles, Expected to Reach Scene of Battle Today. Strike of Waiters Feared, But Pacifying Interests Are at Work.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TONOPAH (Nev.) Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Pictures of the Gans-Herman battle are to be taken in Tonopah. The news leaked out tonight when it was learned on good authority that Miss Butz, representing Miles Brothers of San Francisco, who took pictures of the Burns-O'Brien battle at Los Angeles, is expected to reach here tomorrow with a carload of paraphernalia to set up for the undertaking.

Manager Riley has kept the news secret, as full arrangements were not made until very recently. Miles Brothers have been engaged in preparing the Burns-O'Brien pictures and could not guarantee freedom until a few days ago.

The taking of the pictures will add many new features to the battle, for added interest will be shown all over the country when it is known that the pictures of the fight will be seen throughout the East.

Rumors of strikes on the railroads and among the waiters have been persistent of late, but it is believed the railroad men will not go out. The waiters are to be feared for it is in their power to go out at the last minute and seriously tie up the accommodations for the visitors who are expected to be present. Local interests are at work to prevent labor difficulty.

Manager Riley feels so good over the way things are looking that when the rough structure of the arena was completed he opened five cases of champagne and gave each of the workmen a pint bottle to wash down their noontime lunch.

A general holiday in Goldfield and other places has been declared and mines will shut down to allow the men to go to Tonopah.

REFEREE ON HAND.

GANS AT LOW WEIGHT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

TONOPAH (Nev.) Dec. 27.—Jack Welch, referee of the Gans-Herman fight, was in conference with the fighters today. He said afterward that both men thoroughly understood the rules, and there would be no trouble in the ring on that score. Gans was down to a fraction over 133 pounds today. He says the rest will be easy. He will slack up a day or two before the fight. Herman will stop boxing after tomorrow.

INTERNATIONAL BOUTS.

IN TONOPAH ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TONOPAH (Nev.) Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Three international boxing contests will be held in Tonopah March 17, if plans of Manager M. M. Riley carry. It is proposed to bring together "Jack O'Brien" and "Gunner" Moir; the winner of the Gans-Herman fight and Jack Goldswain, and Jimmy Walsh and Owen Moran.

This card of battles between representatives of England and the United States, will be the greatest international series ever pulled off, and should draw world-wide attention.

Jack O'Brien is expected in here today to talk the matter over with Manager Riley before he continues on his way East. O'Brien went to San Francisco from Los Angeles, but is now said to have slipped away from the Coast city, and to be on his way here.

It is said that in Los Angeles O'Brien agreed with Manager McCarey that he would give Los Angeles the preference if he fought a twenty-round battle. The wily Jack still sticks to that agreement, so they say, but on peculiar grounds. His match may not be made for over nineteen rounds, for Jack believes he can stop Moir in less than twenty rounds. If he does not, the referee might be empowered to extend the number of rounds, and still Jack would be within his agreement, for he would not have made the match for twenty rounds, he may say.

Manager Riley now has a representative in London, negotiating with the three Britishers on terms. Moir's contract with Hackenschmidt concludes January 1, and he will be free to sign and come to this country at once. Owen Moran has desired to return to America for some time, while Goldswain has never visited this country, and is said to be anxious to make the journey.

Goldswain gave Jabez White a great beating when the latter returned to England after being whipped by Jimmy Britt, thus assuming the lightweight championship of England. He is said to be a very good man, and must be to beat White. If Gans wins from Herman he would be pitted against Goldswain for the lightweight championship of the world.

Moran and Jimmy Walsh would fight for the bantamweight championship. Bowker has outgrown the class since he defeated Frankie Neil, and the latter also is too big to make 115 pounds. Riley is a great admirer of Walsh, and has selected him to defend the title against the Britisher.

"Gunner" Moir is the acknowledged heavyweight champoin of England. He won the title from Jack Palmer of New Castle-on-Tyne, recently.

The last international championship battle was fought when Terry McGovern knocked out Pedlar Palmer in one round for the featherweight championship at Tuckahoe, N. Y., September 22, 1899.

If these battles are pulled off they will fall on the tenth anniversary of the meeting between Bob Fitzsimmons and Jim Corbett at Carson City in 1897.

It is planned to pull off two of the bouts in the afternoon and one in the evening. Large purses will be hung up by the Casino Athletic Club.

RHODES AND MARTIN.

MEET IN RHODE ISLAND.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Terry Martin is to fight Billy Rhodes, the "Kansas Cyclone," next Monday night at Thornton, R. I., under the auspices of the Rhode Island Athletic Club. All bouts are off here because of the action of State police. A special train will carry a big load of Boston sports down. The winner of this fight is to be matched with Honey Mellody for the welterweight championship. This will be Martin's first battle since he killed a fighter at Portland, Me.

Owing to the power of the gamblers, battles at Chelsea and other towns within the ten-mile limit of greater Boston have been prohibited, but smaller cities throughout the State, who have in the past conducted the game in a clean manner, will be allowed to continue their bouts.

FAILS TO CARRY.

DELANEY IN IGNORANCE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Billy Delaney declares he has not heard from Jeffries or Skinner. He believes Jeff is telling the truth when he asserts that he has made no engagement, as Jeffries left the arrangement of the fight to him (Delaney.)

Jack Johnson sails on the steamer Sonoma tomorrow for Australia. His manager, A. A. McLean, will take with him a set of the Burns-O'Brien fight pictures.

MELLODY HAS FIGHT.

TO MEET TERRY MARTIN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BOSTON, Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Honey Mellody, who claims the welterweight championship, and Terr Martin have signed to fight at Augusta, Me., January 8, for fifteen rounds at 145 pounds at 3 o'clock. This is not scheduled as a championship fight.

RACE RULING CAUSES ROW.

Bettors Call Judges Thieves and Robbers.

Large Crowd Howls Over the Final Race.

But One Favorite First in Sloppy Going.

The sports at the Ascot races yesterday wound up a slushy, rainy day with yells and cries of "robbers" "rotten," "thieves," and other choice terms, which they hurled in large chunks at the judges, after the decision in the last race on the card, and for a time some ow the women spectators thought there would be a real rough house. A large crowd of angry men gathered around the judges' stand and expressed disapproval in various forms when the judges flashed Merlingo as the winner, instead of the heavily-played Cigarlighter.

This was really the first outcry this season over a decision of the judges, and in all probability a lot of people will always think they were robbed. The decision of any race is all a matter of personal opinion, anyway, and no amount of talk or argument would change the opinion of any man. Some say the horse Merlingo won, and a larger number declare Cigarlighter was the victor. The decision was very unpopular, and long after the race was over knots of men stood around and talked about it and it was the general subject of conversation among the sports returning to the city in the cars.

This decision was the only feature of the day. The track was sloppy and mud flew in every direction from the horses' feet. It was a day for "good things," for only one favorite won, in Mountebank in the fourth race. The first event went to Susannah, backed from 20 to 12 to 1; the second went to Lord Provost at 6; the third to Avontellus at 4; the fifth to Elancer at 7, and the last to Merlingo at 7 to 2. It might be remarked that four of the favorites were decidedly false ones, from the fact that they had hard work to run as good as third at the finish.

Results:

Five and one-half furlongs: Susannah, 102 (McDaniels,) 12 to 1, won; Lulcinea, 107 (Fischer,) 9 to 5, second; Phil Igoe, 105 (Koerner,) 7 to 5, third; time 1:09½. Allerion, Treasure Seeker, Taos and Vinorsina also ran. Josie S, and Nappa scratched.

One mile: Lord Provost, 104 (Finn,) 6 to 1, won; Van Hope, 107 (Harris,) 5 to 1, second; Bauble, 104 (Gargan,) 3 to 1, third; time 1:44½. Ikki, Respirator, Parvo, Pyrrho, Peninsula, Pinta, Lydia Wrouseman and Foxlake also ran. Lady Travers, Prominence and Vindicta scratched.

Six furlongs: Avontellus, 105 (Kunz,) 4 to 1, won; Veritas Vinci, 102 (McDaniel,) 2 to 1, second; Vandola, 102½ (Fischer,) 6 to 1, third; time 1:17¼. Lisbia, Avalon, Abbey Belle, Sentado, Frank V., Comas, Spartan and Gussie T. also ran. Willingly, John H., Ero Pyro and Pat's Choice scratched.

One mile: Mountebank, 105 (McDaniel,) 6 to 5, won; Needful, 105 (Boland,) 7 to 1, second; Turkey Foot, 102 (Boyd,) 15 to 1, third; time 1:46. J. V. Kirby, Ding Dong II, Rosinini, Lady King and Buttons also ran. Yellow Kid and Neatness scratched.

Six furlongs: Elancer, 104 (D. Riley,) 4 to 1, won; Merrill, 105 (Fischer,) 7 to 2, second; Charles L. Stone, 103 (Koerner,) 18 to 5, third; time 1:16¼. Little Minister, Kirkfield Belle and Nadzu also ran.

Seven furlongs: Merlingo, 103 (Preston,) 7 to 2, won; Cigarlighter, 108 (W. Riley,) 11 to 5, second; Bill Curtis, 106 (Harris,) 10 to 1, third; time 1:29½. Niblick, Ila, Belvoir and George E. Milner also ran. Confessor and Young Davis scratched.

ELEVEN DAYS AS MINER HICKS.

SIMILAR CASE IS RECALLED IN TERRITORY.

Man Working Alone Underground Was Imprisoned by Cave-in and Was Rescued After Long Period of Hurried Mining—Driving Out Gin Mills Makes Ranch Hands Scarce.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Dec. 28.—The rescue of Hicks, the miner entombed near Bakersfield, Cal., has had peculiar interest locally because of a memory of ten years ago, when a Cornish miner, Jones by name, was immured for eleven days, without food or water in a drift within the Bonanza mine at Goldfield, forty miles east of this city. He had been laboring alone at night in the end of the drift, when the workings behind him caved in, leaving a mass of earth and wreckage to the main shaft, a distance of 400 feet, and to the surface, about 125 feet.

He was saved from instant death by the fact that at the time he was in a short section that had been driven into solid and barren rock. Sullivan & Hall of Denver, owners of the mine, at first tried to reach the miner through the drift, but sand from above sifted down and to cut the timbers of the wreck meant the precipitation of another catastrophe.

So a start on a new shaft was made on the fourth day, this shaft being driven on the incline of the hanging wall of the ledge, through the hardest of porphyry, with the best of miners working in half hour shifts. When three-fourths of the distance had been driven, the use of powder had to be discontinued save in the smallest of charges, for fear of caving in upon the miner, who occasionally spurred his rescuers on to greater efforts by freely tapping on the wall with his pick.

In seven days' time the miners broke through the roof of the drift and found Jones still alive, though terribly emanciated and faint. He had lived eleven days on a tallow candle, together with a few scraps that had been left from his midnight lunch. The drift was a moist one, owing to the presence of thick brown talc on the hanging wall, so he had managed to exist without water. Olive oil was rubbed into his skin, stimulant and milk were given him in small quantity by the physician who had been held in readiness, and within a few hours he was hoisted up to the surface and placed in bed. Within a week he made his appearance in Phoenix, quietly buying a ticket for his old home in Creede, Colo., whence he departed to rest for a while with his family before resuming his work in the mines.

HOLIDAY TRADE HEAVY.

Reports from Arizona generally show the Christmas season to have been of unusual prosperity. The postoffices and express offices were rushed as never before and business generally was unusually brisk and profitable. Another indication of good times is the fact that in all counties that have reported the tax assessment rolls have been of a decided up to a degree never before approached. Only a few thousand dollars remain uncollected of a quarter of a million due in this county and a similar condition is reported from Tucson.

WHERE "DRYNESS" DISPLEASES.

Prohibition of gambling is being accomplished in many of the communities of Arizona and "local option" districts have been formed in the principal agricultural valleys. This condition has worked, oddly enough, against the interests of the farmers of the Buckeye district, who complain that now no saloons are in their neighborhood, their service no longer is popular with the Mexican ranch hands, who leave them to work nearer points where liquor is more easily to be had. There is trouble also in Christmas camp, a thriving mining settlement in the southernmost corner of Gila county, where by vote it has been decreed that liquor selling shall cease. The saloon-keepers have defied the ultimatum of the voters and announce that they will camp where they are till their license terms expire, and, maybe, longer.

NOT SO MARVELOUS.

Though locally there has been a closure of the case of DeRaylan, the Russian woman who died here after masquerading for years as a man, widespread interest has developed in the matter among scientists who are addressing scores of letters to this point seeking correspondence concerning the nature of the strange woman. It seems to be assumed that something was abnormal. This was not so, for the body was that of a slender woman, who, evidently had led a life of personal rectitude, but had preferred to garb herself as a man and to pursue a man's vocations. She had succeeded well in business, having established a business in Chicago, the Russian-American bureau, that had an average income of $100 a day.

LIGHTS ON RAGGED EDGE.

The local electric light works have been on the edge of famine for a week, but the lights of Phoenix, both electric and gas, still burn undimmed. The management of the controlling corporation has managed to keep just ahead of a failure of the oil supply and now expresses confidence in maintaining its position till ample oil supplies arrive.

BEARCATCHERS WIN GAME.

Santa Monica Bowling Team Is Defeated on Totals by Only Nineteen Pins.

In the bowling match between Santa Monica North Beach quintet and the Bearcatchers, on Morley's alleys, last night, the latter won on totals by 19 pins. Each team won one game, and tied on the first—Dysinger had high average and Roberts high game. A return game will be played on the North Beach alleys next Sunday night.

If you know I'm selling my lots fast? A few days ago a man from Ohio said to me, "McGrath, I'm going to have to prove that 25 to 50 per cent. less than your tract." I took him out. Well, I should say! He bought at $400 each. Then he said, "How cash?" When I told him "10 per cent," "Well, that's $40. Just make it $30." Another from San Francisco came from Iowa, went out with me and bought two and paid cash. I tell you these lots are value. I'm going to slip a $50 advance onto the lots on Monday, January 7th.

$325. $10 Cash. $10 Monthly. $350.
Buys a big lot or 1-4 acre.
VERMONT HEIGHTS.
Above prices include all the street work, cement walks, curbs, two car lines in the property, third now building. Don't come in and say, "Make it this property at Grand ave. and 42nd street" because it isn't. If it was it would be that much a foot and mine is worth that in a couple of years. If you will come in, I'll give you all information and free tickets to see Vermont Heights.

HOMESEEKERS AND INVESTORS!

If you desire to buy a beautifully situated lot upon which to build a home for yourself or for profitable investment for a modest price, come and see what we have to offer you.

AN EXCEPTIONAL OPPORTUNITY.

Lots in desirable localities have heretofore been placed on the market at prices prohibitive to persons of limited means, with the result that they have been compelled to locate on the low-lying tracts, where they are subjected to the heavy fogs and chilly atmosphere of the evenings.

To those who prefer higher ground, we believe the beautiful Sawyer mesa will appeal with its magnificent mountain views, which can never be obstructed, unexcelled car facilities and moderate prices.

ALL MODERN CONVENIENCES, OF COURSE.

But call and see for yourself. Take Griffin avenue car going north on Spring st. and get off at the terminus, which is in the center of the tract. Agent on premises.

FOR SALE—

SYNDICATE.

Your present capital—Large though it may be—won't go far in the real estate deals which are making millionaires here in Los Angeles.

Pool your money with us—let us use our combined capital to buy at wholesale and sell at retail.

In this manner we have developed one city and several towns; syndicated and sold over 28,000 lots in the last three years. Every bank in Southern California knows we are the largest realty concern in the west.

All our clients in every syndicate have made from 30 to 100 per cent. profits. We will make as much, or more, for you in our new syndicate just forming.

Send for the facts about it RIGHT NOW.

POSITIVE PROFIT AWAITS YOU.

There is no city in the world growing so fast as Los Angeles. Business property is held at a premium and residence sites now on the edge of the teeming, commercial life of the city. We are forming a syndicate for the purpose of purchasing such a property—located close in and will soon develop into a splendid business site. At present is improved with four good houses, well rented. All syndicates formed by us in the past have been wonderfully successful, each paying from 50 to 150 per cent. profit. We feel positive in saying that this proposition will pay even greater returns—70 per cent. within the next year. There is not a more inviting, substantial opportunity on the market today for the man who has $5000 or more he wishes to invest judiciously. We feel you'll do yourself an injustice if you do not come in today and let us talk over this matter with you and show you the property.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Policeman in a Hole.

Police Sergeant John Butler fell in a hole at Fifth and San Pedro streets last night and severely sprained his left ankle. He went to his home, and will not be able to resume his duties for at least a week. At the time he was hurt the sergeant was running to catch a street car.

"Jewish Toleration."

Tonight at 8 o'clock a service will be held by Sinai Congregation at No. 7[illegible] West Pico street. Cantor Katz, assisted by his choir, will officiate, and Rabbi Isidore Myers will deliver a sermon on "Jewish Toleration." On Saturday at the morning service Rabbi Myers will deliver an address on "Be a Man."

Will Address Veterans.

Rev. William Horace Day will deliver an address to the veterans this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in Memorial Hall, Soldiers' Home. His subject will be "Shipwrecked," and inasmuch as Dr. Day had just that experience on his recent trip to Japan, he will no doubt make the subject a most interesting one.

Late Christmas Festival.

The Fellowship Sunday-school will hold its Christmas festival this evening in Blanchard Hall. "The True Blues," the boy's club, are to present a play in three acts, entitled "The Old Miser's Christmas." An orchestra of young people organized for the occasion will assist and duets will be rendered. The frolics of Santa Claus and distribution of presents will be amusing.

Banks as Reserve Agents.

A Washington dispatch says that the Merchants' National Bank of Los Angeles has been approved as reserve agent of the First National Bank of Santa Rosa, the National Bank of Commerce of St. Louis for the Citizens National Bank of Los Angeles; the New York National Exchange Bank for the First National Bank of Selma, and the California National Bank for the Phoenix National Bank of Phoenix, Ariz.

Aid for Veterans.

At its meeting last evening Camp Roosevelt, United Spanish War Veterans, instructed its legislative committee to protect, so far as it can, the right of franchise of veterans at the Soldiers' Home, which has been attacked by Milton K. Young in his contest of the election of F. W. Houser Superior Judge. Young seeks to have the Soldiers' Home vote thrown out. Camp Roosevelt will install officers next Thursday evening.

Strike Has No Effect Here.

Southern California shippers to eastern points have been considerably worried about the strike of the firemen on the Atlantic system of the Southern Pacific, which occurred Sunday. To quiet these alarms the local officials of the company secured the latest advices yesterday and found that while 600 firemen had struck, every place had been filled, and that shipments to the East will not be delayed at all on account of this strike. The trouble at first affected all of the road between El Paso and New Orleans, but it had been anticipated by the railroad company, and new men were en route to the two cities before the strike was called.

TOM FITCH'S DUEL.

Mark Twain Tells of the Event in His Autobiography in the "North American."

[Mark Twain, North American Review:] In those early days dueling suddenly became a fashion in the new Territory of Nevada, and by 1864 everybody was anxious to have a chance in the new sport, mainly for the reason that he was not able to thoroughly respect himself so long as he had not killed or crippled somebody in a duel or been killed or crippled in one himself.

At that time I had been serving as city editor on Mr. Goodmans Virginia City Enterprise, for a matter of two years. I was 29 years old. I was ambitious in several ways, but I had entirely escaped the seductions of that particular craze. I had had no desire to fight a duel; I had no intention of provoking one. I did not feel respectable, but I got a certain amount of satisfaction out of feeling safe. I was ashamed of myself; the rest of the staff were ashamed of me—but I got along well enough. I had always been accustomed to feeling ashamed of myself, for one thing or another, so there was no novelty for me in the situation. I bore it very well. Plunkett was on the staff; R. M. Daggett was on the staff. These had tried to get into duels, but for the present had failed, and were waiting. Goodman was the only one of us who had done anything to shed credit upon the paper. The rival paper was the Virginia Union. Its editor for a little while was Tom Fitch, called the "silver-tongued orator of Wisconsin"—that was where he came from. He toned up his oratory in the editorial columns of the Union, and Mr. Goodman invited him out and modified him with a bullet. I remember the joy of the staff when Goodman's challenge was accepted by Fitch. We ran late that night, and made much of Joe Goodman. He was only 24 years old; he lacked the wisdom which a person has at 29, and he was as glad of being "it" as I was that I wasn't.

The Major (Joe Goodman's second) stood Joe up straight; stood Steve Gillis up fifteen paces away; made Joe turn right side toward Steve, cock his navy six-shooter—that prodigious weapon—and hold it straight down his leg; told him that that was the correct position for the gun—that the position ordinarily in use at Virginia City (that is to say,) the gun straight up in the air, then brought slowly down to your man) was all wrong. At the word "One," you must raise the gun slowly and steadily to the place on the other man's body that you desire to convince. Then, after a pause, "two, three—fire—Stop!" At the word "stop" you may fire—but not earlier. You may give yourself as much time as you please after that word. Then, when you fire, you may advance and go on firing at your leisure and pleasure, if you can get any pleasure out of it. And, in the meantime, the other man, if he has been properly instructed and is alive to his privileges, is advancing on you, and firing—and it is always likely that more or less trouble will result.

Naturally, when Joe's revolver had risen to a level it was pointing at Steve's breast, but the Major said: "No, that is not wise. Take all the risks of getting murdered yourself, but don't run any risk of murdering the other man. If you survive a duel you want to survive it in such a way that the memory of it will not linger along with you through the rest of your life and interfere with your sleep. Aim at your man's leg; not at the knee; not above the knee; for those are dangerous spots. Aim below the knee; cripple him, but leave the rest of him to his mother."

By grace of these truly wise and excellent instructions, Joe tumbled Fitch down next morning with a bullet through his lower leg, which furnished him a permanent limp. And Joe lost nothing but a lock of hair, which he could spare better then than he could now. For when I saw him here in New York a year ago, his crop was gone; he had nothing much left but a fringe, with a dome rising above.

BIG WATER CASE BEGUN.

Suit Filed by Foreigners to Prevent Diverting of Subterranean Water from Artesian Wells.

John Fletcher Moulton and Herbert Bulkley Praed, through their agent, W. E. Pedley, of Riverside, have filed suit against the Riverside Water Company and the Riverside Land Company, in the United States District Court. Moulton and Praed are capitalists of London, who are large property owners in Riverside. The question at issue concerns water rights, and the action is one in equity, in which they ask that the defendant companies be enjoined from diverting subterranean waters by means of artesian wells.

Among other properties, the plaintiffs own the right to 150 inches of water. Part of this is furnished by two artesian wells, and another part is through a right to slightly less than half of the flow of Warm Creek, as diverted by the McKenzie ditch and dam.

These rights and the property of the plaintiffs lie in what is known as the San Bernardino artesian basin. In this basin the defendant companies have bored artesian wells, and are conveying the water from them to lands outsides the basin, which it is alleged in the complaint they have no right to do. It is also alleged that this has resulted in diminishing the flow enjoyed by the complainants, and they claim that their rights are thus invaded.

The bill asks that the right of the complainants to the water be sustained, and that the companies be enjoined from diverting any of it.

For the first time in many days, the United States Circuit Court yesterday was free of any move by either side in the investigation of the Santa Fé rebate cases by the grand jury. The grand jury did not sit, and the Santa Fé did not apply for any restraining order or move to quash any subpoenas. The time of the grand jury is getting short, and it is expected that when it convenes today at 2 o'clock, important evidence will be brought before it in an attempt to dispose of the cases.

FIGUEROA LOTS SELL FAST.

Egil Firth reports that up to date 348 lots, aggregating $180,279, have been sold in his Figueroa Boulevard tract, recently placed on the market. The tract has standard street improvements, wide cement walks and curbs, graded and oiled streets, water piped in large, substantial mains and other improvements of high character. It is in the new city limits, has half a mile of frontage on Figueroa boulevard, and a quarter of a mile on Florence avenue. It is one block from the Monetaavenue car line and one block from the Gardena division of the Redondo line and the San Pedro Inter-Urban line. The lots are fifty feet wide and sell from $500 upward. Land there which could have been bought three years ago at $275 an acre is now selling at $1600 an acre.

AUDIENCE GREETS HICKS.

BAKERSFIELD, Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] About 600 people greeted Lindsay B. Hicks, the resurrected miner at Armory Hall tonight. Harry Linville delivered a short address. The rescued miner was given an enthusiastic reception and received and shook hands with many in the audience. W. J. Schmidt, Hicks's manager, will go to Los Angeles tomorrow night to arrange for his appearance in that city, commencing January 2.

QUEEN HELENA AN ARTIST.

NAPLES, Dec. 27.—Under the guidance of Signor Ciaclisco, the artist, Queen Helena, has perfected herself in the execution of water colors, and pastels. Some of her pictures will be sent to an exhibition at Venice, but under an assumed name as the Queen wishes to keep her identity secret.

JAP GETS "CORNER," POTATOES GO HIGH.

Secret of Soaring Prices Is Out, but He'll Clear Quarter Million—American Company "Catches on" to Make Money Also.

HERE, AT LAST, is the secret of the high prices Los Angeles and all California are paying for potatoes: Kinya Shima, a little Japanese of Stockton, has practically "cornered" the market, has the situation in his grasp, and virtually is the dictator of the market.

That's why the housewife who orders two-bits' worth of "spuds" must have sharp eyesight or use a microscope to find the package. The shrewd slant-eyed manipulator has brought about a remarkable condition of affairs—and an expensive one to potato consumers.

An American concern, James Higgins & Company of San Francisco and Los Angeles, also has a "finger in the pie." It saw what Shima was about to accomplish, and took hold in time to help him do some of the dictating, and clean up perhaps $20,000, to his $250,000.

The result so far visible to the naked eye is that potato prices have soared in six weeks from $1.37½ per hundred pounds, in carload lots, to $1.67½. And they are still soaring. There's no telling where they will stop.

Dealers who have ordered supplies of eastern and northern potatoes say there is no prospect that these can be sold any lower than the prices placed on locally-grown potatoes, on account of the risk of shipment and the excessively high freight rates; that high prices will prevail until next season.

California "spuds" have attained the proud distinction of being "cornered." The consumers will pay.

The Los Angeles housewives who simply can't get along without them must make up their minds to place the "spuds" way up on the same pedestal occupied by butter and eggs. While potatoes are not yet worth quite their weight in gold, they are advancing in price so rapidly that a "two-bit" sack of this staple dwindles down to mighty small proportions.

It is an open secret that Los Angeles housewives, or at least nine-tenths of them, buy their potatoes only by the "two-bits" worth. And this method pleases the dealer, too, for obvious reasons.

Within the past six weeks the price of potatoes has crawled upward from $1.37½ per 100 pounds to a figure that yesterday reached $1.67½, by carload lots. And the top notch is not yet reached, according to the views of local produce dealers.

This means a retail price of $2.10 a sack, with the prospect that they may reach $2.25 very soon.

KINYA SHIMA STARTS IT.

The cause? Japs!

It is another case of the shrewdness of the "Oriental Yankee." And after he has created the situation, American dealers are not slow to take advantage of it.

The Japanese companies controlled by Kinya Shima, with headquarters at Stockton, stand to sell their potato crop for over $1,000,000. Shima himself will clean up over a quarter of a million dollars out of the deal.

James Higgins & Co., the American dealers, who followed in the path blazed by Shima, expect to stow away at least $20,000 as profits on potato sales during the ensuing month.

Kinya Shima, who is well known in Los Angeles Japanese circles, has at last accomplished what he has dreamed of and planned during the past six years. He has made himself the "Potato King" of California.

Like almost every other success, it has taken steady, persistent work. The public hears of Shima's winning and sees on the surface only the peculiar combination of circumstances which compelled the Japanese potato grower to make money out of his crop.

As a matter of fact, Shima has had this finale in mind ever since he first leased a tract of potato land in the Sacramento Valley, years ago.

His history is an interesting one. He came to California a dozen years ago, and was equipped with a good Japanese education, having been graduated from the Waseda University at Tokio; but he was poor in money. Looking about for what seemed the best opening, Shima heard of the wonderful crops of potatoes raised in the valleys of this State, and he then formed the plan to become a powerful factor among the potato raisers.

STARTS IN SMALL WAY.

He leased a small tract of land, and his first attempts were utter failures. But Shima had perseverance; he gathered about him all the government reports on potato culture; tried experiments in potato treatments; made a thorough study of everything he could get hold of which had any bearing on potato culture, and kept at potato planting.

K. Tozawa, cashier of the San Francisco branch of the Yokohama Bank, who had watched Shima's application, had faith in his final success, and after the man's failure, supplied him with the necessary funds to carry him through. The next crop was an immense one, and gave Shima great encouragement.

He kept on with the work, and as a result, year after year saw an extension of Kinya Shima's land leases, until he and the Japanese companies which he controlled had possession of nearly all the best potato land of the California valleys.

A year ago Shima decided the time was ripe to try to make his "corner." But it was a dismal failure. Somewhere there were thousands of sacks of "spuds" that Shima hadn't heard about, and when he shoved up the prices on his own stock he found these sacks coming out of warehouses he never heard of before, and the market was broken.

But Shima profited by the lesson of his first potato failure, and stuck to his idea. Now he will reap the profit of tens of thousands of dollars. Every Los Angeles household will pay tribute to Kinya Shima this season. He can go back to Japan, traveling in style, like an Oriental prince, and the "spuds" will pay for it all.

Shima got control of all the potato land possible under his own leaseholds. He then formed a mutual company among all the other Japanese leaseholders and got himself elected their manager. The few Chinese potato raisers along the valley sided with these Japs, rather than with the white men engaged in potato raising.

When the crop was gathered the Americans freely marketed their potatoes, getting the usual prices. Somehow Americans found that their potatoes were in demand, and they soon closed out their crops. Then it dawned upon them that the Japs were not marketing their crops. Not only this, but Shima was quietly purchasing all the stock that came his way, and about the only potatoes left were those raised by the Chinese.

AMERICANS "CATCH ON."

At this period of the game, James Higgins & Co. of San Francisco and Los Angeles, awoke to the true situation, and within a few days this firm had buyers out scouring the whole country for potatoes. They raised the price so that growers were glad to sell to them, and kept this up until they had gathered in 40,000 sacks of "spuds," which they placed in warehouses at Fresno and Stockton.

Higgins & Co. succeeded in capturing 20 per cent. of the potato crop not already controlled by Kinya Shima before the Chinese growers became wise and jumped their prices 'way up out of reach. But the American firm and the Japanese grower had things just where they wanted them, and were willing the owners of the small amount of potatoes still left should hold on to them.

Then the market began to creep up, 2 or 3 cents a day, and it is still creeping.

Of course, there is a limit; for Los Angeles merchants have ordered many carload lots of potatoes from Wisconsin, Minnesota, Idaho and Oregon. But there is the heavy freight rate in these cases to keep up prices, and there is the risk of loss by frost and delay, incident to the poor service given on freight by the railways. The freight from any of the points mentioned amounts to 75 cents per 100 pounds.

ON THE RUN—UPWARD.

And, in the meantime, Kinya Shima and James Higgins & Co. have the potato crop market on the run—and it's running upward. Those who know say that the Shima lands have yielded an average of 150 sacks of potatoes an acre. He and his companies control leases on 7000 acres, so that Shima has control of at least 1,000,000 bags of "spuds." It is estimated that the cost of growing and marketing will reach not quite 50 cents per sack; and while the Japanese combined will get over $1,000,000 for their crop, Shima himself will net at least $250,000 as his share for manipulating their affairs.

The Los Angeles market calls for the consumption of an average of seven carloads of potatoes a day; so that a heavy tribute from this city will be exacted by the men who stand to make a fortune out of one potato crop. There will be no lower potato prices until next year's crop matures, and, even then, the Japs will be in the field.

PUMP FISH FROM WELLS.

Ranchmen at Hynes Feast on Finny Food Out of Land's Depths.

Ranchmen at Hynes, six miles north of Long Beach, are raising great quantities of clear, fresh water from the earth's depths, and with about every stroke of the large pumps live fish ranging from six to twelve inches in length are drawn from the underground stream and sent with a rush down the sluiceways to the irrigation ditches, many miles from the nearest surface waterway, and six miles from the ocean.

Charles Luther, a farmer from Maine, who is caring for twenty acres owned by Mrs. Seivert of this city, when he first saw the fish didn't believe his own eyes, and it required the testimony of his neighbors, among them Dist.-Atty. Fredericks, to convince him that they were not only live fish, but good to eat.

Since the first fish was captured, cooked and fried, many hundreds have been collected and the ranchmen have ceased to wonder, as Luther expresses the opinion that Hynes is directly over a great underground river. Fifteen ranches are supplied from one pumping plant, owned jointly, and there is water for all and plenty to spare. No one has seemed to know whether the fish can see, although all that have been caught have eyes. The ranchmen incline to the belief that carried underground from some faraway outer stream, they have not been shut away long enough to lose their sight.

HE'S THE REAL "POTATO KING" OF CALIFORNIA.

The little Stockton Japanese who has corralled the elusive "spud" and is making the consumer pay him for his trouble.

LONG DEFERED GIFT.

Watch Promised Five Years Ago Presented to W. D. Climo at Dinner in Jonathan Club.

More than five years ago W. D. Climo, at that time manager of the mines, was promised a gold watch when the Shannon Copper Company should pay its first dividend. Since that time the control of the mine has passed into other hands, and Mr. Climo is no longer manager of it. But in recognition of the work he did in developing the property, when the first dividend was declared, December 20, the former owners expressed from New York one of Tiffany's masterpieces.

C. M. Shannon, discoverer of the mine and long-time friend of Mr. Climo, was host last night at a dinner at the Jonathan Club, where Mr. Climo was guest of honor, and the watch was properly presented to him.

The watch is a superb piece of work, severely plain except for Mr. Climo's monogram. It is the gift of W. D. Thompson, one time of Butte, but now of New York, who was the first president of the Shannon Copper Company. Other former members of the company presented Mr. Climo with a chair, a charm, and a pencil studded with diamonds.

Mr. Thompson has been much in the public eye recently, as he is reported to have cleaned up more than $10,000,000 in Nipissing. Speaking of the copper conditions last night, Mr. Shannon said that this amount was overstated, but that Mr. Thompson had made between $4,000,000 and $6,000,000.

"The next development of the copper country will be along the western edge of Arizona, instead of the eastern, where the Shannon mine is," said Mr. Shannon. "There are large deposits all along the Colorado River, and I expect that much copper will be found on the California side.

"Although this will be the next development, and a large one, the largest copper development of the future will be in Alaska, I believe. I think so so strongly that I am going to send a man into that region as soon as possible in the spring."

Besides the host and the guest of honor, there were present at the dinner: George A. Schroter, a mining man of New York; Albert Searle, N. M. Nordfeet, Reese Llewellyn, Frank H. Judson, F. T. Griffith and W. J. Cox.

HAD A JAG, NO WINGS.

Flores Tries to Fly From Fourth-street Bridge and Is Dug Out of the Sand Uninjured.

Antonio Flores tried to take unto himself the wings of a dove yesterday on the Fourth-street bridge. The patrol wagon's officers had some difficulty in shoveling him from the sand in the river bed, but when Flores got to the Receiving Hospital surgeons found he had no broken bones.

Through an interpreter Flores confessed that he was "a little intoxicated." He indignantly denied that he was drunk. Somehow he did not know how he jumped off the edge of the bridge. Strangely enough, the long fall resulted in no serious injury. The man came here recently from Juarez, Mex.

QUICK PROFIT ON FLOWER.

The Herron Realty Company reports the sale of the house and lot at Nos. 928-30-32 South Flower street, which was owned by the Mercereau Bridge and Construction Company, and was sold to a local syndicate for $25,500. The lot is fifty feet wide by 155 in depth, with a six-flat building of frame construction rented for $141 a month. Three months ago the bridge construction firm bought the property from John Alderson for $22,000. The company also reports the sale of No. 838 South Flower for William Wright to Mary Wieligman. The lot is 50x150 feet, and improved with an eight-room two-story frame residence. The purchase price was $8500. Ida M. Bosley sold through the same agents to Mrs. Mary Woodcock a vacant lot on Flower street, 250 feet south of Sixteenth, consideration said to be $8500.

MASONS BUY TEMPLE SITE.

NEW HOME TO BE AT FIGUEROA AND PICO STREETS.

Hundred Thousand Dollars Is Paid for Property on Which Handsome Structure Is to Be Erected at Once, Replacing Hill-street Quarters Recently Sold to Railroad.

A deal was closed yesterday whereby the Masons of Los Angeles come into possession of a handsome site for their proposed new Masonic Temple. The site selected is the southwest corner of Figueroa and Pico streets.

This tract, which has been the property of Mrs. Adelle Lauth, has frontage of 104 feet on Figueroa street, and of 175 feet on Pico street, to a twenty-foot alley. There is a two-story frame dwelling on the property. The purchase price was $100,000.

The deal was consummated by William D. Stephens, Grand Captain General of the Knights Templar for California, and he acted as a special committee appointed by the various Masonic bodies which have had quarters in the Masonic Temple on South Hill street.

The temple was sold six weeks ago to the Los Angeles-Pacific Company as a site for its great electric railway station, and the change necessitated immediate action toward securing a new site for a Masonic temple. The Masons received $185,000 for their Hill-street holding, and this gives them a handsome starter for a building fund on the new enterprise.

The new site is considered especially well located on account of its accessibility. The Pico Heights line runs along the north side of the property, the Washington-street line along the Figueroa-street frontage, the University line is only one block away, on Flower street; the Grand-avenue line is three blocks east; the Eleventh-street line two blocks north; the Inter-Urban lines on Georgia street only a half block to the west, and all the Santa Monica cars only two blocks south, on Sixteenth street.

Articles of incorporation for the new Masonic Temple Association have been forwarded to the Secretary of State at Sacramento. The capital stock will be $150,000, and the incorporators are: William D. Stephens, Niles Pease, W. P. Jeffries, John F. Hughes, W. R. Hervey, H. W. Frank, George L. Kyte, Oscar C. Morgan, Dana R. Weller, William H. Gaynor and H. A. Shelton.

On the new site it is proposed to erect a three-story structure to cost at least $150,000. While the details have not yet been worked out, it is probable there will be six storerooms on the Figueroa-street front and three on the Pico-street side. The building will occupy the entire ground area. The second and third stories will be arranged with all the conveniences of modern lodge rooms and assembly halls.

Plans are to be completed as soon as possible and work is to begin so that the various Masonic bodies may have the use of their new home by the time they are forced to leave the old temple, which will be some time during December of next year.

The organizations which will find a home in the new temple are the Los Angeles Commandery, Knights Templar; Signet Chapter and Los Angeles Chapter, Royal Arch Masons; the Blue lodges of Southern California, Pentalpha, Westgate, Los Angeles, Valle de France; the various chapters of the Eastern Star, and probably several others. It is estimated that at least 5000 Masons will be directly affected by this change in location.

The Masonic Temple on South Hill street was erected ten years ago at a cost of $50,000. At that time there was a great cry raised that the Masons were going out into the suburban section with their building, but the growth of the city proved the wisdom of the choice.

The sale of the new site was made through the agency of W. I. Hollingsworth & Co.

CITY COUNCIL REPUBLICANS

Quint and Garrett Chiefs at City Hospital.

Lyons of the Seventh Gets Only Surprise.

The first caucus of the new Council was held Wednesday night. Eight members were present. Yonkin was on his way to San Quinten with a county prisoner and could not attend.

Niles Pease was elected president of the Council on the first ballot. The vote could not be made unanimous, as he modestly stamped a ticket for Wallace.

The membership of all the important committees was chosen by secret ballot. A few committees are still incomplete. At the close of the caucus the following selections had been made:

President, Niles Pease, Non-Partisan

LEGISLATION COMMITTEE.

Blanchard, Republican.
Wallace, Republican and Non-Partisan.
Wren, Non-Partisan.

SURGEONS AT RECEIVING HOSPITAL.

Quint. Garrett.

The Councilman whose name appears first is the chairman of each committee.

On the leading committees the Non-Partisans are fairly well represented, but the slate shows that the complexion of the Council is Republican. Pease owes his selection as chairman to Blanchard, the Republican leader at the City Hall.

The Non-Partisans made a show of standing out for one chief surgeon at the Police Station, but when they came to cast their ballots each voted for two.

Four Republicans and four Non-Partisans participated, but the political lines were not drawn. There was not a tie vote during the evening.

About the only surprise of the evening came to Lyons, the infant legislator from the Seventh Ward. Lyons is new at the political game, but he conceived a plot that he thought would catch the veterans.

Dr. Clark is a close personal friend of Lyons. Clark supported the Non-Partisan ticket. He told Lyons that the Non-Partisan committee promised him the votes of their Councilmen for a place as police surgeon. There are four Non-Partisans. With Lyons he was a certain winner.

Lyons wrestled with this problem for two weeks. He did not like to throw his Republican comrades right at the outset, but he wanted Clark for police surgeon. Wednesday night he wrote Clark's name on his ballot and cautiously slipped it into the hat.

When the ballots were counted there was just one for Clark, Dr. Quint received eight votes and Dr. Garrett five.

IMPORTANT TO COME.

The most important committee of all is yet to be appointed. The new Council expects to create a Public Utility Committee to take the place of the old Board of Public Works. But this committee cannot be created until the new Council is formally organized.

Franchise applications and the annual reports of public utility companies will be referred to this committee for investigation and report. Its most important duty will be to fix the price for gas, electric light and telephone service. Under the terms of an ordinance adopted a year ago the maximum price which may be charged for these utilities is fixed yearly by the Council.

One more caucus will be held by the Councilmen-elect before they formally organize. This will probably take place Tuesday night.

WILL TOUCH BOGIE.

Than Phantom Will Disappear—Goldfield Mine Owners to Break Strangle Hold of I.W.W.

"The present trouble in Goldfield between the employers and the Western Federation of Miners has been caused by the leaders of the union, who for the most part are men who, were deported from Colorado about two years ago," said T. W. Young, a prominent mining man from that district, who arrived at the Angelus yesterday.

"The workers in the mines are satisfied and they can have the advance in wages asked without any trouble, but the mine owners have determined to repudiate the union as a whole, owing to the renegade fellows at the head of it," he continued.

"I recall an instance, last summer which resulted in one of the officials of the union being ousted from his job. The man's name was Barrie and he was secretary of the organization. Barrie came to my office and made the threat that if the mine owners did not do certain things that he would call a strike and followed this up with the statement that it was not always comfortable for any one who opposed the miners' union and that the law was as nothing to his organization.

"This worried me somewhat and I talked to all of the miners I personally knew and my friends did likewise. The result was that the same evening the members of the organization arose and denounced Barrie and forced him to quit his position. The truth of the matter is that the men are tired of the union and its bickerings and treachery. The time is ripe for a lock-out of every member of the union and during the next two weeks this will be done. The first step will then be taken to break the throttle hold the organization has upon Goldfield and its surroundings."

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

City Attorney Mathews recommended to the Council yesterday a form of ordinance granting subway permits to the Los Angeles-Pacific Railway Company untrammeled by time limit restrictions.

The Council passed a special order yesterday directing the Auditor to make good the $60,000 shortage in the storm sewer fund by transferring money from the cash fund.

W. L. Adams, former chief engineer of the Southern Pacific, has been appointed chief examiner of applicants for civil service positions.

H. Stricklin, is sued by Charles C. Flint, as guardian for Dallas Damal, to recover $2000. It is claimed that the money was obtained under pretence of building a home for the aged and feeble.

By stipulation a receiver was yesterday appointed for the Chicago Home Company, and it is claimed the stockholders will not lose anything.

A. S. Van Degrift has begun a contest to oust E. A. Clampitt, the successful Republican candidate for Councilman from the Second Ward. It is alleged that Van Degrift, Non-Partisan candidate, was deprived of many votes by the precinct election officers.

A tedious suit brought by the contractors and material men employed at the time the Bisbee Inn was built, was decided by Judge York yesterday.

The Osborne family was acquitted of the charge of malicious mischief by a jury before Justice Austin yesterday for slicing one end off their former home.

The notorious Sanchez family was held for trial in the Superior Court on charges of shoplifting.

E. A. West, convicted of failing to support his little son, was given a suspended sentence on condition that he look after the child properly.

AT THE CITY HALL.

WILL WAIVE TIME LIMIT.

ATTORNEY MATHEWS FAVORS SUBWAY PERMITS.

Promises to Present Ordinances Granting Concessions Untrammeled by Twenty-one-Year Clause. Railway Agrees to Build Tunnel and Take Chances on Revocation.

City Attorney Mathews and Attorney Pope reached a tentative agreement yesterday concerning the subway permits for the Los Angeles-Pacific Railway on West Fourth and North Hill streets. This was not affected until the two attorneys were brought together on the floor of the Council.

While the Councilmen sat in their seats still in session, the City Attorney and the attorney for the railway company discussed in whispers the applications for the subways.

The Los Angeles-Pacific Company will receive permits unhampered by the twenty-one-year time limit.

The City Attorney will insert in the ordinance a clause prohibiting the carrying of freight through the subways.

Whenever the city needs the space under the street for public improvement the railway company must give way.

All trains must stop at Flower street.

The plans for the subway must be approved by the Board of Public Works.

Electricity is the only motive power permitted.

No attempt will be made to regulate the fares to the beaches.

The company will receive twenty-one-year franchises for the crossings at Flower street and Vermont avenue.

These provisions will be submitted in the ordinance Monday, subject to approval by the Council. Mr. Mathews reported adversely on the drafts of ordinances prepared by the attorneys for the railway company; he said that the interests of the people are not sufficiently protected. He declined to present an ordinance granting to the railway a franchise in which the time limit should not be specified.

"In my opinion," said Mr. Mathews to the Council, "the charter applies to subways. It is broad and specific and it covers this point.

"I would not object to a permit for the tunnels under the streets, provided they are similar in form to the ones which are granted for short-distance tunnels and excavations in the business district. I believe the company has a right to use space under the streets where it owns the land on both sides provided the purpose is a reasonable one, so long as the space is not needed for a public improvement.

"The charter contemplates that the terms shall be specified in each franchise: the railway company must accept these permits at its own risk."

Attorney Pope objected to some of the stipulations which Mr. Mathews desires to place in the ordinances; these objections will be argued at length before the Council next Monday. The legislators were desirous of voting the permits at yesterday's session, but Mr. Mathews said that sufficient data has not been furnished his office to enable it to describe the route of the tunnel west of Vermont avenue.

Protesting against so many technical delays, the Council voted grudgingly to postpone further consideration of the permits until next Monday.

City Attorney Mathews agreed with the attorneys for the railway that the Council cannot regulate fares outside the city limits, also that the owners of abutting property have certain privileges under the streets so long as these do not interfere with a public improvement.

"I think the city should indulge this project as far as possible," said Mr. Mathews, "provided such indulgence does not conflict with any of the provisions of the State law or the city charter."

Hinging on the issue of these permits are improvements that contemplate the expenditure of more than $5,000,000. They are probably of more importance than any franchise ever granted to a utility company by the Council.

The aggregate length of the subways is about six miles. Wherever they run the land on the roof belongs to the Harriman interests, except the street crossings. Eight permits in all will be required; five of these will be franchises, one of which will be offered for sale by the Council. The subway permits are the first of their kind contemplated for a western municipality, and there is no precedent for the guidance of the City Attorney's office.

Concurrent with the issue of the subway permits the Council will pass ordinances providing for a joint railway and highway tunnel on Hill street, between First and Temple streets; these ordinances are all prepared; they have been held in abeyance for the reason that the railway declined to build a tunnel south of Temple street before it is assured of a permit for a similar tunnel north of that thoroughfare.

Twenty minutes to Santa Monica and Venice, and ten minutes to Hollywood is the time promised by the officials of the Los Angeles-Pacific when their through express trains are placed in operation.

BOYLE HEIGHTS WINS.

BLOCKS ROYAL ARCH.

The Royal Arch went down to defeat almost without a struggle at yesterday afternoons' session of the Council. The legislators declined to father any further liquor legislation. "Pop" Blanchard went so far as to decline to let the incoming Council act on Goytino's application for an extension of the saloon zone so as to embrace a portion of the Ninth Ward. He emerged for an executive meeting of the Legislation Committee bearing in triumph a recommendation that this application be "filed."

The leaders of the liquor forces took this as final, and withdrew; but the riff-raff floated about the City Hall until the Council voted unanimously in accordance with the committee's recommendation.

This came as a pleasing surprise to a delegation of Ninth Warders, who came to the Council to protest against the attempted invasion of the Royal Arch. A hysterical forecast in an evening paper gave them the impression that the Council had actually voted to increase the saloon zone.

Attorneys for the wholesale and retail liquor dealers scurried for cover, carrying with them half-framed ordinances that they had hoped to slip through the Council at its closing sessions. The legislators have announced definitely that they will have nothing further to do with liquor legislation.

NEW CHIEF EXAMINER.

PLUM FOR RAILROAD MAN.

W. L. Adams, former chief engineer of the Southern Pacific company, is the new examiner of the Civil Service Commission. He won his portfolio in a competitive contest, for which there were eight entries.

During the last ten days the commissioners have been meeting in executive session to examine the applicants. Questions and answers were delivered and received orally, and there are no records of the examination. Adams brought excellent references. He is a graduate of the Rensalear Polytechnic Engineering School, and has thirty years' practical experience.

The other competitors were Capt. Charles Kiener, F. C. Mulkey, W. H. Knight, C. E. Burns, L. B. Cochran, Melville Dozier and P. H. Grace.

A month ago the Council created the position of examiner for the Civil Service Commission; it carries a salary of $150 a month. During the last four years the commission has selected examiners who seemed best fitted for the special branch in which the applicants' services would be required. Sometimes this worked well, at others it was a rank failure.

Mayor McAleer tells a good story of an Irish carpenter whom the Mayor sent to take the examination for a place in the crossing builders' crew.

The next afternoon the Mayor met the applicant on the street and asked him how he fared.

"I didn't fare at all," said the burly carpenter, "I quit 'em. The first thing they did was to set me down at a punky little kid's seat in a schoolhouse and give me a list of questions to write answers to on paper. Now I didn't want a job writing copybooks; I want to handle a saw and ax.

"But I looked at the list. One of the first things I see was:

"'If a car wheel is so many inches in diameter, how often would it turn round goin' from here to 'Frisco?'

"'Now phat th' blazes did that have to do wid me builden crosswalks?' The other questions were like that, only worse. I quit 'em."

BARE CASH FUND.

COUNCIL MISCELLANY.

There was a general cleaning up of old files at yesterday afternoon's session of the Council. Four committees reported on all petitions and protests referred to them for consideration. A few choice salary plums were passed about, but the only important legislation was a special order instructing the Auditor to make good the $60,000 shortage in the storm-sewer fund by transferring the necessary amount for the cash fund.

Doc Howton succeeded in lobbying through an ordinance creating the position of superintendent of the detention hospital, with an attached salary of $250 a month. Blanchard was the only Councilman to oppose the ordinance. At noon the health board met, presumably to recommend the passage of this ordinance. But the commissioners declined to be programmed, and the ordinance came to the Council from nowhere. Howton expects to receive the appointment from the next health board.

The Council was apparently very desirous of winning the approbation of the Mayor-elect. An emergency ordinance increases the salary of H. L. Kennedy, secretary to the Mayor-elect, from $125 to $200 a month. This ordinance Mayor McAleer signed fifteen minutes after its adoption.

President Summerland served for only half the session. About the middle of the afternoon he bade his comrades farewell, and left the city for the North to get ready for his new position as Railroad Commissioner.

Attorney Dockweiler secured the passage of an ordinance granting a concession to a fertilizer company to establish a plant near the old city dump in the Sixth Ward. He won only after a wordy battle with Blanchard, who favors the present ordinance prohibiting the establishment of fertilizer works inside the city limits. Dockweiler remained in the Council chamber for a short time enjoying his victory over the Ninth Ward. Five minutes after he left the Council voted to reconsider its vote on the ordinance. Dockweiler must make his fight all over again next Monday.

Councilman Smith opposed the adoption of an amendment changing the present limits in the oil storage ordinance. The draft of the ordinance presented is one that has been before the Council for two years. Smith urged that consideration of the proposed alterations in the limits of the districts where oil may be stored should be reserved for the new Council. Blanchard and Healy acquiesced, but the attorneys for the refineries succeeded in winning a postponement to next Monday only. This will bring the ordinance before the present Council for final action.

A demand for $36,400 for voting machines passed the Council for about the 'steenth time. It is the final attempt to get the money from the treasury under this administration. Mayor McAleer and Treasurer Workman are resisting payment of the demand.

RAISES MONEY FOR THE POOR.

AGED ENTHUSIAST CONTRIBUTES TO RELIGIOUS SCHEME.

Guardian of Dallas Damal Sues H. Stricklin, Claiming He Took Advantage of His Ward's Mental Feebleness to Borrow Money Upon False Representations.

H. Stricklin has hit upon a new way to raise a loan, and Charles C. Flint is after him in the courts to refund. Flint, however, is acting in behalf of an old man of 72 years named Dallas Damal, whom, it is alleged, Stricklin worked by playing upon his weakness of mind and religious enthusiasm.

For several years, it is claimed that old man Damal has been debilitated in mind and body, and has not really been able to attend to any business affairs. But he has been an ardent religionist, and Stricklin sympathized with him in this regard. Discussing the responsibilities that bear upon men, Stricklin told the old man that it had come to him that it would be a fine plan to found an orphan asylum and home for the aged and infirm.

Mr. Damal thought so, too, and together the matter was discussed. Stricklin told his aged friend that he had the plan well worked out in his mind, but that of course philanthropic enterprises always took money to start them going. He suggested that if Mr. Damal would loan him $600 he certainly would be fulfilling the will of the Lord, and when the home for the aged was started he, as one of the founders, would be one of the star boarders, and would end his days happily viewing the good work he had helped inaugurate.

Mr. Damal surrendered the $600, and Stricklin is alleged to have given an unsecured note for the amount.

The first "touch" having been successful, a second was made. This time Stricklin is claimed to have induced Mr. Damal to mortgage his property for $1750, to again aid in the founding of the orphans' asylum. The old man thought he was doing a good work and would have a place for his failing years. Stricklin told him he should be superintendent of the home, and that the plans were being matured rapidly for the combined philanthropic institution.

Getting hold of the second loan, Stricklin forgot all about the religious side of the transaction, and Charles C. Flint, as guardian of Dallas Damal, is now seeing to recover the combined amount of $2250 loaned without consideration. It is alleged that formal notice of recission of both contracts were served upon Stricklin, but so far he has held onto the money.

FIGHTING OVER BUTTONS.

CROWD AT JAXON'S TRIAL.

The buttons which were supposed to mark the crucial point in the prosecution of J. C. C. Jaxon, on trial for the murder of James A. Logan, on the Raymond golf links, were introduced yesterday, and made less of a sensation than was anticipated. At the same time they formed a suggestive link in the long chain of circumstances tending to connect Jaxon with the killing.

For the first time a crowd turned out to watch the proceedings in court. There was a large sprinkling of negroes, for among colored circles in this city, as well as at Pasadena, the greatest interest in the outcome of the trial is felt.

To the introduction of the black mask found lying on Logan's body, as well as to the filing in evidence of the small puffing iron found in Jaxon's store, and which is a companion to the bloody puffing iron found close to the body of the deceased, the strongest objections were raised by the defense. But they went in.

Oscar S. Kunzman, a Pasadena attorney, who acted as a kind of deputy to Constable Austin of Pasadena, in following the case after the body was found, went upon the witness stand and told of a curious conversation that he had with the defendant. He said that Jaxon came to him to engage him to defend him, but he refused unless Jaxon would undertake to retain also a lawyer whose specialty was the criminal end of the law. In the conversation that ensued Jaxon maintained his innocence, and said that a white woman on East Colorado street had paid the officers to keep the facts suppressed; and that there had been telephoning back and forth to Los Angeles. He said, too, that up to that time he was out of pocket $2200 by the fastening of the crime on him.

The buttons found on the links were offered in evidence and were identified by J. L. Eicholz, who told how he and Marshal Reid of South Pasadena had searched a number of boxes of buttons—both new and old—in Jaxon's store, and had been rewarded by finding the companions to those they had found at the seat of the murder.

So far this testimony appeared pretty strong against Jaxon, but when the witness went on to say that in searching Los Angeles he had discovered a tailor's finding house where buttons of the same kind were in stock, the weight of the buttons as testimony was considerably reduced. But it is not by any one bit of overwhelming testimony that the prosecution hopes to convict Jaxon, but by a long series of circumstances of comparatively little weight each taken alone, but which when viewed en masse are counted on to make a strong showing against the defendant.

TEDIOUS SUIT ENDED.

COMPLICATIONS OVER BISBEE IN

The builders, sub-contractors and material men engaged on work in connection with the erection of the Bisbee Inn, the noted resort at Third and Main streets, got into a sad tangle. There wasn't enough money to go around, and finally eight suits were filed in court each of which was snarled and tangled by reason of conflicting claims for mechanic's liens against the building.

Some months ago these suits were consolidated for trial, and occupied the attention of Judge York for eight weeks. Yesterday he rendered his decision. He holds that all the mechanics' liens are invalid except those of Howe Brothers and the Consolidated Lumber Company. He finds there is due from the defendant Higgins to Alpeter, Hall and Alpeter, as a balance for construction of the building, $15,993; and the following parties are entitled to judgments against Alpeter, Hall and Alpeter in the following amounts: Llewellyn Iron Works, $2512; E. H. Missall, $975.35; University Planing Mill, $2166.20; Acme Door and Glass Company, $2622.30; F. O. Wyman, et al., $345.46; Nofziger Brothers Lumber Company, $2920.35; Hoffman Company, $1129.97; and the Los Angeles Pressed Brick Company, $360.57.

Judge York also holds that the Consolidated Lumber Company is entitled to a lien with $100 as attorney's fee; and G. E. Howe also is entitled to a lien with $400 as attorney's fee. Alpeter, Hall and Alpeter are entitled to judgment without foreclosure of lien against Higgins.

It is also held that the claims of Howe and the Consolidated Lumber Company should be paid out of the money paid into court, and the amount remaining as found due to Alpeter, Hall and Alpeter, should be divided pro rata among the other claimants as above.

ELECTION CONTEST.

SECOND WARD CHALLENGE.

A. S. Van Degrift, candidate for Councilman from the Second Ward on the Non-Partisan ticket, at the late city election, yesterday began suit against E. A. Clampitt, disputing his election and demanding a recount of the thirteen precincts in the ward.

Clampitt was the candidate on the regular Republican ticket. It is alleged that a number of votes were counted to Clampitt that ought to have been counted to the plaintiff, and also that a number of votes were tallied to the credit of the Democratic and Socialistic candidates by the election officers that properly belonged to Van Degrift.

The court is asked to have the ballots cast in the Second Ward brought in and a recount made of votes cast for Councilman.

APPOINTS RECEIVER.

HOME COMPANY'S TROUBLES.

In the suit begun by Atty.-Gen. Webb against the Chicago Home Company of this city, brought at the instance of the Building and Loan Commissioners, a receiver was yesterday appointed by Judge Conrey, by stipulation. R. D. Lamson, who is one of the directors of the company, was named and appointed as receiver, his bond being placed at $75,000.

Practically the company is bankrupt. Its affairs are to be wound up by the receiver. There has been no money coming in with which to keep the game of furnishing homes going, and so of necessity, the company has come to a full stop. It is claimed that the stockholders will receive dollar for dollar. It was stated yesterday that there are assets amounting to $32,000, while the liabilities amount to only $26,000.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

BACK TO WHITTIER. The four youths arrested for burglarizing the Southern Pacific depot at Acton on Christmas Day, have been identified as paroled boys from the Whittier School. One, Carl Jackson, claimed to have deserted from the U. S. Pensacola, and as he was clothed in a jackies' uniform, some color was given to his statement. Superintendent J. P. Greeley came from Whittier yesterday, however, and stated that it is unlikely that there is any truth in the claim. The boys will all be returned to the school.

COMFORTABLE ESTATE. John Lopisich applied yesterday for letters in the estate of the late Peter Marinkovich, who died in this city on November 22, without leaving any will. The deceased owned a half interest in a restaurant on North Main street, placed at nominal value, but held some valuable real estate. The total value of the estate is placed at $17,850. The widow and three daughters will share in the property.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

OSBORNE FAMILY IS ACQUITTED OF QUEER CHARGE.

Mix-up in Mortgage Resulted in Eighteen Inches Being Sawed Off Building—Sanchez Family Held for Trial in Higher Court—West Gets Suspended Sentence.

Oliver Osborne, his wife and their boy Tom were declared innocent of malicious mischief in Justice Austin's court yesterday, and thus ended the famous "house slicing case."

The Osbornes had cut off about eighteen inches from the house wherein they had lived, September 23. The place was No. 1019 West Forty-fourth street. They had sawed it down nicely and evenly from roof to lower floor. Their defense was a sort of a hair-splitting point.

They had lived in the house and had mortgaged it. When it came to foreclosure of the mortgage by the loan company who held it, there was some bitterness, the Osbornes claiming that they weren't fairly treated. Back of the house was a vacant lot which the family had owned and apparently sold.

But as to this sale there was some dispute. The Osbornes still retained some title in this rear lot—or equity—or, at any rate, said they did. They approached the mortgagees and told them that the house abutted on this rear lot, and that they owned the lot. Then came the sawing-off of the abutting portion; then the arrest.

On the strength of the testimony as to alleged ownership of the lot and the legal argument based upon it came the discharge. The Osbornes departed elated.

Sanchez Quartette Held.

Belts of silk adorned the long desk in Justice Rose's court yesterday afternoon while the members of the notorious Sanchez family sat in stolid silence in the prisoners' dock. Ever and anon during the examination of the witnesses their attorney said: "I object," and then, "An exception." When the witnesses had told their story and the lawyer had voiced his last protest, he asked for dismissal; then sat down while Justice Rose bound over Pedro and Mrs. Sanchez, Merced and Diega, each being held under $1500 bonds. The quartette of clever shoplifters went back to jail in default of this amount.

West Is Sentenced.

E. A. West, whose trial on a charge of non-support took place before Justice Chambers Wednesday, was given a suspended sentence of $60 or sixty days yesterday. West had failed to support his wife and little boy. He claimed he had been ill. They were separated from him. He promised to look after their wants, and if he fails sentence will be enforced.

Mother Clears Them.

L. M. Heimer and Mrs. Heimer of the Star Messenger Company went free when a jury passed on their status regarding the child-labor law in the Police Court yesterday. Louis Stambook, the 13-year-old boy whom they had employed out of school hours to run messages, and his mother were, in the main, the cause of the decision. The mother said that the boy was better behaved since he had begun this work, and steadier than when he had used his time at will after school. The jury returned a verdict of acquittal.

Wong Kay Waxes Wroth.

Wong Kay will be tried for battery this afternoon—which is somewhat out of the ordinary, for the Chinese is usually a peaceable individual. He was arrested yesterday on a warrant. According to the complaint, Wong Kay assaulted a small boy. According to the other side of the story, the small boy in question had stolen Wong Kay's whip from the latter's truck wagon. The ins and outs of the affair will be developed during the trial. The alleged battery took place on Maple avenue, between Seventh and Eighth streets. The Chinese was released on $10 bail.

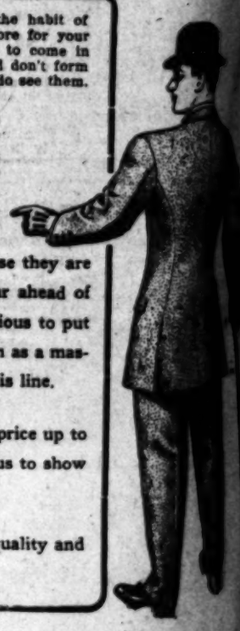
Quality Tells, Price Sells

I Am Making A Big Hit With My $10 Suits

If you have been in the habit of paying $25.00 or more for your suits, make it a point to come in Friday or Saturday and don't form your opinion until you do see them.

I know that $10.00, as a rule, doesn't buy very big suit values — but HERINGTON'S $10.00 SUITS are an exception to the rule.



I know just how much I can claim for these suits because they are made under my personal supervision. They are really so far ahead of anything, anywhere near this price, that I am more than anxious to put my name on every suit in the line and will stake my reputation as a master clothes builder and my future business success, too—on this line.

I am offering other big values—my line of suits range in price up to $30.00, and if you have suit buying on your mind, I am anxious to show you the best suit values you ever saw.

My Overcoats and Raincoats are just as strong on style, quality and workmanship.

BOOKS BREAKS LOOSE.

Makes Show of Himself in Hotel and Winds Up by Striking Polite Woman.

Ben Brooks, a broken-down actor of this city, went on a wild spree in a French café last night. The café is a place much frequented by newspaper artists. The chance for free publicity drew J. Mary Ann Brooks, and flame attracts the moth.

Brooks arrived in the place under the influence of liquor, and guzzled red wine during the entire dinner hour. At the conclusion he staggered drunkenly to his feet, yanked his hat off his head, and yowled: "Here, boys, is where I begin now."

Forthwith he began to sing "My Old Kentucky Home" in a squeaky, unmelodious voice. Every one else in the café kept a dead, disgusted silence. When he got to the end of the song he broke out in a torrent of obscenity. The café in which he sang is not in any sense "Bohemian" in the way that word is usually understood. Many of its customers are respectable women, who were compelled to listen to his obscene gutter song.

Brooks finally tried to get out without paying his check. At the door he was stopped by the manager. A dainty little French girl who was one of the guests at the dinner, which was a family affair, looked at her and spoke to her in a manner brutality, finally, however, slipping a dollar into her hand. Brooks came back with his change

NEW YEAR JOYS FOR NEW BOYS.

FIVE WILL TURN NEW LEAVES IN NEW HOMES.

Youngsters Who Have Been Held in Detention Home Find Good People to Care for Them Through Story in "The Times"—Girls Also Now Have Friends.

The midnight bells that greet 1907 will ring in a Happy New Year for five small boys. A short time ago they were behind the bars of the Detention Home, waiting for some kind people to offer them real homes. They were not criminals, but they had to stay somewhere and there was no place in all the world for them but a semi-prison.

The Times heard about them and sent over to take their pictures, for there were the five boys needing homes and there were so many homes in Los Angeles needing boys.

The public has a great big mellow heart, and as soon as the public read the story and saw the picture, people began to come to the Detention Home asking for boys, and now every one of the five is free and content in a brand new home, and not only that, but two girls have been given places and two more boys arranged for, and there are eleven homes open when the need arises again.

The little "chocolate drop," named "Jimmie," was exceedingly popular. Six people wanted to put him in their pockets and cary him off immediately, but Judge Wilbur won and Jimmie was placed in the care of some good people by the Judge's order until he comes back from a trip, when the little pickinniny, who is clever and bright, will have a home with Judge Wilbur and his family for good.

Bennie Ingalls, who loves fishes, and told The Times please to get him a home where he could see them, was popular, and had a number of offers, for it is plain that Benny has a future before him. A prominent physician and his wife from Long Beach asked for Benny, but have waited for a while to see if they could get papers of adoption in a few months, so that no one could take him away. The matter will be settled in time for Benny to spend New Year's day in his new home.

On Christmas morning George Bonnettio came to call on the boys at the Detention Home. George had the happiest look of any little darky in the land. He was dressed in a nice new suit and brought oranges and apples to the other children. He was careful to explain to Mrs. Pratt, whom they all love so much, that the clothes were not his Christmas present, for he had other gifts from the kind people who had taken him.

"I wouldn't trade my home for any other one," said George, and all the children were glad, for he is a good boy and waited a whole year, lacking one day, for some one to take him out of the Detention Home, where he was placed by the Humane Society because his own home was so terible. George walked in from Thirty-sixth street on Christmas morning so he could spend the car fare that had been given him on apples for the other boys.

Joe Zilkie at Vernon says he has the best home of all. "They are so kind to me," says Joe. His Christmas present was a toy automobile, but he loves the live things out where he is living now, and is learnin~ to milk a cow. Frank Carter from Arizona, who wanted to go to the country, has gotten a good home on a farm. All of the boys will be looked after every once in a while by the Humane Society to see if they are happy and doing well.

John Ramiriz, another lad at the Detention Home, has been offered a place at Hobart Station, and some people of Whittier have offered to take a young girl of fifteen whose step-mother turned her adrift and told her to find a place for herself. A 15-year-old colored girl also has a home because The Times told the public about the need at the Detention Home, and some people at Highlands are waiting for a boy as soon as he can be sent.

BOY WHIRLED TO DEATH.

Young Graves Caught in Machinery Belt and Horribly Killed—Unable to Stop Engine.

Frank Graves, a boy helper for the Southern California Hardwood and Manufacturing Company, was horribly killed in their plant at Ninth and Kohler streets yesterday. The boy's clothing caught in a belt and he was whirled around a pulley near the top of the room; then hurled to the floor, naked and mangled.

Graves's duty was to take away moldings as they were turned out by the machines. He also had to oil overhead pulleys on a platform fifteen feet above the floor. He was doing this when his overalls were caught in the belt.

Quickly this carried him to the pulley. In a moment the boy was being whirled around and around, and the thud, thud of his body striking against the shafting was heard by other employés. These tried to stop the machinery. They could not do it.

All the time the body was pounding against the steel shaft. The clothes began to fall in shreds on the floor and blood dripped slowly. When the machinery had done its work and seemingly tired of the task it threw the stark body to the floor. The skull was crushed and several other bones broken.

Graves lived with his parents at Tenth and Mateo streets. He had four brothers. He died in the Receiving Hospital before an operation could be performed.

CARRIES AWAY JEWELRY.

Sanchez Charged With Having Made a Social Call Upon a Woman and Robbing Her.

F. Sanchez, according to the police, is an all-round bad citizen. One charge of petty larceny is now standing against him and detectives say that others will be brought.

Detective Talamantes arrested the man, whom he accuses of stealing some jewelry and clothing from the home of Mrs. Mendoza. He had been calling there Christmas eve and when he departed he is said to have taken the plunder with him.

Sanchez was under police surveillance when he made his little call. He had been watched, according to the police, ever since he came here from Tucson. He is a nice-appearing young man and wears good clothes, but his record is said to be bad and the officers state that they expect to bring further charges against him.

ARE CINCHING ON INSURANCE.

Big Companies Grow Wary of Large Fire Risks.

Many of Them to Quit State at End of Year.

Harder Now to Get Policies That Are Wanted.

Fire insurance on buildings in the congested business portions of Los Angeles and all other large cities on the Pacific Coast will be somewhat harder to get after the first of the coming year, according to John McCallen, an insurance broker of San Francisco, who is here on a visit. He considers the situation serious for owners of extensive interests—but perhaps his views are to be taken with a few grains of salt.

"Most of the first class companies," said Mr. McCallen, "are cutting down their liabilities in crowded business sections of the different large cities of the Coast, and Los Angeles will be affected equally with the rest. The difficulty is apparent already in San Francisco. It is almost impossible, for property owners and merchants on Van Ness avenue and other business streets to obtain any insurance.

REVOLUTION IN METHODS.

"The San Francisco fire has revolutionized the fire insurance business of the world, and it is probable that many changes in methods will be made within the next year. Some big companies that were hard hit by the San Francisco losses have withdrawn entirely from the State, and others will follow. Rates on business property in that city, which were from 1 per cent. up before the fire, are now 3 and 10 per cent.—an exceedingly high rate by comparison. As is pretty generally known, there was a rise of 25 per cent. in rates on the Pacific Coast immediately after the big fire.

"Undoubtedly a great mass of insurance legislation will be introduced at Sacramento at the coming session of the Legislature. Some of it will be good, some of it bad. An attempt will be made to secure the enactment of a depository law similar to that in effect in Oregon, whereby insurance companies are required to make a deposit of appreciable size as a guarantee of their good faith.

"It is likely, too, that an attempt will be made to adopt what is known as the New York standard form of policy, which requires that clauses that are vague in their meaning shall be printed in red ink or in large type, so that the insured man fully understands the contract he receives.

GOOD LAWS WELCOME.

"Good companies naturally will welcome good laws, but if the rules are made too stringent, the people will be the principal sufferers, for the companies will withdraw from the State, rather than try to continue business under burdensome restrictions.

"Insurance men generally favor the appointment of a State insurance commissioner who is a thoroughly-posted insurance man; one who will be careful to look into the condition of companies before a big conflagration comes along and sweeps many of them out of existence, rather than to take up the investigation after such a disaster.

"The insurance companies have poured a golden stream of wealth into San Francisco since last April. Claims amounting to about $200,000,000 have been paid, and $20,000,000 is still to come. The estimated loss by the disaster was $400,000,000, only about one-half of which was covered by insurance.

"Money is very plentiful in San Francisco, and the demand for insurance is brisk. But the authorities have made a serious mistake in permitting the erection of shacks in the business district, for it will be many years before these wooden buildings are removed, and their presence will tend to keep insurance rates at a high point because of the added danger from fire.

MORE LUCKY HERE.

"Los Angeles will be more fortunate than San Francisco in the matter of insurance rates, and the coming of the Owens River water will be another blessing, affording an abundant supply for protection against fire. Had San Francisco's water system been anything like what your system will be after the arrival of the Owens River supply, the devastation by fire never would have been so great. Even now it looks as if it would be a long time before San Francisco obtains an adequate water system.

"But then Los Angeles is more fortunate all around than San Francisco, although it may be heresy for me to admit it. In ten years I believe this city will lead all others on the Coast in population. Your street car systems are wonders, and it is a revelation to one from San Francisco to find street railway employés so courteous as those in Los Angeles."

BALL AT HOLLYWOOD.

A ball was given last evening at Hotel Hollywood by Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. George and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lippincott of the foothill city. The dining hall was used for dancing and was hung above with great ropes of asparagus vine and dark red Christmas bells. The programmes were in red and green with the monogram G. L. E. embossed in red on the cover. The Catalina band played for sixteen numbers and two extras.

Assisting during the evening were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Whitley, Mr. and Mrs. Stith, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Pauley, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Compton, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cline, Mr. and Mrs. Seward Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Paul de Longpre, Miss de Longpre, C. E. Brydges, Miss Brydges, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Avery, Rev. and Mrs. Agnus Porter, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Waldron, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. William Mead, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Rishel, Dr. and Mrs. E. O Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Beville Mrs. Elliott's gown was of yellow silk and real lace, made princess with pearls as jewels. Mrs. George wore a princess costume of soft white silk trimmed with point lace. Her gems were diamonds. Mrs. Lippincott was attired in a white and gold spangled toilette with under slip of white satin. She wore diamonds. There were about four hundred guests present, over one hundred of them from Los Angeles.

MIDWINTER NUMBER.

The Midwinter Number of The Times, to be published on January 1, will fully sustain the reputation earned by these special numbers of The Times, during the past twenty years. It will contain a mass of reliable information concerning Los Angeles and Southern California, presented in attractive, readable form. The number will consist of six or seven bound magazine parts, similar in form to the Sunday Times Magazine, aggregating over 200 pages, with a special part devoted to Arizona and Sonora, in addition to the regular news sheets. There will be fifty full-page illustrations.

It is unnecessary to say that this is an exceptional opportunity for advertisers desiring to reach the eyes of the thousands of people east of the mountains, who are hungry for information about Southern California. No advertisements for the Midwinter Number can be received after December 27.

The Midwinter Number will be sold at the following prices. The amount of postage will be announced later:

Single copies	10 cents
Four copies	33 cents
Six copies	50 cents
Nine copies	75 cents

POSTAGE.

Parties wishing the Midwinter Number mailed direct to any address within the Postal Union may send the desired addresses to the Times-Mirror Company, paying for the service at the rate of 12c per copy, and the paper will be mailed, postage prepaid.

When mailed by the individual the postage will be, as near as can be estimated at present, 7c per copy.

Jupiter Pluvius is also to be admired for the knack he has of fattening up the cattle on the ranges.

As we now understand the matter, the railroads have surpluses in their treasuries, but none in their yards.

It may yet come to a question of either crowding the tracks and killing a lot of people or of moving the crops.

There are 115,000 miles of new trackage projected in this country, but where are the rails to come from?

The Mayor-elect can't appoint everybody to an office, but it is to be hoped that he will avoid appointing nobodies.

Maybe Chicago can't help it, but it is wonderful how she continues to furnish headquarters for cranks and anarchists.

Anyway, Gov. Pardee has not tried to hog the whole thing. He has not yet appointed a private secretary for Mr. Gillett.

Transportation is congested to an extent that gives the country the blues. Now's the time the Panama Canal would come in handy.

Don't find fault with Jupiter Pluvius. He is simply getting the roads in shape so that everybody can travel in comfort to Pasadena on New Year's Day.

If the Japanese are being lied about they have the satisfaction of knowing that there will soon be enough of them here to make their denials heard.

Although $500 a week is good money, nobody, not even Lindsey Hicks himself, would care to earn it in the way it was earned in that living tomb at Bakersfield.

The Owens River project will help out thousands of grafters, but they will be grafters who graft trees and make two blades of grass grow where only one grew before.

The situation appears to be that the railroads are short of cars and locomotives, and that even if they had them the tracks are too crowded to run any more trains, anyway.

The old geographies used to say it rained steadily throughout the entire six months of the rainy season in California. It may be necessary for the new geographies to say the same if this thing keeps up.

Christmas was celebrated with murder, bloodshed and other sorts of deviltment in seven different European countries and five of the States of the American Union. "Peace on earth, toward men of good will."

While the British government is engaged on the Irish Home Rule scheme, steps might also be taken to grant the same privilege to the other constituent parts of the empire. They are all demanding it in a loud tone of voice.

Jim Hill says there isn't enough money in the world to build all the railroads that this country needs at the present time. Well, this country managed to get along and be happy when there were no railroads in it, at all.

OWENS RIVER FINANCES.

In advising that the cement conduit of the Owens River aqueduct be left uncovered for the first five years and that the construction of a regulating reservoir in Long Valley, fifty miles above the river intake be postponed until it is needed, the consulting engineers of the Owens River project were governed by sound business considerations.

It is of paramount importance that water be brought to Los Angeles as soon as possible, and it is obvious that only such works as are required to accomplish that result need be built at first. The less work undertaken the quicker can it be put through and the sooner will the city begin to derive revenue from the sale of water and power. Later work can be paid for out of the revenue of the water department.

While it is advisable that the conduit be covered eventually, in order that the capacity may be increased, loss by evaporation checked and the growth of vegetation in the conduit prevented, it is not necessary that it be covered at once throughout its length. That is the judgment of the best hydraulic engineers in America, which probably is superior to the judgment of persons whose ignorance of the subject is exceeded only by their volubility in giving advice and finding fault.

The cost of putting a roof on the open sections of the aqueduct at some time in the future will not exceed $2,000,000, and the water revenues will readily provide that sum in five years, in addition to paying interest on bonds and providing a sinking fund for redemption. Clearly it would be unwise to include in a bond issue and pay interest on any part of the cost of construction that can be taken care of out of the revenues.

The engineers have given sound and sufficient reason for postponing the building of a reservoir in Long Valley. They have pointed out that regulation of the flow of the river by a reservoir in Long Valley will be required only when the demand of Los Angeles for water has reached the maximum capacity of the aqueduct. The aqueduct is designed to deliver an average flow of 400 second-feet, or 20,000 inches, after liberal allowance for losses by seepage and evaporation, and it will be many years before the demand equals that supply. The area exposed to evaporation in the canals is less than 10 per cent. of the area exposed in reservoirs, and the allowance of 500 inches loss, which is provided for in the designed capacity of the conduit, is ample. Losses by evaporation and seepage from the Riverside open canal were only 1 per cent. instead of "more than one-third" as asserted by a foolish critic of the Owens River project report. Covering of the conduit will stop evaporation and increase its efficient average capacity by at least 500 inches.

Engineers of the Reclamation Service estimated the cost of a masonry dam, built of granite, at the Long Valley site at $750,000. Other and more accessible material for a dam has been found, and probably the cost of construction could be reduced. At all events, the estimate of $750,000 is ample, and long before the dam will be required the surplus revenues of the water department will be more than sufficient to pay for betterments.

Whether the installation of power plants should be delayed until after completion of the aqueduct is a question to be considered by the boards having charge of the business end of the Owens River project. A very large revenue may be derived from the 80,000 horse-power developed at the lower end of the aqueduct. It is conservatively estimated that the power will be worth to the city at least $2,000,000 a year, which will provide for interest and sinking fund on the bond issues of $25,000,000 and leave about half a million a year to be used otherwise.

It would seem, therefore, to be good business judgment to install power plants and have them ready to operate as soon as the water reaches them. It would cost less than $3,000,000 to install the plants and distributing system, with necessary substations, and the investment would become immediately productive and profitable to the city.

All engineering questions connected with the Owens River project have been settled by the report of the consulting engineers, and the professional judgment of the aqueduct engineers has been confirmed by indisputable authority. Mr. Mulholland's proposed solution of the water problem is indorsed in the highest terms as "admirable in conception and outline," and in view of that indorsement from the most eminent men in his profession, the chief engineer of the Los Angeles aqueduct need give no heed to the foolish "criticisms" of "Mr. Peewees" and knockers.

The water of Owens River can be brought to Los Angeles for less than $25,000,000, as Mr. Mulholland said at the outset, and that is the all-important thing. No greater burden of bonded debt or taxation than is involved in the issue of about $23,000,000 additional bonds will have to be assumed by the people of Los Angeles, and even that burden will have to be carried only during the period of construction, for the aqueduct will pay for itself and for all future improvements to the system.

THE RESTLESS ROOSEVELT.

Doubtless a great deal of criticism, friendly and otherwise, to which the President has been lately subjected, is due to the fact that he has made himself a factor in matters which did not actually concern him as the official head of the nation. But his popularity has not suffered on this account. He is still the most popular man in the country today, as he has been for several years past.

Perhaps the President is not always right in the stands he takes on questions that arise for his official consideration, or for his unofficial consideration as an American citizen. He is not infallible. If he were he would be more than human. But his average is truly wonderful, and the reason of it is that he is both a good thinker and an honest man.

In the old days of the prize ring there was a fistic hero known as "Yankee" Sullivan who was in the habit, during his encounters in the roped arena, of also walloping sundry of the spectators who made a practice of interfering with the game. The President's business is to keep the nation prosperous, healthy and at peace with the world. In his efforts to do this he is occasionally annoyed by somebody in the crowd who endeavors to put a stop to the way things are going. The President never hesitates on these occasions to jump over the ropes, between the rounds, to hand out a wallop or two, and usually with good effect.

But, as a result of this manner of doing things, Mr. Roosevelt is now and then severely criticised. He is called a dictator, and the charge is made that he desires to centralize the government and destroy the rights of the States. Nothing could be farther from the truth. Theodore Roosevelt is, above all things, an American. When he thinks he is right he will work twenty-four hours a day for a week at a stretch to have his convictions put into force; that's all.

The country need not always agree with the President. It need not always adopt his views. It doesn't ever have to do so against its will. The Constitution and the statutes are bigger than any President ever was or can be, and nobody is better aware of this than the man who occupies the White House at the present time. Theodore Roosevelt is a strong man and a bit restless in his energies. And the country loves him, and thanks God for having him.

THE HOWTON PROGRAMME.

The retiring Council placed another blot on its already mottled record yesterday by creating the position of superintendent of the Detention Hospital at a salary of $250 a month. At the City Hall it is an open secret that this place is made not for the protection of the health of the community but as a sinecure for "Doc" Howton in return for valuable services rendered to certain interests while a member of the City Council.

Apparently there is a disposition to establish a rule that each retiring Council shall care for its own. Kern has resigned to become Chief of Police. He had won the favor of the Police Commission by voting to give the department the largest budget appropriation in its history. Summerland and Hammon have been advanced along the political highway as far as Sacramento. Hiller has the support of the entire Council for a place as purchasing agent for the Aqueduct Commission, and last and worst of all Howton is slated for a sinecure. Only Ford remains unpensioned.

But Howton has not yet secured his plum; the Council can create the office, but the Health Board names the man, and the board declined point blank yesterday to accept the Council's programme.

Howton's record is not one likely to prejudice a commission of sane business men in his favor. The kindest criticism is that he is a crank and a misfit. He has given no evidence of ability to conduct a hospital. The pest house is the place for him—but as an inmate, not superintendent.

At the present time there is but a single patient in the pest house in Chavez ravine, and $250 a month is a pretty stiff price to pay for medical attendance in addition to the other bills. The attitude of the health commissioners indicates clearly that there is no call for such an officer. If aught is needed it is a second assistant to the health officer. A capable assistant could be secured for $100 less than the salary named in the new ordinance; it would require less than one-tenth of his time on an average to look after the inmates of the Detention Hospital.

SPOILS SYSTEM GOING.

Really it is about time to gather up the remnants of what once constituted the principles of the old Democratic party. Many modern-day Democrats in all parts of the Union have made in their own minds more of an idol of the President than many of the members of his own party. One would easily have thought that the President's recent attack upon the States' rights doctrine would have shaken the allegiance of Democrats to Roosevelt and that this would have been particularly true in the Southern States. It is amazing how little effect the President's declaration and Root's speech have had in undermining Roosevelt's great popularity with these more intelligent elements of the Democratic party.

Andrew Jackson, the founder and titular saint of Democracy, is the reputed author of the famous declaration, "To the victor belong the spoils." From Jackson's time until a very recent date the inauguration of every President into office was the signal for a wholesale house-cleaning of all appointive offices in the United States. What a scramble this event made for the postoffices from one end of the country to the other! In respect to this and all administrative offices held by Presidential appointment there has been a great change. The spoils idea has given place to public service. These offices are for the people; and the man who can administer them efficiently and will administer them carefully is the man the people want in the office. Continual changes have always been to the detriment of the public service.

It is illuminating to read that since Theodore Roosevelt went into office out of 1969 postmasters, 1474 whose term of office had expired were reappointed. In almost every case where good service on the part of the postmaster had been shown he was reappointed. These constituted 75 per cent. of the total number of terms expired. Five hundred postmasters who were shown to have been inattentive or inefficient were retired.

AS TO RACE SUICIDE.

In an article recently published in the Nineteenth Century an interesting table of birth rates in three of the leading countries of Europe is given. Going back a generation, to 1875, the birth rate then was 35 per thousand of the inhabitants as an average. The death rate since then has been reduced to 15 in the thousand. At the date taken, the net increase in population was 13 per thousand. If the birth rate of that date had been maintained, with the death rate decreasing as it has, the net gain in population now would be 20 in the thousand instead of 13.

In Russia in 1879 the births were 50 to the thousand. Twenty years later they were 49 to the thousand, showing a loss of one birth in the thousand. The net increase in population in Russia at the first date was 15.2 and at the second date 18. The increase of population for each thousand born was in the first instance 304 and in the second 367.

In Prussia in 1875 the birth rate per thousand is given as 40.7 and in 1903 at 34.5. The net increase in population is given at the first date as 14.1 and at the second date as 14.7. The increase of population for each thousand births is at the first date 346 and at the second 426.

Coming to England and taking the same years as those for Prussia, the average birth rate was 35.4 for 1875 and at the second date 28.4. The increase of population at those dates respectively was 12.7 and 13. The increase of population for each thousand births was 359 and 458.

As might be expected, in Russia, composed mostly of rural people where life is very simply lived, we find the highest birth rate of the three countries and also the highest birth rate of all Europe. Russia has also the largest rate of increase of population. Now the birth rate in Prussia in a little less than twenty years, it seems, decreased from 40.7 to 34.5, yet the addition in population was .6 per thousand greater at the later date than at the earlier one, when the birth rate was 6.2 per thousand higher. In England the birth rate fell during the same period 7 per thousand, but the addition to the population increased by .3 per thousand.

The Nineteenth Century writer suggests that this greater redundancy of population in Russia has led to many of the troubles existing in the empire and that the unhealthy social state created thereby has tended to hasten governmental reform. The suggestion is rather far-fetched, it appears. Russia is a country of immense territorial extent; the resources of the empire are just beginning to be developed, and there is room under proper governmental conditions for an almost limitless expansion of population. Under a righteous system of government, three times the population now existing in Russia could be maintained on a much higher plane of living than prevails now.

The really interesting point in this exhibit is that while the birth rate is generally decreasing, the average length of life is increasing, producing a net increase in population.

No publication in the world begins to give so much reliable information for the price as the Midwinter Number of The Times, to be published on January 1. Buy a number of copies and send one to each of your friends in the less favored regions east of the mountains.

THE CURSE OF GOLDFIELD.

SCIENCE NOTES.

A New Consumption Theory.

Dr. W. P. Turner, a London physician of high standing, who has made a first-hand study of tuberculosis for many years, has recently published his conclusions, the main feature of which is that the disease is an animal disease, primarily derived in all cases from cattle. According to the review of this work in Current Literature, he holds that the original source of infection is a plant, cattle deriving it from timothy or other allied grasses from affinity, and that man acquires the disease from infection or inoculation, never by inhalation; also, that it is not hereditary or subject to predisposition. The bacillus is a saprophyte, feeding on vegetable decay, but it becomes pathogenic or disease breeding when the cattle in which it occurs are deprived of the sunlight, which contains a property known as actinism. The group of diseases thus transmitted by cattle or flesh food he calls mycotic. The grasses are the primary host, cattle are the intermediary host, and man rounds out the life cycle. So consumption can be regarded only as a parasitic disease. According to this theory, inhalation has nothing to do with the spreading of consumption, and the theory that infection is conveyed by the sputum is abandoned, while the idea of contamination through kissing would prove nonsensical.

Taking Plant Temperature.

Uncle Sam's scientists at Washington as carefully and tenderly look after their plants and vegetables as does any well-trained nurse the patient committed to her care.

In this connection may be recited some interesting and curious experiments made at the capital. It is ascertained that when plants are wounded their respiration increases, and that at the same time their temperature perceptibly rises, as if a kind of fever had been produced by the wound.

In recent experiments a thermo electric apparatus, capable of registering a change of one-four-hundredth of a degree, was employed. When a potato was wounded, the fever manifested itself by an elevation of temperature which was greatest at the end of twenty-four hours, when it began slowly to decline.

An onion similarly treated acquired an increase of temperature many times greater than that shown by the potato, and the fever, instead of being confined to the neighborhood of the wound, affected the entire onion. In fact, the onion proved to be more readily affected in this way than any other vegetable experimented with. The rise of temperature is caused by increased absorption of oxygen.

Chemistry's Counterfeiting Power.

Chemistry has counterfeited the odor of new mown hay, but not that peculiar scent that caused the farmer to observe: "New mown hay always smells of hard work."

On the shelves of the Patent Office at Washington may be seen hundreds of bottles containing odors that no one could distinguish from the perfumes of various flowers. Yet not one of these odors was distilled from a blossom. Each was compounded in a chemist's laboratory.

According to a Patent Office official, attar of roses has not yet been produced artificially, but it is in sight. The chemists are wrestling with the problem. The oil that gives to the rose its fragrance is called "rhodonol." It is found in the lemon grass, and also in some of the geraniums. Efforts are being made to extract the oil from these plants, only a slight modification being required to transform it into the attar.

The production of artificial musk from coal tar is likely to drive the real article from the market. Though not the same thing as musk, chemically speaking, its scent is indistinguishable from it. Musk is obtained from a gland of the musk that roams the forests of Central Asia.

Ethereal oils give to fruits their delicious flavors. There are hundreds of these oils, and every one of them can be counterfeited, as they are chemical compounds. It no longer pays to use real fruit syrups for soda water, as all of them can be imitated with artificial ethers or by mixtures of ethers.

The largest commercial success in the way of an artificial flavoring is vanillin. This product is keeping down the price of vanilla beans, and is likely to push them from the market. Already the chemists are manufacturing oil of bananas, oil of pineapple, oil of pear, oil of apple, oil of raspberry and many others.

The chemists know how to counterfeit lactic acid, which is the sour principle of sour milk. They also make citric acid, which is the sour of the lemon. A recent achievement is the manufacture of salicylic acid from carbolic acid. One of the remedies for gout and rheumatism is salicylic acid; it is also useful as a preservative. Formerly it was obtained from the wintergreen plant and from certain varieties of willows, and was very costly. At present, however, it is made by the ton, and is extremely cheap; too cheap, in fact, inasmuch as it is freely employed to give a better keeping quality to bottled and otherwise preserved foods. It kills the bacteria that produce decomposition, but in the stomach it destroys the digestive ferments, and on that account is injurious to health.

Muffs Made Long.

A new fashion in muffs has resulted in London from the short-sleeve craze, which has not been abandoned at the approach of winter. To protect the forearm, the new muff is elongated and bent at each end, so that it reaches up to meet the sleeves.

With a muff up to each elbow, the short-sleeved girl cannot help being cosy on the coldest day.

What He Was After.

Father had just sunk the carving knife into the turkey, when there came the usual ring at the bell.

"Look here, Maud," he said, sternly. "If that young man of yours is going to call four nights a week regularly, tell him to come after dinner."

"It isn't necessary, father," replied the young girl. "That's what he comes after."—(New York Press.

Grape Growing in Colusa County.

The grape-growing industry in the territory surrounding the town of Williams, Colusa county, will be developed on a large scale this spring. Several people are going to set out tracts ranging from 10 to 150 acres. A corporation is being organized to plant the Rancho Lubin ranch, situated on Stone Creek, which contains [illegible] acres in wine grapes.

The intentions are to conduct to operate a large winery as soon as the vines commence bearing. Another industry that will [illegible] vicinity is the oil. The Standard Oil Company is now boring for oil. The first two were failures, but the outlook for success from the third one is very flattering, and if the drillers of the company are successful leases on land, and the company is recorded with the County Recorder, 1113 acres in the past few days. All the new land leased is in close proximity to the present well.

STEE COMPANY. Los Angeles

THE POLITICAL WATCH TOWER

With the final passing of the Republican League of Los Angeles, there has been born a project for a Republican club that shall stand for something, an organization built on lines entirely different from those of the league, which had but a small membership and little if any excuse for existence.

[illegible] Republican leaders are [illegible] the formation of a real [illegible] that will afford comfort and [illegible] for its members and will baud [illegible] closely politically. Organization [illegible] political lines probably will be [illegible] and it may be that some[illegible] of the nature of a machine will [illegible] up, although it is declared by [illegible] interested in the project that no [illegible] will be made to pattern after [illegible] York's Tammany Hall.

[illegible] Republican League never seemed [illegible] head or tail. It is true that [illegible] Black was the nominal secretary, but no one ever bothered to [illegible] the identity of the other officers, [illegible] were any. The rooms at No. [illegible] South Spring street were the [illegible] quarters for a rather motley, not [illegible] mongrel, gathering of youths [illegible] who played cards or pool, or [illegible] in the big arm chairs. While [illegible] of them were Republicans, not [illegible] them were representative party [illegible], in fact, Republican leaders [illegible] were to be found there. [illegible] the rooms are dark, the furniture has been sold, it is said, and [illegible] league is no more.

[illegible] It is figured that there are at [illegible] active young and old Republicans in Los Angeles who would [illegible] to ally themselves with a [illegible] club, with parlors, cafe and [illegible] other attractions, not so gorgeous as the Jonathan Club, not so [illegible] as the California, and different [illegible] way from the Union League, [illegible] has recently shown Democratic [illegible].

[illegible] how soon the new club will be [illegible] is uncertain, but there seems [illegible] question that it will be in excellent running order long before the [illegible] campaign of 1908. The [illegible] caught on with nearly everyone [illegible] it has been broached, and [illegible] as if it were to fill the [illegible] long-felt want. This club will [illegible] speeches from Democratic [illegible] and it will support Republican nominees.

[illegible] Lloyd of Santa Barbara will not [illegible] into the position of chief [illegible] of the Assembly at the coming [illegible] of the Legislature. "Jake" [illegible] of San Francisco, for many [illegible] assistant secretary of the [illegible] State Central Committee, [illegible] place. He has the support [illegible] George Stone and other prominent [illegible] of the State, and is [illegible] with many of the Assembly[illegible] because of his recurrent and [illegible] campaign activity. He has [illegible] during previous sessions as minority [illegible] in the Assembly, but now [illegible] for the chief office, which carries [illegible] prestige along with its salary [illegible] a day. Lloyd has been chief [illegible] for two or three sessions, and has a popular officer.

[illegible]man P. A. Stanton has not [illegible] lost [illegible] of becoming Speaker of [illegible] Assembly, despite the fact [illegible] L. Beardsley of Stockton is the [illegible] name is mentioned most [illegible] for the office. It is urged [illegible] Stanton's candidacy that he [illegible] a recent Pardee supporter prior [illegible] State convention, and there [illegible] to be a feeling in some quarters [illegible] that he might not be exactly in [illegible] with the new administration, although he probably was one of the [illegible] to organize a Gillett and Porter [illegible] after the nominations were made. [illegible], it is said, may retain his [illegible] as chairman of the Ways and [illegible] Committee, but he would rather [illegible], and it may be he will not [illegible] the chairmanship of the leading [illegible] in the Assembly.

[illegible] are several other candidates [illegible] membership, including Estudillo [illegible], Warren John of San Luis [illegible] Dyer of Fresno, and Devlin of [illegible] but Beardsley, at this stage of [illegible], seems to be in the lead.

[illegible] members of the State Legislature have visited Sacramento recently that the temporary quarters [illegible] Senate and Assembly will [illegible] as inconvenient as at first had [illegible]. It is true that the [illegible] which the two branches [illegible] Legislature are to be housed is [illegible] from the Capitol, but [illegible] and Assembly chambers, [illegible], will accommodate the [illegible] comfortably. There will be [illegible] on the floor of either house, [illegible] for the public, while the gallery [illegible] outsiders will afford few attractions [illegible] to spectators.

[illegible] itself is in a sorry state. [illegible] off, some offices and the [illegible] chambers are torn to pieces, [illegible] corridors are cluttered with [illegible] material. A number of State [illegible] quarters in different [illegible] of the city pending completion [illegible].

[illegible] the appropriation of $300,000 [illegible] was made two years ago it [illegible] that the work would be [illegible] in time for the opening of [illegible] session, but the work was [illegible] will early in the present [illegible] the falling of the disaster [illegible] Francisco brought upon its [illegible] a scarcity of building material [illegible] a time almost stopped work [illegible] building.

[illegible] expected that there will be a [illegible] scramble than ever among [illegible] workers for sinecures within [illegible] of the legislators during the [illegible] session. What amount the [illegible] expenditure in patronage may [illegible] a matter only of conjecture. [illegible] at the last election took [illegible], and it is left for the lawmakers [illegible] decide what limit shall be [illegible] the employment of attachés, [illegible] of whom do no stroke [illegible] from the beginning to the end [illegible].

[illegible] of the constitutional amendments [illegible] submitted to the voters at the [illegible] election provided that salaries [illegible] each legislator should be fixed [illegible] for the session, and that the [illegible] in each house should be [illegible] $200 a day—this amount being [illegible] the maximum available [illegible] expenses. While this would [illegible] the pay of the legislators [illegible] cut the total expenses under the [illegible] proposed new system would [illegible] less than under the existing [illegible].

[illegible] was the only county of [illegible] that gave a majority vote in [illegible] the change. It lost heavily [illegible] the State, and the lawmakers [illegible] say it will be the fault [illegible] if a majority of patronage [illegible] members insist in throwing [illegible] State's money away on needless [illegible].

Save On Your Winter Wardrobe

There are many women who pursue this plan with their wardrobe—in the fall they buy just about half of what they need—selecting from the new things which we show at that time. Along about now they come in and buy the rest, taking advantage of the greatly lowered prices on all the latest styles and finest qualities. Some of these, being bought late, can now be made to do over until another season.

The goods that are left are just as good as those that preceded them, the only thing wrong with them is that they have stayed too long, and there are a few more of them than there should be at this time of year—for us, who show only the prevailing season's styles at any time.

We're glad that not all of our customers follow this plan, as it would play havoc with our regular profits, but there is no doubt that it is an economical way to manage, and makes possible great savings to her whose dress allowance may perhaps be somewhat limited. Notice just this one group at $35, comprising suits previously marked between $45 and $72.50.

$35 WAS $72.50: Suit of drak green shadow plaid material; cut with Eton jacket, having silk and velvet trimming, and ornamental buttons; finished with silk braid; skirt cut in newest style.

$35 WAS $62.50: Brown cheviot suit, with hip length jacket; dark red vest and collar of velvet; full pleated skirt.

$35 WAS $65.00: Mole colored broadcloth suit; Eton jacket, with attached girdle; trimmings of black taffeta, braided, and Val. lace; box pleated skirt.

Other suits worth between $32.50 and $45 are now $25; those between $25 and $32.50 are $18.50, and every suit in our collection is sharply reduced. A number of splendid bargains in separate skirts may be obtained, too.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Friday Morning.

A charming woman and well-known lecturer of Chicago, Mrs. Eleanor Bingham, for fifteen years an authority on art and literature in that city and vicinity, will appear before the Friday Morning Club today. Mrs. Margaret C. Graham, who was to have addressed the club, is lying critically ill, and Mrs. Bingham, now visiting relatives in the city, was secured to fill the vacancy.

MRS. ELEANOR BINGHAM, well-known club woman and lecturer of Chicago, to appear at the Friday Morning Club, today.

"American Artists, as Seen from the Other Side," will be the subject of Mrs. Bingham's talk, and it promises a treat for art lovers in Los Angeles, for the speaker has had opportunities in this line that come to few artists or lecturers. Last year she went abroad as the guest of Mrs. Potter Palmer, remaining for some time in Mrs. Palmer's home in Paris and at her place of abode in London, meeting the most noted artists, sculptors and painters in the world, as well as enjoying exceptional opportunities in a social and literary way.

She gave art talks to classes of English-speaking people in the galleries of the Louvre, and had the pleasure of knowing many American artists who have achieved note on the other side. Frederick Macmonnies and his wife, an American girl, who has won great success as a mural painter; Elizabeth Gardiner, now Madame Bougoureau, and the four wonderful Klumpke sisters of California will all be mentioned in the talk this morning. Mrs. Bingham had the pleasure of meeting Rodin, who is said to lead the world of sculpture today, and she witnessed the unveiling of his statue, "The Thinker," which was placed in front of the Pantheon as a gift to the city of Paris. She attended the reception given in London by the International Society of Art to Rodin, who is president of this world-wide organization.

In London Mrs. Bingham had the opportunity of learning the English attitude toward the work of Abbey, the noted American who was selected to paint the coronation of King Edward VII, and there are a world of rich and vivid experiences bearing upon the subject chosen that the speaker of the morning will have to relate.

Mrs. Bingham has been a well-known club woman in Chicago for many years, being an honorary member of the North Side Art Club. For ten weeks of every summer she talks before the Chautauquas of the country under the management of the Slayton Bureau.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

"The Light Eternal," play by Martin V. erie, which was given one of its first productions here at the Burbank last winter, has not proved an eternal illumination in New York.

The principals of the cast which has just finished exploiting it at the Majestic Theater were headed by James Neill, Edward Mackay and Edythe Chapman. At the sixteenth performance the light failed.

Of the piece and its production Channing Pollock, the well-known agent, theatrical and playmaker, writes: Religious dramas are much like threering circuses in their similarity to one another, and anybody who strayed into the Majestic during the engagement of "The Light Eternal" had only the word of the programme to prove that he was not witnessing "The Sign of the Cross," "Quo Vadis" or "The Nazarene." The stories of these plays are identical. A Christian loves a pagan, who is converted to the true faith about the time the Christian is converted into breakfast food for the lions. The "big moment" always comes in the third act, when the Christian aforesaid breathes defiance to the Roman Emperor, who invariably gets as hot under the collar over the matter as though this same thing hadn't happened to him at least once a season ever since Wilson Barrett came to America. Excepting only the gentleman who invented afternoon tea, nobody has been quite as great an aid to the drama as Nero. It is an evidence of the base ingratitude which seems to be part of the literary temperament that no member of the American Dramatists' Club has yet suggested a monument to him in Central Park.

There is just one thrill in "The Light Eternal." Marco Valerius has declared himself to Diocletian and others of Rome's "400." The Emperor commands that he be made to kneel before the altar of Jupiter. Marco is forced into an attitude of worship, but at this moment a flash of lightning destroys the idol and in its place appears a flaming cross. The idea is good, though the lady who goes to the theater with me, being familiar with our modern sacred drama, suggested that in the days of the persecution there must have been a special corps of angels delegated to the doing out of miracles.

Mme. Gadski, during her visit here last winter, deplored the fact that she could not return to America this year. Herr Conreid would not make a contract which was endurable, she said, and perforce she would remain in Germany.

However, it seems evident today that the diplomatic German soprano has the Metropolitan director in a corner, and terms will be made after all.

Conreid has just found himself minus a Wagnerian soprano, owing to the inability of Mme. Ternina and Mme. Morena to come to New York as they had contracted to do. Now no other soprano of Gadski's reputation and ability is available, so the manager has come to her for help.

She will make her Metropolitan reappearance the first week in February, and will play the Brunhilde and also Isolde, in addition to other roles in German music-drama.

The Philharmonic Society of Long Beach will essay "The Messiah" tonight, in the municipal auditorium. The resident Long Beach choral society, numbering about 150 voices, will be augmented by an approximate 100 from the Apollo Club of this city.

Mr. Schoenefeld will direct, and the soloists will be Mrs. Catherine Collette, Mrs. Elizabeth Fonda, Ernest Leeman and Charles Bowes, all of Los Angeles.

Less than 200 people attended the last Gabrilowitsch recital, at Simpson Auditorium, last night, for the proverbial Behymer rain came down with the usual fervor during the whole performance.

The wet did not dampen the ardor of the player, however, nor quench the enthusiasm of the audience. The pianist was in excellent form, and his programme was appreciated to the unusual extent of almost twenty encores. Gabrilowitsch and the audience got on close terms of intimacy—as indeed they must, when so few in numbers—and a reception and melodic love-feast concluded the evening.

After this Gabrilowitsch, Hekking, Wilczek, Seiling and others enjoyed a feast of more earthly sort, at the Angelus.

Today Gabrilowitsch starts East, to keep his next date, which is as soloist with the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

Hekking will also leave today, going north for a week of appearances. He will return for his final Southern California concerts about the end of next week.

A DROP IN THE BUCKET.

In the Police Court yesterday J. W. Scott, Harry Hiles, C. C. Ryder and C. B. Dennison pleaded guilty to a charge of running bucket shops, and were fined $50 each, which they paid. Patrolman Berchtold gathered the evidence against the four men and says it was sufficient to convict them if they had stood trial.

Emporia and New York

By WILLIAM ALLEN WHITE

Who gets most out of life—the small-town dweller or the New Yorker? Which offers most—the serenity of the country community or the rush and glamor of the city? Which would you rather be—a cottager on a shady avenue, or a flat-dweller in a six-story cell-house?

Which would you rather do—wear old clothes and know everybody or new ones and know hardly anybody?

It startles you at first—this witty contrast of typical country town with the metropolis. And then you take in its illuminating truth. Emporians, New Yorkers and everybody else will surely want to read it, in

THE AMERICAN MAGAZINE

For January

In this number

Ida M. Tarbell describes "An Outbreak of Protectionism," being the second chapter of her great political history, "The Tariff in Our Times."

F. Marion Crawford begins his newest and best romantic novel, "Arethusa, a Princess in Slavery," a love story of old Constantinople.

David Grayson relates another of the "Adventures in Contentment." A sedative for modern restlessness.

Ray Stannard Baker reports "An Extraordinary Experiment in Brotherhood," picturing Mrs. Katherine Tingley's Colony at Point Loma, Cal.

Washington Gladden discusses "The Negro Crisis," and the pressing question, "Is the Negro to be Citizen or Serf?"

George Madden Martin tells more of her new "Emmy Lou" child, "Letitia, Nursery Corps, U. S. A."

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

BRILLIANT and rechecké was the second assembly dance of the season given last evening at Krafft hall, at which fashion's favorites held sway in a realm of beauty. It was, without doubt, the loveliest of the Christmas functions, and over two hundred maids and bachelors tripped the measures of the merry dance to the tune of the lightsome music given by Arend's full orchestra. The supper hall was a gracious sight, with its Christmas hangings, arranged by Miss Forman. From the ceiling swung a huge Christmas bell, all covered with feathery asparagus ferns and shining tinsel. About the sides of the dome were hung garlands of asparagus ferns, caught with bells of tulle. Suspended between garlands were merry Christmas bells hanging still lower were lights, covered with great airy balls of white tulle, gleaming with silvery tinsel. The entire hall was hung with tulle, and festoons of asparagus, caught with the fairy lights and tulle balls, with silvery bells. Over the many mirrors which banded the room Alabama smilax was flung in charming fashion, and among the shining leaves peeped out lights hidden beneath red and white tulle and silver tinsel. Over the doors, the smilax was draped and in each corner a huge cluster of flaming poinsettias gave a fetching bit of color. The musicians' stand was screened with a mass of red tulle and asparagus ferns, at each end of which stood two Christmas trees, hung with many silvery things.

The supper rooms, where supper was served, were those of snow and icicles, and the dining room was hung with glittering tinsel, and evergreens. Lights were shaded with silvery gauze, and the candles were particularly pretty, the large round ones were arranged down the center of the room, and these gorgeous poinsettias made attractive centerpieces, and the Christmas favors were at each place. The other tables were decorated with holly and scarlet carnations.

The women who acted as patronesses on this function include: Mmes. J. Mellus, Joseph B. Banning, Chaffee, George S. Patton, Alexander and E. T. Brown.

There were nearly four hundred members and assemblies, and there has been no trouble occasioned over the issuance of guest cards, as there has been a great demand for these, and the desire of many to take part. The giving of these cards is entirely with the patronesses, who have had to refuse many, as the capacity of the hally is limited and a certain number can be comfortably accommodated.

Guests Here.

Miss Elinor Merrill, a beautiful San Francisco girl, whose engagement to Kinney Craig, a well-known society man of this city, was recently announced, is here as the guest of Mrs. Craig of Lamanda Park. Miss Merrill is considered one of San Francisco's prettiest, as well as most wealthy belles, and the announcement of her engagement to Mr. Craig is a matter of surprise here. Another of the Misses Martha and Elizabeth Craig of Lamanda Park have issued invitations for a large reception and tea on the afternoon of January 2. Miss Craig belongs to a pioneer family.

Married a Bride.

A pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jerrue, 321 South Olive street on Tuesday evening, Mrs. Emma S. Jerrue and Frank Jerrue, both of this city, the interested parties. The vows were read by Rev. Mr. Vincent M. E. Church. The bride was simply and effectively attired in white and wore white flowers. She has been for some years quite prominent in church and social circles here, and was attended by Miss Jerrue. The rooms were prettily decorated with Christmas greens and ferns and bright holly and a jolly feature of the evening was the Christmas pie, which was cut and found to contain dainty gifts for each guest. Special parties came from Pasadena in stages, among them Prof. C. F. Holder and party and H. H. Sinclair and party. Los Angeles and the San Gabriel Valley were also well represented.

Great Relief

During that trying period in which women so often suffer from nervousness, backache, sick headache, or other pains, there is nothing that can equal Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They stop the pains, soothe the nerves, and give to the relief so much desired. If taken on first indication of pain or misery, they will allay the irritable condition of the nerves, and save you further suffering. Those who use them at regular intervals have ceased to dread these periods. They contain no harmful drugs, and leave no effect upon the heart or stomach if taken as directed. They give prompt relief.

"I have been an invalid for 9 years. I have neuralgia, rheumatism and pains around the heart. By using Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills I am relieved of the pain, and get sleep and rest. I think had I known of the Pain Pills when I was first taken sick, they would have cured me. I recommend them for periodic pains."

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

APPLAUSE NEARLY CAUSES PANIC.

"THE MIKADO" PROVES A PLEASER IN PASADENA.

Goodly Attendance at the Presentation of Opera, Notwithstanding the Rain—City Authorities After Venders Who Serve Milk in Dirty Bottles—Mufflers for Motors.

Office of The Times, No. 36 S. Raymond Ave.

PASADENA, Dec. 26.—In spite of the inclement weather which made people prefer their firesides to venturing out into the wet, there was a goodly attendance at the Pasadena Operahouse last night, when the choir of All Saints' Church presented Gilbert and Sullivan's opera, "The Mikado." The audience did not represent the entire seat sale, however, as early in the day the last ticket was disposed of and many people were turned away or furnished tickets for tonight's performance because they neglected ordering their seats until too late.

The production was pronounced a success, both artistically and financially, and all who were fortunate enough to secure seats were loud in their praises. In spite of the fact that most of the participants had little or no experience in such work, Tom Carl directed the production so skilfully that things went off without a hitch, and no professionals could have kept the interest up better.

Leroy Jepson, as Nanki-Poo, was particularly well cast and was in fine voice. He was perfectly at home in his role and each of his numbers was heartily encored. Revel English as Pooh-Bah also scored a most pronounced hit and contributed in no small measure to the success of the evening. Others who wrote success after their names were: Mrs. William E. Neff, Mrs. Arthur H. Savage, Miss Chita Kraft, Miss Grace Marvin, George L. North, George A. Clark, Ben E. Leslie and Arthur K. Wyatt.

At the close of the first act the applause was so loud and long continued that some of the audience thought that the building was on fire. Many of them arose from their seats and for a minute or two it looked as though a panic might ensue, but the cooler heads prevailed upon the others to sit down again and the incident passed off without mishap.

MORE DIRTY BOTTLES.

More complaints are being received concerning the condition of the bottles in which milk is delivered, and yesterday afternoon Sanitary Inspector Huddleston applied for a warrant for the arrest of one of the Raab Company's drivers. The man is charged with selling impure milk and the charge will be vigorously prosecuted, as the authorities are determined to put a stop with the habit of using unclean bottles.

The latest complainant is W. K. Dunn, and the sample which he brought to the health office is disgusting. City Health Officer Black stated last night that it was by far the most flagrant case that had been brought to his notice, and that the bottle was in a most unsanitary condition.

It has been the claim of the Raab Company that its bottles are all scientifically cleaned, but apparently the machinery must be out of order, as there have been many complaints concerning the company's bottles of late. The excuse has been made that customers do not rinse out their bottles, and that in consequence it is impossible to thoroughly cleanse them, but the city authorities will not be satisfied with any such excuse.

When milk was raised to 10 cents a quart the excuse was made that the increased cost of operation of the business made the increase in price necessary, but the quality of the product has not kept pace with the price, and the health officer is determined that the companies shall be forced to use only bottles that are wholesome and sweet in delivering their product.

There is at present on the ordinance books a law which requires that all cattle from which milk is sold within the corporate limits of Pasadena shall be put to the tuberculin test. This ordinance is vigorously enforced.

WANT STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

C. D. Daggett and John Wadsworth appeared before the Council yesterday morning on behalf of the property owners on Colorado street west of Terrace Drive and asked that the street be macadamized, sidewalked and guttered. The necessary number of property holders had signed the petition and the matter was referred to the committee on streets and alleys.

This matter was brought up several months ago but has been delayed, owing to a misunderstanding concerning the exact terms. Messrs. Daggett and Wadsworth stated that it was the desire of those interested, to have the matter settled as soon as possible and steps will probably be taken to comply with their wishes.

MUFFLERS FOR MOTORS.

A petition was presented asking that the Council pass an ordinance requiring that all motorcycles passing through town be muffled and that the riders be held responsible for the carrying out of the law. It was also asked that the ordinance include a provision requiring that such machines be equipped with numbers to facilitate the identification of the riders in case of accident or violation of the law. The matter was referred to the committee on ordinance and judiciary.

PLAN MEETS FAVOR.

The Roads Committee of the Board of Trade reports that the answers which are being received to the letters concerning the advisability of bonding the county to the amount of $3,000,000 for the construction of roads are almost without exception in favor of the project. There is a strong sentiment in favor of improving the system of roads in Southern California, and the project at present under consideration seems to meet with universal approval.

Although the postal cards sent out simply asked for a "yes" or "no" to the question, in nearly every case the men answering have made quotations on the card and the terms used in regard of the project are such as to allow of no misapprehension. Men prominently identified with affairs in this section have gone on record as favoring the project and, as far as Pasadena is concerned, it looks as though there will be but little opposition.

STOLEN WHEEL FOUND.

Desk Sergeant Pierce of the police department yesterday afternoon recovered a bicycle which was stolen in March. The machine was found in a local cyclery where a man was attempting to sell it and was at once confiscated. The wheel was stolen in Los Angeles and was reported here.

The man who, it is charged stole the wheel, Charles Robinson, is now doing time at San Diego for petty larceny. As he was sent up from Pasadena for a similar offense it is likely that he will get a long term when he is brought up for stealing the wheel.

Before his arrest here last March he lived for some time at a local rooming house and left the wheel as security for his room rent. The proprietor of the house kept it until recently when he decided to sell it. When confronted with the evidence that the property was stolen he readily relinquished all claim upon it.

SOCIETY DOINGS.

Mrs. Charles M. Baker of the Avon, entertained last evening in honor of her daughter, Miss Clara Baker. The evening was passed with progressive games, the score cards being miniature Christmas stockings.

The Thimble Society of the Woman's Relief Corps will meet Wednesday, January 2, at the home of the president, Mrs. Hamblet at No. 139 South Madison avenue.

The marriage of Miss Anne Goodwin and Julius M. Nisson will take place on New Year's Day at the 3:30 o'clock, at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in South Pasadena.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Larson of No. 425 North Los Robles avenue have as their guests for an indefinite visit, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Johnson of San José.

Mrs. Louise Anderegg and her two daughters, Miss Grace and Miss May Anderegg, of No. 761 North Fair Oaks avenue, who have been visiting in Elsinore will return home in time for the tournament. Miss Cora Haase of Oak Park, Ill., a niece of Mrs. Anderegg, is also with the party.

Rev. and Mrs. D. D. Hill of Palmetto Drive have as their guests for the holidays their son, Prof. Charles C. Hill and his little daughter, Mr. Hill is the superintendent of the public schools at Palo Alto.

Miss Altadena Green, daughter of Col. and Mrs. G. G. Green, was the guest of honor at a dinner party given Christmas evening by Mrs. Green of Los Angeles.

Rev. and Mrs. Harry W. White who spent the holidays here with Mr. White's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. J. A. White of South Marengo avenue, left today for their home in Covina.

Last night was ladies' night at the Twilight Club and a large meeting was held at Hotel Maryland, 100 guests being present. Judge Enoch of Los Angeles was the speaker of the evening and read a paper on "The Puritans." The new officers of the club are Dr. J. H. McBride, president; Rev. E. S. McKittrick, vice-president; S. F. Johnson, secretary and treasurer; Arthur H. Chamberlain, George Stimson and Dr. F. C. E. Mattison, programme committee.

BUSINESS MEN PAY FINES.

Fail to Appear Before the City Recorder for Jury Duty and Are Mulcted.

SAN PEDRO, Dec. 27.—An imposing array of prominent business and professional men of this city lined up before City Recorder Smith this afternoon, charged with contempt of court. The list included Frank Foot, A. E. Maloy, L. M. Quinn, Jess Knight, William La Plant, Henry Weldon, John Mathews, John Randall, William Carpenter and T. M. Martin.

On yesterday a petty case was set in the Recorder's Court for trial. The foregoing gentlemen had been summoned as jurors, but all of them failed to appear at the appointed hour. The ire of Recorder Smith was aroused at the failure of these representative citizens to show their patriotism and love of civic duty, and he issued a bench warrant for their arrest.

After listening to various excuses, Recorder Smith delivered a little heart-to-heart talk, and then remarked: "Gentlemen, on account of your failure to perform your duty, I must ask you each to donate $1.50 into the coffers of our beloved city."

With broad grins and much bantering among themselves each of the "culprits" walked up and deposited the amount of his fine.

After the fines had been paid, Recorder Smith said: "Thanks, gentlemen. Go, and sin no more."

PASSENGER BOAT'S TRIAL.

A test run for the purpose of trying her engines was made today of the new passenger vessel City of Long Beach. The engines are said to have performed up to the expectations of the National Manufacturing Company and to the owners of the vessel, the Nelson Navigation Company.

The City of Long Beach is said to be the largest passenger vessel afloat propelled by gas or internal combustion engines. Her measurements are: Lenth, 140 feet; beam, 22 feet; draft, 9 feet; weight, 191 tons net; speed, 15 miles per hour. She is to be licensed to carry 500 passengers. She is twin-screw propelled. Power is furnished by a pair of six-cylinder National gas engines of 500 horse power each. She is lighted by electricity by an auxiliary four-cylinder National engine of sixteen horse power, with a Westinghouse generator (direct) connected to this engine. The power plant is a system of units in which is designed that any disability of any one would not interfere with the performance of duty of any other.

The National Manufacturing Company has its offices in Los Angeles, and has purchased seven and one-half acres at Dolgeville, on which it is proposed to erect a factory. Los Angeles investors are among the backers of the project.

IS PRISONER SILVA?

Man Arrested in Monrovia Has the Appearance of One Wanted for Slaying Delgado.

MONROVIA, Dec. 27.—At noon today Deputy Sheriff Miller and Constable John Thomas picked up a man who answers very minutely to the description of the slayer of Eulogio Delgado, who was killed in Los Angeles on October 6. He has the wart on the side of his neck, the scar on the shin and the cut on the thumb, all corresponding to the description of the much wanted Romaldo Silva.

The man being held claims that he is not the man wanted; that he can prove where he got the scars, and that he is willing to await further action of the officers. The Chief of Police of Los Angeles has been notified of the arrest.

TRIAL SATURDAY MORNING.

An anxious crowd has been hanging around the Pacific Electric depot, anxious to get a look at Delfino Albetra, who was arrested in San Diego Christmas day, charged with the murder of his wife on Sunday morning, September 2. It was not known to the crowd until late afternoon that the hearing had been continued until Saturday morning. Justice Holloway will hear the case. There were several witnesses of the shooting and several who saw Albetra pull his wife from the house by the hair of her head. The preliminary hearing will atract a large crowd.

VOTES AGAINST CONSOLIDATION.

STRAW EXPRESSION AT LONG BEACH MEETING.

Minority Recommendation Presents Arguments of the Claim for Equal Freight Rates With Los Angeles and Economy in Officers, But Ten to One Majority Negatives Report.

LONG BEACH, Dec. 27.—If the straw vote taken at today's mass meeting at the Auditorium is an indication of the feeling in Long Beach regarding consolidation with Los Angeles, that possibility is far removed. The meeting was called to hear the report of the committee appointed several weeks ago to confer with the consolidation committee and secure some statement of fact relative to the benefits to be obtained. The committee, however, after their visit were unable to agree upon any fixed report, and finally determined to call another mass meeting, submit the situation and ask that the committee be discharged.

In response to the call between 400 and 600 citizens gathered at the Auditorium and heard a minority report signed by three of the committee, C. C. Doran, C. H. Hoge and Harry Barndollar, urging consolidation and giving as arguments the claim of a saving in appraising officers, securing the same freight rates and the fact that if Wilmington and San Pedro joined Los Angeles the local harbor might suffer. The fear was also expressed that as the city grew the water supply might be insufficient.

Speeches were made by several, including Dr. L. A. Perce, C. H. Hoge, C. A. Buffum, and then a motion was made that the minority report be accepted. On a rising vote the audience by an overwhelming majority, estimated at ten to one, negatived the report, and on a second motion discharged the committee from further service.

THREE CITIES TALK UNION.

The three committees appointed by the San Pedro, Wilmington and Long Beach Trustees and Chambers of Commerce to consider the matter of a consolidation of the three harbor cities met last night and effected a permanent organization by the selection of Mayor Priestly of Wilmington as chairman, and W. A. Hinshaw as secretary. A subcommittee of three, John Gaffey of San Pedro, City Clerk Wood of Wilmington and James A. Miller of Long Beach, was selected to investigate the laws governing consolidation and submit a report setting forth a possible plan for action. An extended informal discussion was held by the meeting, and it was found that a majority of each committee is in favor of the proposed consolidation of the three harbor cities.

BAD CUT ON HAND.

Bravely holding a handkerchief tightly twisted about his wrist, Forest Harvey, aged 17, walked nearly a block today to get medical assistance for a grievous injury. Young Harvey was running a joining machine at the Star planing mill and catching his hand in the planer, had the fingers of his left hand cut off and his hand sawed through to the knuckles. With blood pouring from his maimed hand, he got out his handkerchief and twisting it about his wrist to stop the hemorrhage, hurried for a doctor. The physician thinks the entire hand will have to be amputated.

SEASHORE POINTS.

Jacob L. Miller, aged 70, a teamster, was hurled high in air last night by an electric car and coming down fell upon one of his horses and escaped, badly shaken up, but no bones broken. Miller was en route to the barn where he is employed and pulled up at American avenue to let a car go by. Then he started across and was struck by another car following close behind. The wagon was wrecked, but Miller was thrown forward and escaped death by alighting on his team.

Joseph Harris, who conducts a riding academy west of town, was riding across the mesa last night, when his horse stepped into a gopher hole and turned a somersault, unhorsing Harris, who fell under the horse. Both bones in his right leg are broken and he is badly bruised. The animal escaped injury.

Elmer Osborn, aged 6, was accidentally struck on the knee today by an ax in the hands of a young man engaged in grubbing out a stump. The ax opened a big gash and entered the joint, an injury which may permanently cripple the child.

C. A. Burgess caught his third jewfish on the outer wharf this morning and became so excited that it was necessary to take him home and summon a physician. The last catch weighs 175 pounds.

Col. G. S. Hord, late of Kentucky and of the Confederate army, yesterday met a G.A.R. veteran at West Long Beach and imbued with Christmas spirit, forgot their difference and took a friendly glass together. The colonel drank too much, however, was arrested and this morning paid a fine of $5 for his revival of old-time memories.

Bids for city printing were submitted to the Trustees last night. The Telegram bid 60 cents for first insertion and 50 for subsequent insertions. The Tribune bid 65 and 50 cents. The Press submitted no bid. All were taken under advisement.

The Alamitos Water Company today received from the East a traction ditch digger which will excavate a trench twenty inches wide and from six inches to five and one-half feet deep. It will be used in extending the company's mains in the Alamitos territory.

SUGARY PROJECT FOR COMPTON.

BEET PLANT IN PROSPECT FOR THAT COMMUNITY.

Growers of the Vicinity Have Meeting With Representatives of Eastern Investors Who State Conditions That Are Not Difficult to Secure.

COMPTON, Dec. 27.—A meeting of the beet growers of this community was held here last night with E. C. Chapin and W. C. Hogaboom representing Michigan investors who propose to put up a sugar factory here.

The projected plant is to represent an expenditure of $1,000,000 and have a daily capacity of 600 to 800 tons of beets. It is to employ from 225 to 300 men. They make a minimum offer of $3.50 per ton for beets, $4.50 for 12 per cent. beets and 33 1-3 cents rise for each additional 1 per cent. test.

This is pronounced an attractive offer for the ranchers, and the 4000 acres which they ask to be guaranteed is likely to be secured without difficulty.

Messrs. F. L. Walton, Mana Mayo, M. P. McDonald, Alva Rice, Clarence Jennings and A. W. Miller were chosen as a committee to represent the ranchers in getting the details of the contract arranged and the necessary acreage secured. It is proposed to have the factory ready for the 1908 crop.

The company also proposes to bring raw sugar from the Hawaiian Islands to refine and so keep the refinery running the year through. They also propose erecting a plant for the manufacture of denatured alcohol from the refuse syrup, all of which has a pleasing sound for Compton.

SCREAMS FRIGHTEN HIM.

"Barefoot Burglar" Swiftly Disappears at the First Yell of Mrs. Marrow.

Terrifying screams of Mrs. James Marrow made unsuccessful the latest attempt of "The Barefoot Burglar" to rob the Hotel Locke at Second and Hill streets, Wednesday night. As the thief disappeared down the stairway alarmed roomers ran from their apartments, but by the time they had learned what had frightened Mrs. Marrow, the burglar had gone.

Mrs. Marrow heard a noise, which sounded as though some one was attempting to try doors in the hallway near her room. Thinking that the person had entered a room, she left her room to secure a pitcher of water. When, upon her return, the woman suddenly came upon a man, sneaking along the hallway.

The frightened woman dropped the pitcher and cried out with fright. When the burglar heard her he turned and ran down the hall and disappeared down the stairs. Mrs. Marrow's description of the man tallied with other descriptions of a barefoot burglar. The incident was reported to the police last night.

Early this week the burglar made another attempt to enter the hotel but was driven away. When discovered he was endeavoring to enter the room of Miss B. Torundy, the proprietress. At the time Miss Torundy was at the Pacific Hospital, but valuable jewelry was in her room.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

COOL MOTHER SAVES CHILD.

PRESENCE OF MIND DOES IT IN RIVERSIDE.

Little One Plays With Matches in Yard and Her Dress Catches Fire, Throwing Her and Her Sisters Into Panic — Maternal Self-Possession Comes to the Rescue.

RIVERSIDE, Dec. 27.—Prompt action on the part of Mrs. George Baker of No. 262 East Eleventh street saved the life of her three-year-old daughter, Gwendolen. The child was conducting a quiet little experiment with matches in a vacant lot, when the natural consequences followed. Her dress caught fire, and she and another girl who was with her were thrown into a panic. Their screams brought their mother to the scene and, with cool self-possession, she succeeded in smothering the blaze with her hands. The mother and child are severely burned, but they will recover without permanent injury.

CHARTER ABOUT READY.

The freeholders have finished their work of framing a new city charter. The last of the reports were adopted at a meeting last evening and S. C. Evans and W. L. Peters were appointed a committee to give the various sections of the document suitable headings and prepare it for signing by the freeholders at a final meeting Saturday evening. The charter will then be published in the daily papers and submitted to a vote of the people.

LOCALS LOSE.

The Whittier College basketball team won from the local Y.M.C.A. team last evening in a fast exhibition game in Armory Hall. At the end of the second half the score stood 9 to 8 in favor of the Quaker town. The Riverside boys did rather good work in spots, but the Whittier boys outclassed them in team work and this went far toward giving them the game.

ELKS ON DIAMOND.

The baseball team of the Elks lodge of Santa Barbara will play a match game with the nine of the local lodge at Arlanzawa Park on New Year's afternoon, and the event will be made a gala one in lodge and sporting circles, as between sixty and 100 Elks and their friends are expected from Santa Barbara, and in addition there will in all probability be a delegation of Elks from San Bernardino and Redlands to witness the game.

The Santa Barbara party will arrive here early noon and will remain until Saturday morning. In the afternoon an automobile trip will be taken over the scenic boulevard to the summit of Mt. Rubidoux and to other points of interest, and in the evening a social session will be held at the lodge. The game will come off Tuesday afternoon, and as both teams are up to the mark, a fine game is promised. The day's festivities will close with a reception and ball in the evening at the Victoria Club in honor of the visiting Elks and ladies.

SMITH-RICHEY.

Miss Rose Richey and Eugene G. G. Smith were married last evening at a quiet ceremony at the home of the bride on West Ninth street. The decorations throughout were in the Christmas colors, red and green. Many red and green hearts were used, with scarlet geraniums, smilax and ivy. Rev. Mr. Bakin, pastor of Calvary Presbyterian Church, was the officiating clergyman. The wedding music was rendered by Mrs. F. E. Densmore. The bride's gown was of white mull and the flowers were white carnations and maidenhair ferns.

LAD IN DISGRACE.

Ray Norris, an eleven-year-old boy who had fallen into bad company, was brought before the Superior Court this morning on the charge of having assisted in stealing some pigeons and turning one of them to the chef of the Elks Club. He pleaded guilty to petty larceny and was put under probation for six months, with instructions to report once a week during that time to Joseph H. Cornell, who was appointed probation officer by the court.

ORANGE COUNTY NOTES.

SANTA ANA, Dec. 27.—J. Kujawsky of Los Angeles has closed his third deal for valuable land in the swamp district of Orange county. Less than two weeks ago Kujawsky bought the Hunt ranch, and previous to that he had come into possession of the Edmund Snow ranch adjoining. Yesterday a deed was filed transferring 178 acres in the Rancho Las Bolsas to Kujawsky, the deed being executed by James A. Day of Orange. Mortgage on the property to Day for $12,000 note given in connection with the deal.

The meeting of the City Board of Trustees last night Prof. J. A. Cranston was elected Superintendent of schools for four years. Prof. Cranston has been at the head of the city schools for the past year, and succeeded the $1385 bid of A. C. Taylor for the construction of a new high school building.

SAN DIEGO BOND ESTIMATES.

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 27.—Final estimates for the bond issue have been issued by the City Council committee: water extensions, $467,000; sewer extensions, $139,613; roads, $75,000; fire department, $9,000; Ninth Ward park, $25,000. Laid down for $29,000 of the sewer extension, and $6500 for sewers on Park Heights.

Mrs. M. Edwards, for fourteen years a deputy in the office of the County Clerk died yesterday, aged 49, leaving a widow, two sons and two daughters. Mr. Edwards was a native of Allegheny, Eng., and had been a resident of this county since 1887.

The Washington Memorial Association of this city has voted to expend the funds contributed toward a monument in coping around the lot upon which the government is to erect a monument in memory of the heroes.

The funeral of Rev. Father Cornelius Walsh, for the past eight years a member of St. Joseph's sanatorium, occurred yesterday. It was attended by a large number of the clergy and laity.

Fred Price, Superintendent of Machinery of the fire department of Los Angeles, and Miss Virginia C. Spencer were married here yesterday by the Rev. Paul's Episcopal Church. The committee of the City Council recommended the denial of the petition of the First Spiritualist Society for exemption of taxes on its church property.

SAN BERNARDINO ITEMS.

SAN BERNARDINO, Dec. 27.—The hearing in the case of Bert Mee and Ed Purchington, charged by State Game Warden Pritchard with violating the game laws in having more than the limit of quail in their possession, after being out several times discharged without reaching a verdict tonight. Seven stood for conviction from the first ballot.

Garner R. Rouse today attached all the furniture and other personal property in the Hicks Block, belonging to Mrs. L. M. Hicks, to secure agents' fee of $255 for the sale of the building, and L. D. Houghton has filed another attachment for $125, due on a promissory note. Mrs. Hicks recently sold the building for $9000 and disappeared. There are numerous other creditors.

YUCAIPE VALLEY SALE.

Large Tract Is to Be Thrown Open to Colonization—Tests of City Electric Plant.

REDLANDS, Dec. 27.—A large transaction in realty has just been consummated here. It is the purchase by direct cash or under contract of almost every acre of tillable land in the Upper Yucaipe Valley by a company of Los Angeles capitalists and is accompanied by the announcement that the valley will be colonized at once. George W. Hopkins of Los Angeles and San Francisco was in Redlands today and made final arrangements for the transfer of the property. The last purchase was that of W. L. Spoor, consisting of 720 acres, being the furthest up the valley and for which the company paid $11 an acre. "But," said Mr. Hopkins, "we did not get all the land on such favorable terms as that. There was a wide range in the prices we had to pay. But we were determined to have the whole tract, as it would be useless to undertake the development and colonization of the property unless we had full control of all the land within the valley. I have been connected with this kind of a proposition before, having been in the real estate business in Northern California for the past eighteen years. We have purchased practically the entire valley with the exception of a few small orchards and vineyards on the slopes of the hills around the tract. There is no orchard in the tract, but every one in the Yucaipe Valley touches our tract at some point.

The land purchased by this new company includes Yucaipe ranch (Dunlap ranch,) 3340 acres; Holton and McNee estate, 5007 acres; Atwood and Newmark purchase, 1860 acres; Clyde lands, 760 acres; Lynn ranch, 480 acres; Spoor ranch, 720 acres; total, 12,667 acres. It will be about two months before the company will be ready to offer the land for colonization as the concern is not yet fully organized.

The plan is to colonize the entire valley, getting most of the colonists from the Middle West. In order that the colonists may be induced to settle there, they must not only become cognizant of the value of the land, but must also have other attractions. The first of these is a convenient town. Redlands will supply this want in a great measure, although the promoters are planning to provide a town in or nearer the valley than this city.

COUNCILMAN RESIGNS.

Santa Barbara Has a Stormy Situation In Its City Government. Bad Blood.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SANTA BARBARA, Dec. 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Peter Poole, who is serving his second term as Councilman from the Sixth Ward, tendered his resignation to the Council at a late hour this afternoon.

At the regular Council session two weeks ago Mayor Wood charged the Councilman with being interested in a city contract for bridge work in violation of the charter. Contractor Williamson, who was the lowest bidder for the work, presented a bill for bridge work, and, on suggestion of the Mayor, payment was deferred until the charge of Poole being a party to the contract be investigated.

Today the Mayor brought the attention of the grand jury to the charge. Twenty witnesses were called to testify, but no information was obtainable.

Poole's resignation is a surprise to his friends. At the time the Mayor took office he asked for a day session of the Council, and Poole opposed the measure. Feeling between the two has been bitter since that time.

Except to say that time will tell its story Poole refuses to talk.

FULLERTON RANCH SALE.

FULLERTON, Dec. 27.—R. T. Davies has purchased from Mrs. P. Regan her ten-acre orange grove in the city for $10,000. There is a new residence. The place bears late oranges. This is one of the most valuable orchards in the local orange belt.

Arthur Johnson, who returned to his old home at Laramie, Wyo., a year ago, with a view of remaining, arrived here Wednesday and will again buy a home in Fullerton.

The California Vegetable Union has closed a contract to handle the output of the Olive Cabbage Growers' Association the coming season. Its acreage aggregates over 250. The prices will be fixed from week to week, the same as the past season. The acreage of Fullerton, Placentia, Olive, La Habra and Orangethorpe is estimated at 1000.

ROB POSTOFFICE SAFE.

Looters Take Tools from Blacksmith Shop and Ruthlessly Scatter Christmas Gifts.

GLENDALE, Dec. 27.—A robbery was done at the postoffice here last night. The burglars procured tools from the Lund blacksmith shop and forced an entrance to the office and broke into the office safe with a cold chisel.

From the safe the robbers took $200 in cash and $150 in stamps. Many registered packages and letters, both those in the safe and those which on account of their bulk could not be kept in the safe, were opened. Some of them were rifled in the rear of the postoffice and others were torn open in the blacksmith shop, where their contents were strewn about.

The character of the work done by the robbers aroused much public indignation here. There were many little fancy articles of no great intrinsic value which had been sent through the mails as Christmas gifts. These were ruthlessly scattered.

Following the robbery the looters stole a horse and buggy belonging to Dr. R. E. Chase of Glendale, and took the rig away, it is not known where.

The horse is described as black, sixteen hands high, 10 years old, branded with the letter J on right hind leg, white sock on left hind foot, slight patch of white on right hind foot, long, narrow head, Roman nose, tongue cut by bit, rather gaunt, coat rough, weight about 1100 pounds. The harness is rubber trimmed and the buggy is a steel-tired runabout.

Postoffice Inspector Wilson is investigating.

WED AT GLENDORA.

GLENDORA, Dec. 27.—At the residence of Mrs. Thomas S. McNair this afternoon Miss Mary Stevens McNair became the bride of Nevin Elwell Funk. Rev. Charles F. Richardson officiated. The ceremony was performed in the reception room, where the bay window was appropriately decorated to form a chancel. Only the immediate relatives were present. The couple left this evening for Atlanta, Ga., where the groom is instructor in the Georgia School of Technology. The bride has been prominent socially during her residence in Glendora. She is a member of the Amphion, the valley's musical organization.

GRIEVANCE OF RANCHMAN.

Doesn't Like to Have His Large Place Swallowed by Annexation to Santa Monica.

SANTA MONICA, Dec. 27.—The legality of the election by which Santa Monica recently annexed a considerable expanse of territory on the east and southeast may soon be questioned in the Superior Court. As preliminary to a quo warranto proceeding which may be brought, John Charnock of The Palms has just had a transcript made of all official proceedings leading up to and involving the election.

Charnock owns about 400 acres of farm land that was voted into the city when the election was held, and he feels inclined to resist the payment of city taxes on this large farm. The taxes are no small item, while the prospective plaintiff thinks he sees visions of street improvements, etc., yet to come. There is nothing definitely decided, as yet, as to the suit; but if any irregularities are found in the proceedings, upon which a suit might succeed, there is a reasonable assurance that the action will be brought.

MAY INCORPORATE SCHOOL.

A local incorporation is in the process of formation for the purpose of taking over the management and affairs of the Southern California Military Academy. This is the school that was founded here early in the fall, and has been conducted with success during the winter in tents in the city park. The original plans contemplated the occupancy of the Arcadia Hotel, but there may be a change in that plan, inasmuch as the Pacific Improvement Company of San Francisco, the owner of the hotel property, is at this time offering the hotel for sale. The organization of a stock company insures the permanency of the institution, which is making satisfactory growth in attendance.

VISITORS FROM FULLERTON.

A delegation of Fullerton's city officials and citizens paid Santa Monica a visit today. Their purpose in coming was to make an investigation of the oiled streets, garbage incinerator, and other municipal betterments. Among the guests were Mayor Benchley, Marshal Ruddock, Trustee Welton and Messrs. Vanderberg, Richmond, Sayer, Coulter, Dunham, Sitton, Rogers, Krug, DeGrange, Gober and Page.

HIGHEST IN COVINA.

Top Notch Price to Date for Business Property Situated in That Foothill City.

COVINA, Dec. 27.—Fifteen thousand five hundred dollars was paid Thursday by Senator R. F. Buller of Idaho for a corner on Citrus avenue and East College street 71 feet on Citrus and 101 feet on East College, the property of W. D. Ellis and I. C. Fairly. Upon the property are two one-story brick storerooms and a small bake shop, facing on Citrus avenue, the total cost of erection of which did not exceed $4500. This is the highest price that has yet been paid for a business corner in Covina. The property is purchased as an investment.

COVINA CITY NOTES.

Mrs. Catherine M. Broadwell, mother of W. B. Broadwell of this city, died at her home in Ocean Park Wednesday morning. The body was brought here last night for burial.

Miss Minta Bashor and Oscar Smith were united in marriage Christmas at the home of the bride's parents. The wedding was a simple affair, only relatives and the most intimate friends of the young couple being present. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Smith left on a short wedding trip, after which they will make their home in Covina.

Dr. Edward's Tablets and Pills have been purchased during the past two years. Somebody must be pleased with the results obtained by using them. Hadn't you better try them yourself? It will not cost you a cent to obtain a trial package from the drug store named below.

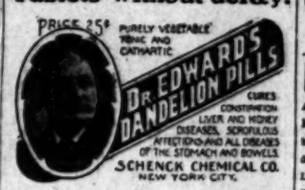
We do not claim that they will cure every disease, but we do claim that they are the best known remedies for the following troubles:

The Tablets cure
Rheumatism
Kidney Trouble
Liver Trouble
Dyspepsia
Constipation

The Pills cure
Stomach Trouble
Bowel Troubles
Liver Trouble
Kidney Troubles
Constipation

All these troubles react one on the other. A deranged Stomach produces a weak Heart. A diseased Liver brings on stomach trouble, biliousness and constipation. Overworked Kidneys permit an excess of uric acid in the blood and then you have Rheumatism and may be Bright's Disease and Diabetes.

Don't take any chances, but get a trial package of Dandelion Tablets without delay.



THE SCHENCK CHEMICAL CO.

Dear Sir:—For about seven years I have been tortured with rheumatism. I had it in my arms and joints so bad that I could scarcely raise my hands to my head or walk on my feet. But now, thanks to your wonderful Dandelion Tablets, I have not had a pain in six months, which I consider very remarkable, as I had suffered so long. I want to recommend it to all suffering from this painful and irritating disease.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

The produce market continued dull and featureless yesterday, the expected lull immediately after the heavy Christmas traffic. Prices were well maintained all along the line, practically no changes being made.

Lower prices on eggs are not expected as long as the inclement weather continues. Bright, sunny weather will increase the supply of ranch eggs, and drops will undoubtedly occur. Thirty-seven and one-half cents was asked for local case count eggs yesterday on change, but no bids were made.

Butter holds well at the present prices.

Arrivals of potatoes yesterday were heavier than on the two previous days. Receipts for the day were 3827 sacks. Local potato dealers who are bringing in considerable product to this market, state that it costs them between 1.00@1.25 to lay them down in this market, and that they will not sell under 1.60 for all stocks shipped here from the East. River potatoes have ceased to cut a figure on the local market, now that they are worth more in the North than they are here. Eastern potatoes are of better quality than local. The crop in the East is unusually large this season, and prices reasonable. There is little likelihood of any early advance in prices here. Several carloads of eastern potatoes are due today.

The reported weakness on onions is only on the inferior grades. The damp weather has caused onions to sprout, and quantities of poor onions have been thrust on the market. Fancy selected stocks hold strong.

Little business was done on the vegetable market yesterday, owing largely to the shortage of supplies. Strawberries are firm at 16@20; tomatoes have advanced to 60@60; peas were firmer at 10 flat; Bell peppers are steady at 20@25.

Fish, lobsters and wild game were scarce.

Live turkeys sell at 18c per pound, and dressed turkeys bring 20c per pound.

The receipts of produce as reported for yesterday's exchange were as follows: Eggs, 142 cases; butter, 17,700 lbs.; local potatoes, 3827 sacks; onions, 250 sacks; beans, none; sweet potatoes, none.

LOCAL STOCK MARKET.

STAGNANT conditions continue to prevail on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange, due mainly to the holiday season.

Business was best Thursday among the miscellaneous stocks, with Home common, the market leader in both the number of shares sold, and strength apparent. The sales amounted to 100 shares at 25. The stock closed with 24 bid and 26 asked, a gain of ½ point on the bid, and 1 on the asked of the preceding day. The stock opened the day with a weak bid of 26, and an offering at 25. Interest was apparently very strong in the security, as the bidding was lively, and raised the offered price to 23, and then 24 and 25, at which point the sale was made. The transaction was in one block of 100 shares. No bidding was heard for futures of any kind. The preferred stock of the same company was in fair demand, but the holders evidently considered it worth more than 65, the highest price offered, and odd lots were the only sellers, six shares changing hands at 64.50 and at 65. Large lots of 100 shares were in demand, the prices offered reaching high at 65. Low offering was at 66.75, which later was withdrawn, the stock closing at 65@67. Bidding for futures was confined to buyer thirties, the prices ranging from 65@66.50.

Pasadena Home was also an active stock among the miscellaneous securities, twenty shares changing hands at 22, Wednesday's closing bid. The stock was offered down from 37, with the best bid at 22, the holder finally taking up the bidder's offer. One buy-and-sell proposition was worked in nicely on a ten-share lot. The stock closed with 22 bid, with an offering one point higher, at 33. An effort was made to dispose of 200 shares of Union Trust and Title stock, the holder offering it down to 51 for the lot. No taker appeared, and the stock was offered at 50.50, in regular board lots, with no bidding for it. Edison common lost 1½ points on the bid, closing with no transactions at 61, with none offered. Other stocks in this particular list were inactive.

Oil stocks were next in importance Thursday, with Mexican Petroleum showing the most transactions, 2000 shares changing hands at 1.35. The stock opened with a bid at 1.30, four points above the closing at 1.26 on Wednesday. The stock was offered at 1.35, never going below that point, and the bidder, after raising his offer to 31, took the stock. No bidding was heard for futures of any kind, with the exception of sixty-day puts, which were wanted at 25 to 20. Buyer thirties were offered at 1.37, and the ninety-day contracts were offered at 1.45. The stock closed at 1.30@1.35.

Central Oil was the only other trader, 1190 shares being traded in at 1.10 @1.12½. The stock closed with a distinct gain apparent in the bid at 1.12 @1.13½. Bidding for futures while rather slack, was strong, offerings ranging from 1.12 to 1.13 for the thirty day contracts, with 1.15 offered on the sixty day contracts. As high as 1.19 was offered for the thirty day options, but the stock was not offered under any conditions except cash and no other sales resulted.

Associated Oil suffered a loss of 1¾ points on the bid and shows a gain of ¾ on the asked of the previous day. With the exception of one option at sixty days at 51 no sales were made. For the buyer thirty contracts the range on the bids was from 47 to 48 with no stock offered. Thirty day calls were bid for at 48@50 with the offering receding from 52 to 50½. The sixty day options were bid for at 51 and were held at 53@52½. Union, while no trading was carried on, shows a gain of 2½ points on the bid—the stock closing at 200.50 with the holding price at 207.50, which is several points higher than it was before the holiday season. The only bidding for futures was for calls at sixty days, which were wanted at 210 with no stock for sale. The first live bid on United Petroleum heard for many weeks was made Thursday, the price offered ranging from 300 to 330 with no stock on the floor. Fullerton Consolidated was still in demand at par bid, with none offered. Rich Ranch Oil was bid up to 1.30 and offered at 1.50 with no trading. Ninety day calls were in demand at 1.25@1.45 with the asked at 1.70@1.55. Columbia Oil shows an advance of 5½ points on the previous day's quotation, closing with a bid of 30¼ and an offering at 45. Continental Oil closed at 16½ bid and 20 asked with no sales recorded.

Citizens National shows the only gain of the day in the banking securities, being bid up from 235 to 237.50. No stock was to be had. Bidding for futures on Merchants Trust Company ranged from 97 to 101 for the thirty day options, with none offered. The stock closed without a quotation. State Bank and Trust lost point on both the bid and asked closing at 88 at 90, with no sales. Bonds were quiet.

DULL THERE, TOO.

The same conditions prevailing during the early call of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange were apparent on the mining call. Little business was carried on and what was done was mostly among the cheapest stocks listed. Transactions amounted to 29,000 shares and the total money involved in the trade amounted to about 4250.

Eldorado Cañon was again the market leader in point of actual sales made, 12,000 of the stuff being dumped in at 2¾@3¼, the stock closing with those same prices bid and asked.

Johnnie Consolidated was fairly strong, the sales sheet showing transactions amounting to 7000 shares at 18½@18¾, the same prices which ruled Wednesday. The stock opened with a very weak bid at 6 and an asked price at 20. The bidding became slightly stronger and the sales followed. No attention was paid any future trading in this stock and the closing quotations were 18½@18¾.

California Hills was traded in to the extent of 6000 shares, 1000 shares at Immediate cash delivery at 7¼ and a block of 5000 at 8, buyer thirty. The close found the stock with a fractional gain on the bid at 7¾@7¾. Nevada Searchlight was traded in to 3000 shares, the price being at 6¾@7¼, which is slightly in advance of the prices prevailing Wednesday. The stock closed with a gain of 1¼ points on the bid at 7¼, with none offered.

One sale of 1000 shares of Clark Copper at 61, buyer thirty days, is also recorded. The stock suffered a further decline to 51 bid and 60 asked. Thirty-day buyer contracts were on the market at 65@61 with no bidding. The ninety-day variety were offered at 5@69, with the bidding ranging from 50 to 58. Other mining stocks were dead, many of them closing without a quotation posted.

J. B. Neville, vice-president of the local stock exchange, announced that the only action to be taken at the annual meeting called for New Year's Day, will be to postpone for one month, when the yearly election, and other business, will be attended to.

Announcement

Woodbury January Enrollment

Monday, December 31, and All Week
Monday, January 7, and All Week
Monday, January 28, and All Week

The Woodbury Business College is in session during the entire year and has no special term divisions. Every day is an enrollment day, and the BEST day for the prospective student to register is WHEN HE IS READY.

But, while the customary school semesters do not obtain at the Woodbury, JANUARY naturally marks the NEW-YEAR EPOCH of active new-student registration, the same as September marks the opening of the fall activities.

To all who read this announcement and who contemplate a business college training we extend greetings and a most cordial invitation to join the live and progressive Woodbury ranks of 1907.

The school is now at its very best. The courses of study are not only thoroughly practical from start to finish, but fascinating as well. There is nothing dull or commonplace on the programme. We attract a bright, ambitious class of students. A spirit of enthusiasm and energetic work permeates the entire institution. The Woodbury teachers are especially well qualified for their work, and take more than ordinary interest in each student's welfare and progress.

These conditions enable us to be exceptionally successful in qualifying young people for efficient and money-earning business service. Our graduates are thus taken by business firms as fast as we can get them ready. In fact, the demand upon the college for help is at least twice the supply. No one should hesitate a moment about investing the small amount of time and money required for the Woodbury course of business preparation. It is the best investment that can possibly be made. Position and promotion are as certain to follow the Woodbury training as day follows dawn.

There is no field of endeavor so promising to ambitious young men and women who desire to earn money as the field of business. The era of marvelous development upon which our great Southland has entered should certainly inspire every young person with an ambition to become an active and productive worker in his favored land of great opportunities.

We have recently issued a finely illustrated school catalogue which is quite different from any other. It will be delivered promptly to any one who will call, write or telephone for it.

WE INVITE INQUIRIES AND INVESTIGATION.
